Mom said, "We have too much stuff that we don't use. It is time for a yard sale."

“We can find lots of stuff to sell.”

We went to the garage. It was full.

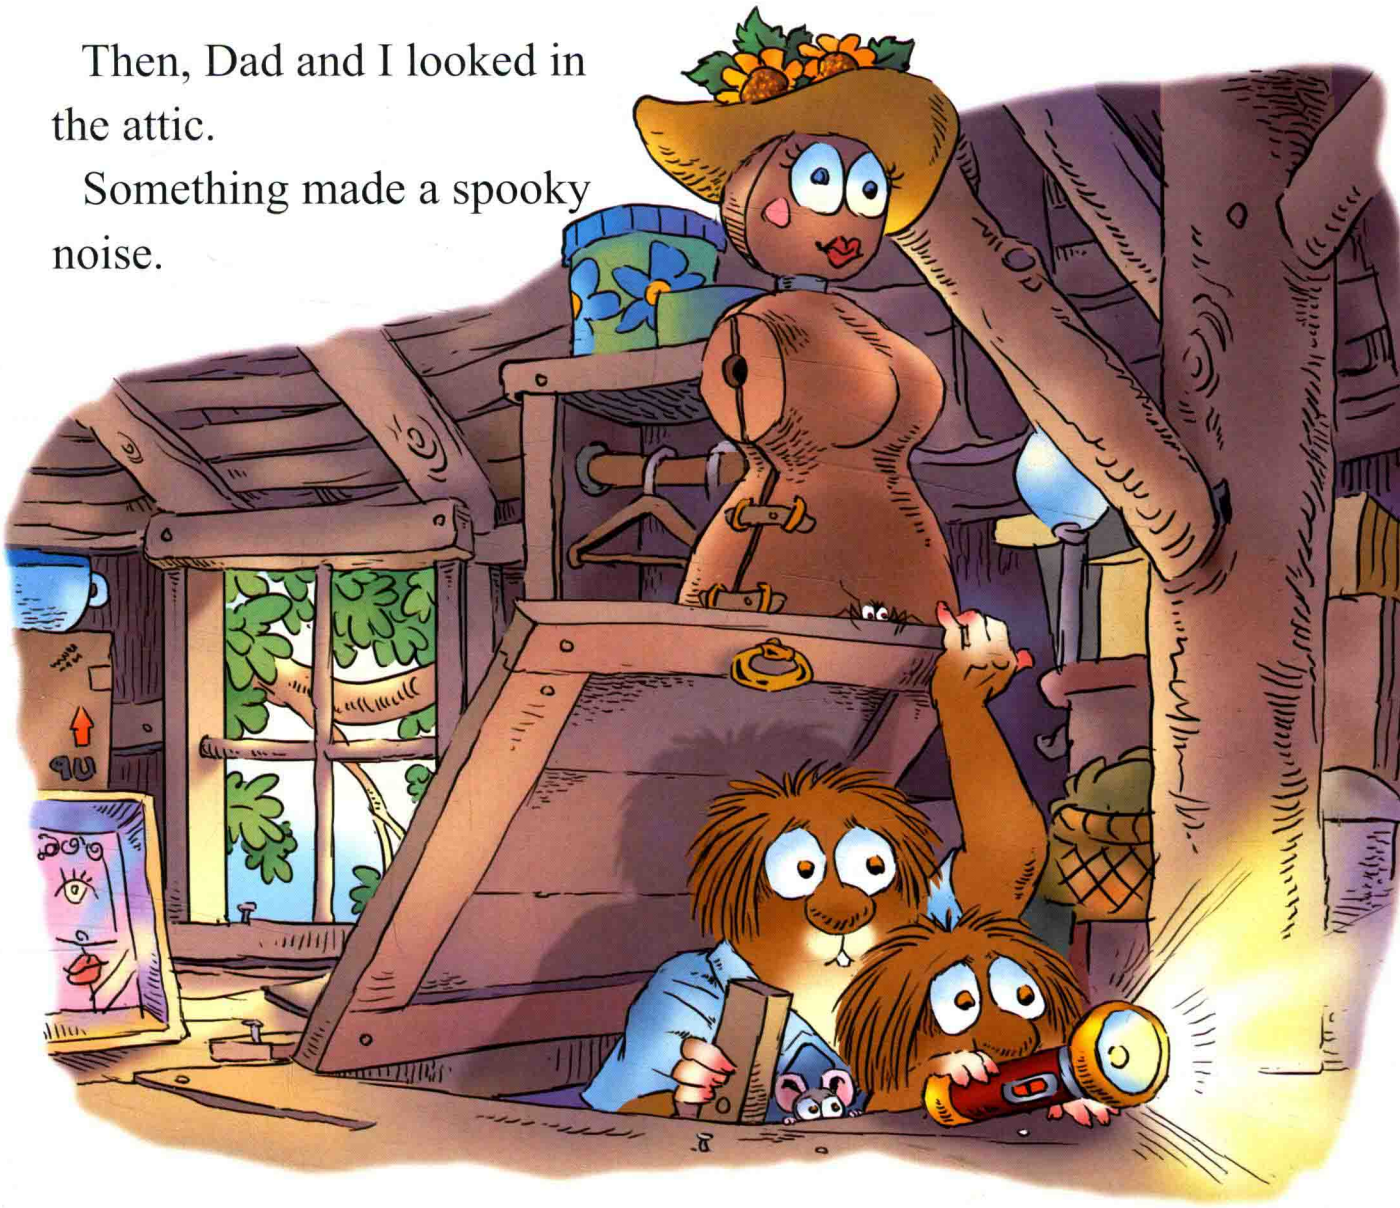

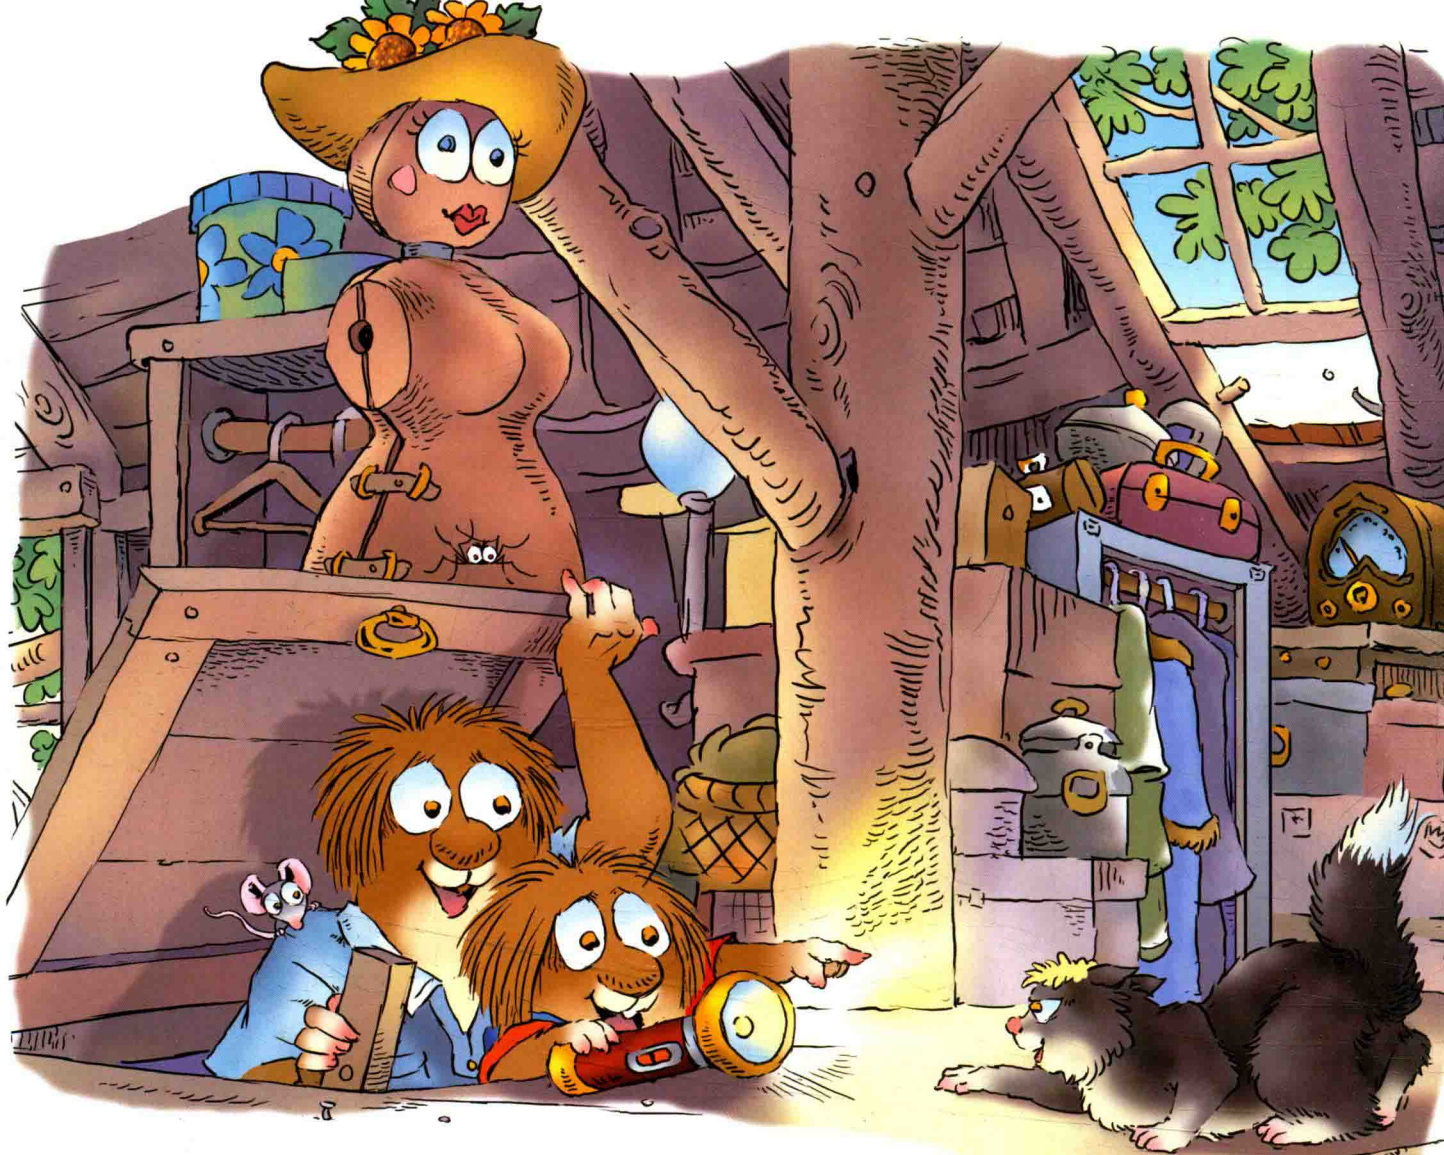

I said, "Let's look in the basement. There is a lot of stuff down there to sell."

Then, Dad and I looked in the attic.

Something made a spooky noise.

I was brave, though, because it was just our kitty.

“Hello, Kitty!” I said.

Dad and I found lots of great stuff in the attic to sell.

Little Sister only had one old doll for the yard sale.
“You’ll never make any money that way,” I said.

I cleaned out my whole closet.

I found so many things to sell.

Mom said, “Just pick a few toys.”

We made signs so everybody would come to our yard sale.

We put them up everywhere, but it was too windy.
