Carmen smiled as she watched tourists(游客)get on the big cool bus .When everyone was on the bus, Carmen entered and sat down beside the driver .Here she could face the passengers and speak to them .

“ Good morning, ladies and gentlemen, ”she said loudly“. Welcome to Mexico City .I am Carmen Campos, and I am going to show you around our beautiful capital city .Today we are going to visit both old and new places .Please sit back and make yourselves comfortable .We'll start in just a few minutes .”

Carmen has been a tourist guide(向导)for over a year now, and she likes her job very much . She enjoys meeting people from other countries .She likes to let them see“ her ”city, tell them about its history and show them its beautiful places .

She wanted to be a tourist guide for as long as she could remember .When she was just a little girl, she liked to watch tourist guides leading groups of tourists around some beautiful buildings . She would like to stand close to the group and listen to the guides .And she tried to remember everything she heard .

Then one day, while she was still in middle school, she went into a tourist office to ask for a job .The manager(经理)there was kind and spent a long time answering her questions .He said: “ you should know that this is a difficult job .A tourist should be interested in people and talk to them easily .A guide must be able to speak more than one language .A guide should know a lot of things about our country, our art and our history and he (or she)should know a lot of things about other countries, too .”

As she listened to the manager, Carmen was sure that she could try to become a tourist guide and she was glad she had studied English .But she knew she needed to know more about other countries .

After she left middle school, Carmen went on studying English and she also took classes in French and German .Carmen is doing well in her job as a guide .She has shown people many times around the Mexico City but she never seems to get tired of talking about it .

阅读下列短文,从每题所给的四个选项(A、B、C 和 D)中,选出最佳选项。

As a student, you may know the importance of English .But how can you study English well ?

I think it necessary that you should try your best to use English .We study English, not study about English .That a person knows a set of grammatical rules and a lot of English words does not mean that he has mastered the language .A student's mastery of English is ultimately(最终的) measured by how well he can use it, not by how much he knows about it .I believe that learning English is just like learning to play the piano .A student of the piano lessons has only on purpose (目的): after practicing, he/ she is able to play the piano .So you should also have such a purpose: you are able to use English .

Using English means being able to speak English and write in English .Not only should you answer the teacher's questions in English, but also speak as much English as you after class .Writing diaries in English is the best way to improve your writing ability .

72. The sentence“ We study English, not study about English ”means that _____ .

A. we study the English language in order to use English, not only to learn some grammatical
