前 言

英语篇章改错是一篇约200字的文章，标着题号的各行往往有一处错：遗漏、多余、搭配不当、近义或近形词混淆、拼写或词形变化错误。每处错误只涉及一个词。错误多出现在常用词：冠词、代词、连词、前置词、不规则动词。

做改错题的方式，大体已有规范：遗漏的在遗漏处插入“Λ”号，并在该行的题号右侧写应插入的词；多余的或错误的在下面划线，在填答案处写“/”或正确的词；没有错误的则只须在题号右边写“√”。具体请参考“做题样板”。

一些学生未掌握正确的方法。他们常出的差错有：(1)把答案写在原文里；(2)把答案写在其他行；(3)在正确答案前写出原文错误的词，还写“改为”或画箭头；(4)在没有题号的各行里找错误。应按上段讲的方法做(不可像本书参考答案那样做)。

改错题涉及的是常见错误。它与选择题不同之处是：做选择题只判断现成语言材料的正误。改错题限定错误在某一行，学生必须判断具体错在何处并写出正确的词。篇章改错有时联系相当长的上下文才做得出来。若能改错，做选择题可有较大的把握。平时应常注意判别正误，尤其留心作业里教师的批改。做题要力求触类旁通。

本书以有限的习题复盖尽可能多的典型基本错误。为了增进读者的做题兴趣，作者精心选择自写的文章，以故事为主，并兼顾趣味性和知识性。本习题集难度相当于高考题。最好高二开始做这种题目。

做题样板

Long long before, there was a wise judge. 1 ago One raining morning, two men came to him. They 2 rainy were quarrelling. The judge let them to state 3 / their cases one after ^ other. 4 the

"When sky suddenly rained," the first man 5 it said, "I taken shelter under a big tree. Soon 6 took water dropped from the leaves and I held up my 7 dropped roll of cloth( 一匹布 ) to protect meself. Then 8 myself came this man. So I offered him a part of my 9 / shelter. But when the rain was past, he want- 10 over ed to take my cloth. He's a thief."

The other man said the same things. As no 11 thing evidence( 证据 ) was available, it was impossible for the judge to make a decision. But he 12 ✓ said, "It's very simple to settle. Here's my decision: I'll tear the cloth in half. Every 13 Each of you will get half."

Hardly had anybody had time to laugh than 14 when the first man protested angrily. However, the second man warmly sang the judge's praise.

Instead of ^ cloth, the second man got a 15 any good beating.

(1) Too Much Comfort and Enjoyment

Few peoples lived to be seventy. But Cado 1 _____ was then ninty. He lived all by himself. His 2 _____ wife had died of hungry and both his sons had 3 _____ been killed in war.

Luckyly Cado still felt quite active. He 4 _____ made a life by cutting firewood and growing 5 _____ vegetables. He seemed always happy and said he could worked for another ten years. 6 _____

On his way to sell firewood one day, Cado meet the king. He saw carts coming along. He 7 _____ wanted to make way, but he was too slow. The king asked him several problems politely and 8 _____ said, "Please you live with me in my palace. 9 _____ I'll treat you as my grandfather." On second thought, the old man accepted the offer. 10 _____

The king gave Cado several servants. When Cado needed something, they would bring them 11 _____ to him. They show him round beautiful gardens 12 _____ and buildings. Everybody respected him as the king's grandfather.

However, after a few months, the old man 13 _____ got tire of life at the palace. He felt weak 14 _____ and ill. Soon he died. People said he died of 15 _____ no work and too much enjoyment.

(2) Fruit Trees Like Music

Ours were a farming community. My father 1 _____ was very hard-working. But the harvest he got 2 _____ was a little better than average (中等).

A complete different farmer was our young 3 _____ neighbour Mr. Lai. He seemed the most laziest 4 _____ farmer I know. Hardly had he do any work in 5 _____ his orchard (果园). Perhaps the only thing he did, day and night, was staying in a hut in his orchard. He was afraid thieves would come 6 _____ and steal his fruit. Strangely to say, lazy 7 _____ as he was, he always got the best harvest.

Many of farmers said lazybones had good 8 _____ luck. God helped the lazy!

When the others consulted (请教) him, Mr. 9 _____ Lai would smile and said, "I am too lazy to 10 _____ have anything special."

An agriculture professor heard the story 11 _____ and came for a visit. As soon as he entered the orchard, he had understood everything. 12 _____

Mr. Lai was a great lover of traditional 13 _____ music. He spent a lot of time listen to very 14 _____ sweet music and sang when he felt to like it.

"Hearing sweet music, trees grow goodly," 15 _____ explained the professor.

(3) Escaping Robbery

The Farmer Hay and his wife were on their 1 _____ way to town for salt, oil and few other daily 2 _____ necessities: It was quite a long distant over 3 _____ hills thickly growing with trees. They feared 4 _____ that thieves might suddenly jump out behind a 5 _____ big rock and rob them their money. 6 _____

They covered half the journey in peaceful. 7 _____
The nearer to town, safer they felt. However, 8 _____ when they just turned a corner, they caught 9 _____ sight of robbers searched travellers. Now the 10 _____ robbers had also seen them. It was too late for them to retreat. If they tried to escape, very probably those men would shot. 11 _____

Ordered by an elder robber, the Hays had 12 _____ to go up to the spot. The man searched Hay's every pocket and then his wife. But he didn't 13 _____ find a cent. The husband and wife were told,
"Get out of here!"

The couple continued their way in silent. 14 _____
Then the woman asked anxiously, "Is the money still there?"

"Yes," answered her husband. "I held up my hands with the money in the left fist. But the big fool searched only my trouser." 15 _____

(4) Three Presents

One day, Mr. Long's daughter-in-law asked whether he would allow her visit her parents. 1
Mr. Long said that she could go but he hoped 2 her to bring him three presents when she returned: wind held on paper, a fire wrapped 3 (包) in paper and food that he like to eat at 4 the moment.

The young lady thought hard. Yet she had no ideas what the things were. She could not 5 but asked her clever maid (女仆). 6

Known the answers, the lady gladly left 7 for the visit.

It was Mid-Autumn Festival (中秋节) that 8 she returned. She said to her father-in-law,
"I have brought to you some presents. Here's 9 a fan. It'd give you cool wind in summer. A 10 lantern (灯笼) is fire wrapped in paper. And this box of moon cakes are from my parents. 11
They wish you'll like these cakes as they do." 12

Mr. Long was very pleasing. But later he 13 found it was the maid who got the answers. So 14 he had his second son married the maid. 15

(5) Lost in Town (A)

The other day I decided to visit a friend 1 _____ of me at his office. Though we had sometimes 2 _____ talked through the phone, we had not seen each 3 _____ other for two long years. I missed him a lot.
Beside, there were some problems that I must 4 _____ discuss with him face to face.

The city being rebuilt, I was afraid of 5 _____ losing my directions. I got a map recently pub- 6 _____ lished and studied it carefully. I found that 7 _____ part of the city remained much the same as it use 8 _____ to be. The place was only six kilometers 9 _____ from here. But I had to change bus twice. So 9 _____
I preferred to ride my bike there. 10 _____

I found my way there without difficulty.
Yet on way back, I turned a wrong corner and 11 _____ got lost. Seeing the street and houses on two 12 _____ sides strange to me, I consulted a policeman.
He carelessly told me to go straightly on and 13 _____ turn the first corner to the right. Following his advise doubtfully, I got off at the first 14 _____ turning. Only after much studies did I know 15 _____ where I was.

(6) How Monkeys Are Caught

Few animals other than the monkey has 1 _____ handlike paws. Like the man, the monkey can 2 _____ pick up things as tiny as rice. However, the 3 _____ monkey's ability to grasp things always leads 3 _____ to its capture.

Hunters make a hole on a coconut (椰子) shell 4 _____ and put peanuts (花生) in it. They remain the 5 _____ coconut shell at some place there monkeys 6 _____ often go to. The monkey has no trouble put- 7 _____ ting its paw through the hole. But it cannot draw the paw out while it is holding peanuts.
Since it is very stupid or greedy to open its 8 _____ fist, a monkey is unable to free itself from 9 _____ this simple trap (陷阱).

Hearing the noise made by the trapped mon- 10 _____ key, the hunters, who had been hiding behind 11 _____ some rock or tree, come out. They throw a net over the monkey and take it into a cage.

In fact, to get the peanuts, all the monkey has to do are to hold the coconut shell 12 _____ upside down. The content will fall down to 13 _____ the ground. But the monkey is anxious to eat 14 _____ the delicious food that he always acts head- 15 _____ lessly before the time comes for it to regret.

(7) Bad Luck

This days, Uncle Sam has had bad luck. 1 _____

One day morning, Uncle Sam went shopping. 2 _____

No sooner had he parked his bike when a young 3 _____ man unlocked it. Sam heard the noisy, turned 4 _____ about and seized the man by the arm, crying, 5 _____

"My bike!" But the man struggled and shouted, 6 _____

"Thief! A thief is robing me of my bike!" A 6 _____ policeman ran up. He hit old Sam in the face. 7 _____

Said "thank you", the thief quickly rode off. 8 _____

When Sam explained the case, his bike was no- 9 _____ where to be seen.

The next day, Sam left town on business.

When he returned, he found his door break and 10 _____ his TV set stolen. One neighbour told him, "A 11 _____ monent ago, I met two young men carried a TV 12 _____ set down the stair. One of them asked, 'Are 13 _____ you sure you can repair it?' The other said,

'Of course.' Then I heard them shout from the ground, 'Uncle Sam, I'll return you the set as soon as I've repaired it.' I never thought those nice-looking young men are thieves." 14 _____

Now Uncle Sam is afraid that if he's out, he may go into much greater trouble. 15 _____

(8) Newton Invites a Friend to Dinner

Everybody all knows the scientist Newton. 1 _____
He is famous with his important discoveries, 2 _____ that sped up social progress in all fields. 3 _____
Many a stories tell us how hard he worked. 4 _____

Newton was so deep in his study that he _____ often forgot everything. Once he invited one 5 _____ of his friend to dinner and forgot all about 6 _____ it. But his servant did not. When the guess 7 _____ came, the table was set. The man saw Newton _____ was still busy at his study and did not like 8 _____ to disturb him. He sat waited patiently. 9 _____

An hour past, yet Newton didn't come out. 10 _____ Quite hungry, the man decided to make a trick 11 _____ on his host. He quietly ate up all that were 12 _____ on the table and left.

Hours later, having solved some problems, _____ Newton came out to the dinning hall. He found 13 _____ chicken bones on the table and thought he had _____ already eaten. Then he returned to continue _____ his study, not at all felt hungry. 14 _____

When later the friend met Newton, he told _____ how he had eaten that dinner alone. They all 15 _____ laughed heartily.

(9) At the Seaside

In last July, some friends and I went to 1 _____ the seaside and swam as much as we had liked. 2 _____

Sea looked black green. Some four kilome- 3 _____ ters away it met with the sky. The waves were 4 _____ at least one meter high. And they got higher when coming near. Pushed up by shallows (浅滩) waves rise and turned into white foams (泡沫), 5 _____ making a lot noise. Instead of swimming, most 6 _____ people were wading (涉水) waist-deep or lest. 7 _____ Waves often threw them out of balance.

We joined in. The sands felt comfortable. 8 _____
And so was the water. Suddenly a white wave 9 _____ sent me off my feet, pushed me to the beach, 10 _____ and seconds later it washed me offshore when it retreated back. For several minutes I just 11 _____ played the waves. Then I swam to deeper water. 12 _____ There were no white foams. The waves jumped me up and down. Sometimes they covered on me 13 _____ overhead. But each time soon I came up.

A few days at the seaside passed quickly. 14 _____ We left unwillingly. We all look forward to swim there again next summer. 15 _____
