Marie Martin lives with her parents in Canada. During last summer vacation, (假期) she went to the United States to see her friend Kathy Baker.

She took the trip (旅行) first by plane and then by train. At first, she flew from Montreal to New York on July 14th. The weather was fine that day. It was sunny and with a cool breeze (微风). She spent one night in New York and on the next day she went to the station to take a train because she wanted to see the cities all the way to California. The weather was still fine when she arrived at Chicago in the evening; but when she left that city the next morning, the weather changed. It became windy at first and then it was stormy in the mountains near Nebraska. When the train stopped on the station of San Francisco, the rain was pouring. Kathy's whole family was there to meet and welcome her. When they got home, it was already midnight and the rain did not stop.

After the trip, Marie took a rest for two days.
