INTRODUCTION

The Yearbook of China Tourism Statistics for 1996 is a yearly review with information on the overall development of the tourism industry in the People's Republic of China in 1995. Written in English and Chinese, the information in this Yearbook covers eight aspects: Statistics Report on China's Tourism Industry in 1995 and tourist arrivals to China, major profile of international tourists to China, international tourism receipts, business of travel agencies, business of different regions, business of hotels, domestic tourism, travel enterprises and non-business institutions.

In order to be more comparable to the international statistics, some entries of the Technical Notes on Tourism Statistics Indicators annexed to this Yearbook have been amended and redefined at the recommendations from the World Tourism Organization.

The data of the Yearbook come from the tourism departments, statistical departments, and public security frontier departments throughout the country. The statistics of Taiwan Province, Hong Kong and Macau are not included. All the data are processed and compiled in line with the requirements set forth in the tourism statistics reporting system jointly formulated by the State Statistics Bureau and the National Tourism Administration, and explanatory notes are provided in some special cases. Re-check and re-adjustments have been made to the figures of each month in 1995, and if some inconsistency is found between the published figures and the figures in this Yearbook, the latter should be taken as authentic.

This Yearbook provides authoritative data on the development of China's tourism industry in 1995, which is useful to tourism departments, relevant departments of the national economy, education and research institutes, and students and teachers. The overseas travel trade, relevant people of the industry and foreign tourists to China, overseas Chinese, compatriots from Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan can also benefit from this Yearbook.

In the Yearbook, wherever a table is continued on the next page, footnotes are given on the first page. The mark “#” denotes headline entry, while the mark “*” leads to footnotes. A blank cell means relevant data unclear or the relevant figure for previous years not available. Sources of the data are acknowledged beneath the table. All the unacknowledged data are provided by the National Tourism Administration.

Comments from the readership on the errors in the Yearbook, unavoidable due to time constraint, are invited.
