CHINA 需要 GRAPHICS

CHINA NEEDS GRAPHICS

"21世纪是中国的世纪",意味着是中国的加工世纪,还是中国的品牌世纪?

多年来,中国政府一直实行"外资主导"型经济路线。

试想,如果有一天,当中国的廉价劳动力优势不复存在时,你的企业和国民又何以为生? 几乎同时发展的拉美国家和邻邦南韩的截然不同经济结构及其现状似乎不能教会我们明白些什么。

"外国汽车厂商提供技术以及专门技术为与中方的合资工业'添加价值'。与此相对比,当前他们的中国合作伙伴除了提供低成本劳动力和销售渠道外,对实际经营和管理的贡献几乎为零。"也许日产汽车总裁卡洛斯、戈恩这番话并不能让那些依赖政策保护的中国汽车行业大佬们汗颜,但肯定让这个国家的其他经济人羞惭。

没有品牌,我们永远只有沦落为别人后 院加工厂的结局,拉美国家的现状就是中国 的将来。

品牌当然不是简单的一个Logo加一句 Slogan,但肯定要做好这些准确传达品牌的 内涵和定位的元素符号。

从上世纪末始,中国的Graphics界通过对国外作品的学习,积累了自己的经验。到现在,虽然还很稚嫩,但已经不是简单的模仿了。

在与世界愈加接近的今天,在设备技术 方面我们已经和世界同步(不像其他行业,可以此为落后的理由),需要的是我们与同 行及世界交流的机会和平台。

希望China Graphics这系列年鉴能帮助推动中国品牌的成长,见证Graphics在中国走过的路。

品牌,可能不只是企业经营者和广告推 广人的责任,它应该是全社会都要共同关注 并给予成长支持的大事。Graphics的从业人 士要身先士卒,走好第一步。 "The 21st century is a century for China." But what does it mean exactly? A century for China's processing industry or China's brands?

The Chinese government has been pursuing a foreign investment-oriented economic policy for ages.

What will the Chinese people and companies turn to if someday the cheap labor is no longer an advantage to make use of? China, the Latin Americas and our neighborhood Republic of Korea developed almost at the same period. But their different economic mix and national situations serve no reference to China.

"Foreign automakers provide techniques, but their Chinese partners provide nothing but the cheap labor and outlets and make no contribution to the management." The remarks of Carlos Ghosn, the CEO of Nissan, might failed to make the big shots of Chinese auto industry who have long been protected by government policy feel ashamed. But it surely will make some other economists feel ashamed.

If we don't have our own brands, we'll be reduced to a workshop at the courtyard of the others: the status quo of Latin Americas will be the future of China.

Of course brand is not a simple combination of a logo and slogan, but it'll have to communicate the connotation and the elements of positioning. Those who are engaged in the graphics industry have learned much from foreign works and thus gained their own experience. Green as they are, they have transcended the sheer imitation from the foreign works.

We are closer and closer from the world, especially in technique terms (unlike other industries which can make outdated equipment a good excuse). What we need is a chance and forum for communicating with our overseas counterparts.

The annual of China Graphics is expected to promote and witness the growth of Chinese brands and graphics.

It's up to not just the management and advertising people but also the whole society to show the due concern and to support. But those who are engaged in the graphics industry have to take the lead.
