Lars Bartkuhn
The New Continent

THE NEW CONTINENT

In perhaps only half of his discography, Lars Bartkuhn has managed to make something out of nothing. His most recent album, The New Continent, is one of those rare occasions where the German electronic producer has created something from nothing. It's a remarkable achievement, especially given the circumstances under which it was made. Bartkuhn had just moved to Berlin, and he had no access to a studio or a computer. He had to work with what he had, and he did so by creating a series of modular synthesizers from scratch. The result is a collection of tracks that are as unique and interesting as they are beautiful.

On one track, "Kontinent," Bartkuhn uses a modular synthesizer to create a complex, multi-layered sound. The track begins with a simple, repetitive bassline, which gradually builds into a complex, multi-layered sound. The track ends with a powerful, driving bassline that has been created from scratch. The track is a testament to the power of creativity and the ability to create something beautiful from nothing.

Another track, "Die Neue Welt," features a modular synthesizer that has been programmed to create a complex, multi-layered sound. The track begins with a simple, repetitive bassline, which gradually builds into a complex, multi-layered sound. The track ends with a powerful, driving bassline that has been created from scratch. The track is a testament to the power of creativity and the ability to create something beautiful from nothing.

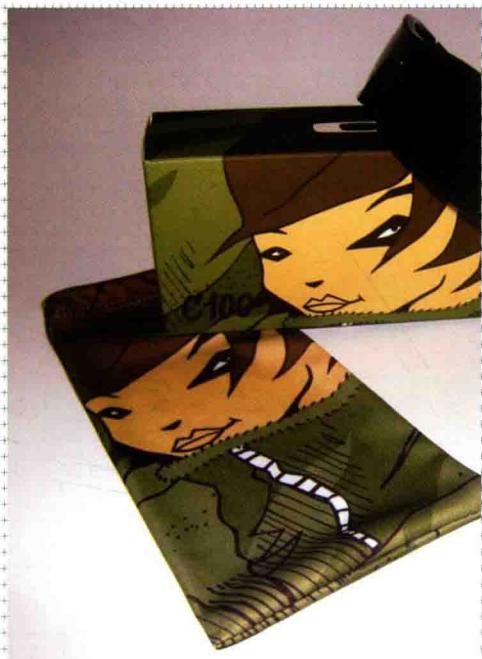

The album is a collection of tracks that are as unique and interesting as they are beautiful. It's a testament to the power of creativity and the ability to create something beautiful from nothing.

克里斯蒂安·亨德马克(Christian Hundertmark), 1974年生于慕尼黑, 是一位艺术家和设计师, 也是C100工作室的创始人。他从小开始学习绘画, 1989年完成了他的第一幅涂鸦作品“蝙蝠侠”, 随后的10年里他一直持续着涂鸦创作。在学习了数年的设计与广告专业后, 克里斯蒂安成为了一名自由平面设计师和插画家。直到2003年, 他与几个同伴成立了自己的工作室并将其命名为C100, 为Rome滑雪板、索尼BMG、OAKLEY、Levis等客户做过设计。

2003年, 很久没有进行涂鸦创作的克里斯蒂安被种种新颖的与外界交流的方式所吸引, 重新把重点放在街头艺术。除了不停地绘画, 他还努力建立起与街头艺术家的人际网络, 尽管他们当时并没有料到结果会如此成功——2003年他出版了个人第一本书《叛逆的艺术——街头艺术的世界》, 获得了世界各地艺术家的好评。三年后他出版了第二本书《叛逆的艺术——都市艺术在行动》, 记载了2000年以来街头艺术形式的演变。这两本书在全球均有超过七万本的销量。2008年秋季, 克里斯蒂安完成了“反叛艺术”系列的最新一辑, 与之前不同的是, 这本书仅仅介绍了他的朋友Flying Fortress的作品, 他曾和克里斯蒂安在2000年一起投身街头艺术的活动。

除了写作和设计之外, 克里斯蒂安还在米兰和维也纳为学生开设了工作室和讲座, 在业余时间仍保持着自由艺术家的身份。

Shinnosuke Sugisaki

The name given to the series of works in this book is Solidgraphy. The word conveys the sense of a filled solid expressing something.

The square, the circle, and other simple forms are largely artificial, they allow no gaps for unwanted emotion to slip in. There is something beautiful in their elegant neatness.

Whether creating communication designs or exploring pure form in experimental work, I have always aimed at logical expression. Creation, however, has its origins not in reason, but in emotion. While geometric shapes have no inherent mind, during construction I feel their touch and movement.

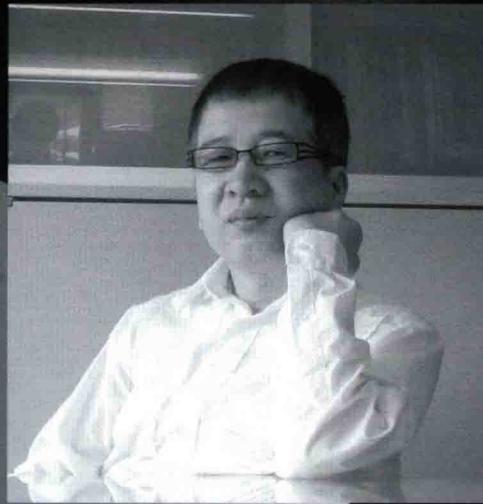

At the start of this book, the You Are Here series is designed to express the existence of single individuals among the 6.7 billion persons currently living in this world. Here, icons representing persons are arranged as units of measure in geometric formations. Each exists in an abstract reality divorced from human experience. I worked in the hope that those viewing the pieces would be able to pick up on the personal feeling that I put into the work.

杉崎真之助的设计理念

书中的这个系列设计名为三维平面设计。作品中，方形、圆形及其他形状都经由设计而成。其简洁高雅的外形蕴含着无法言说的美。

该书前半部分的“原来你在这里”系列作品针对目前全球67亿单身人群而设计。作品中图标所代表的人物被分割成若干单元，每个单元都被设置在一个抽象超现实的氛围中。我希望读者能够读懂我的设计用意。
