PREFACE

Being an important sculptor for the art history of China during the 20th century and one of the founders of new China's sculpture cause, Zhang Songhe had long been famous for making the relief sculpture of the Guerrilla War Against Japan on the Monument to the People's Heroes and the statue of Chairman Mao and Lu Xun.

Zhang Songhe, born on October 10, 1912, a native Dongguan People of Guangdong Province, who was admitted by Guangdong Municipal College of Fine Art in 1930. Later in 1936, he joined the forth division of the second corps of the National Army and appointed as a lieutenant and a staff member of art section responsible for drawing and compiling the Pictorial Magazine used for propaganda purpose during Anti-Japanese War. After that, in 1938, he joined the Communist Party of China while serving in Dongjiang Anti-Japanese Column and having successively held the posts of the district head for Anti-Japanese and Democratic movement, the Director of the combined area, the Deputy Commander of the third battle-front stationed at South Bank of Dongjiang River where he was mainly responsible for compiling the Match Express and Match Pictorial Magazine. After the founding of the nation, he was engaging in sculpture creation in Beijing People's Studio for Fine Art, Beijing Fine Art Company, Beijing Fine Art Academy one after another, including acting as the CPPCC member of the 5th, 6th and 7th CPPCC National Committee. In the 1960s, he was awarded with the title of being the Country's Expert with outstanding contributions and for which he was entitled to enjoy the special allowance given by the State Council. On July 28, 2005, he died in his hometown Dongguan at the age of 93.

Statue of leaders and revolutionary heroes were the focus of Zhang Songhe's sculptures. The sculpture works he created are not only widely enjoyed by the general mass, but also believed to be indispensable masterpieces to art history of the new China and carriers of the collective memories of several generations. Many forms of art, such as oil painting, traditional Chinese painting and seal carving can be found among his works and moreover, he was also good at poetic creation. At the centennial celebration of Zhang Songhe's Birth, with the combined efforts from Beijing Fine Art Academy, Dongguan Political Consultative Conference and Lingnan Fine Art Institute is going to plan and hold a retrospective of Zhang Songhe's Works under the name of a Soul Cast by Loyalty, an exhibition that is aimed at the demonstration of the life and artistic achievements of an artist, who is recorded by China's history in the 1900s, an age of rapid change, through a number of materials represented by sculptures, paintings, calligraphies, seals, manuscripts, literatures, monuments, etc.

前言

张松鹤是 20 世纪中国艺术史上重要的雕塑家，一直以来以制作人民英雄纪念碑《抗日游击战》浮雕和毛主席像、鲁迅像而闻名，是新中国雕塑事业的奠基人之一。

张松鹤，生于 1912 年 10 月 10 日，广东东莞人。1930 年考入广州市市立美术学校。1936 年入国民第二军第四师任中尉艺术科员，绘编抗日宣传画报。1938 年加入中国共产党及东江抗日纵队，历任抗日民主区长、联区主任、东江南岸第三战线副指挥，主编《行军快报》、《行军画报》。新中国成立后，曾先后在北京人民美术工作室、北京市美术公司、北京画院从事雕塑创作，是第五、六、七届全国政协委员。自 20 世纪 60 年代起，被授予“国家突出贡献专家”称号，享受国务院专家特殊津贴。2005 年 7 月 28 日，因病在家乡东莞去世，享年 93 岁。

张松鹤的雕塑以领袖像和革命英雄为主，其所创作的雕塑广受传诵，不仅是新中国美术史上不可或缺的经典作品，同时还承载着几代人的集体记忆。其所关注的艺术形式多样，举凡油画、国画、印章均有所涉猎，同时擅长诗词创作。借张松鹤百年诞辰之际，岭南画院联合北京画院、东莞市政协等单位策划举办“丹心铸英魂——张松鹤回顾展”，旨在通过雕塑、绘画、书法、印章、手稿、文献、纪念物等多种材料，呈现身处风云变幻的 20 世纪中国历史中一位艺术家的人生历程和艺术成就。
