Boys and girls love to watch TV. Some children spend six hours a day in school and four to six hours a day in front of the TV set. Some children even watch TV for eight or more hours on Saturday. TV programmes are like books or films. A child can learn bad things from some of them and good things from others. Some programmes help children to know the news from the other parts of the world. Some programmes show people and places from other countries or other times in history. With TV a child doesn't need to go to the zoo to see animals or to the sea to see a ship. Boys and girls can see a film, a play or a basketball match at home. Some programmes can teach children how to cook or how to use tools (工具). It's interesting to watch TV, but it is also interesting to read a book or to visit friends.

1. Children often watch TV for _____ a day.
A. four hours B. four to six hours
C. six hours D. eight or more hours
2. Children can learn _____ things from TV programmes.
A. good B. good and bad C. bad D. good or bad

High school students in America hear twenty bells every day. The first tardy bell (上课铃) rings, if the students aren't in their seats (座位), they know they are late. Another bell rings at the end of each class and everyone leaves the classroom quickly and goes to the next one. When the students are in a different class, they are often happy to hear the bell, but if the class is interesting, they don't want to hear the bell ring. Most (大多数) students like the lunch bell best, they know it is time to join their friends for lunch. They buy a hot meal in the school dining room (餐厅) or they bring their lunch from a paper bag.

After a nice lunch everyone knows that it is soon time for another bell, another bell...

VII. 阅读理解。

A good way to pass an exam is to work every day. You may not pass an exam if you don't work hard for most of the time and then work hard only a few days before the exam.

Do not remember only grammar when you are learning English. Try to read stories in English and speak English whenever you can. A few days before the exam you should go to bed early. Before you start the exam, read carefully over the question paper. Try to understand the exact meaning of each question before you pick up your pen to write. When you have at last finished your exam, read over your answers. Correct the mistakes if there are any and make sure that you have not missed anything out.

1. If you want to do well in an exam, you must _____.
A. work hard every day in the year
B. study hard a few days before the exam
C. get up early a few days before the exam
D. keep doing your homework day and night
2. It is _____ to go to bed late at night before the exam.

There are thousands of different languages in the world. Everyone seems to think that his native language is the most important one, as it is their first language. For many people, it is even only language they learn all lives. But English is the world's most widely used language.

English is spoken as a native language by over three hundred million people, in England, the USA, Australia and some other countries.

For people in India and many other countries, English is often necessary for business, education and activities. So English is the second language there.

As a foreign language, no other language is more widely studied and used than English. We use it to listen to radio, to read books or travel. It is also one of the working languages in the U. N and is used more often than the others.

- The native language is a person's _____ language.
A. first B. only C. one D. foreign
- People in _____ use English as their second language.
A. Australia B. India C. English D. the USA
- People in China use English as a _____ language.

VI. 阅读理解。

Young Tommy was seven years old. He spent most of his time with a pencil drawing the things he saw. When his mother took him to a park, he didn't want to play with other children. He just wanted to draw pictures. His father was quite worried.

"I don't want Tommy to draw all his life (一生)," he said.

"Why not?" his mother said. "Some people do. Think about all the famous artists (艺术家), Gaugin, Van Gough. Their interest in life was art."

"Huh!" Tommy's father said, "they had gift (禀赋, 天资). Tommy just draws."

"He's young yet (还)," his mother said, "maybe we should find a teacher for him. Then he'll learn how to draw well."

A week later, Tommy had his first lesson with his art teacher.

"Now Tommy," the art teacher said, "I want you to draw a picture of someone important to you."

Tommy began to draw very carefully, making sure (确保, 确信) every line was just where he wanted it.

"What are you drawing a picture of?" the art teacher asked.

"God." Tommy said.

"But no one knows what God looks like," the teacher said.

"They will know when I finished." Tommy answered.

1. How old was Tommy?

2. Did he like drawing?

3. What did his parents do so that (以便) he could draw better?

4. Why was the teacher surprised when he found Tommy was drawing a picture of God?

5. Why did Tommy want to draw a picture of God?
