Colin is a twenty-year-old young man. Two years ago, when he finished middle school, he found work in a store. Usually he works until ten o'clock in the evening. He is very tired when he gets home. After a quick supper he goes to bed and soon falls asleep. His grandma who lives downstairs is satisfied with him.

One day, on his way home, he met Nancy. They were both happy. He asked the girl to his house, she agreed happily. He bought some fruit and drinks for her. And they talked about their school, teachers, classmates and their future. They talked for a long time.

"Have a look at your watch, please," said the girl. "What time is it now?"

"Sorry, something is wrong with my watch," said Colin. "Where's yours?"

"I left it at home."

Colin thought for a moment and found a way. He began to stamp his foot on the floor, "Bang! Bang! Bang!"

The sound woke his grandma up. The old woman shouted downstairs, "It's twelve o'clock in the night, Colin. Why are you still jumping upstairs?"

Dear Roni,

Italy is wonderful. We started in Rome two weeks ago, drove to Florence last week and now we're on our way to Venice. Three weeks just aren't enough. The country near Florence is so beautiful—hills, olive trees. And red roofs of the houses look so nice far away. I am afraid I am getting bigger—the food here is so delicious!!!

Love,
 Akemi Roni Lebayer 222 Main St. Laguna Beach, CA 92651 U. S. A.

Hi Roni, I can't believe you went to school here in Honolulu! Why did you leave? I spend each morning on the beach and in the water. The sand is so soft and the beaches seem so long. The water is just the right temperature. One afternoon, I left the beach to walk in mountains near Honolulu. I enjoyed myself very much there. How I miss you!

Mari Roni Lebayer 222 Main St. Laguna Beach, CA 92651 U. S. A.

Dear Roni, Maybe I'm strange but I love the desert! Last week our group spent four days in the desert. At times, it felt like the moon. I always thought deserts were all the same! They are not. Some parts look like mountains; others are really different. And when we find something green — a few palm trees, a little water, we feel good and great. See you in September.

Kim Roni Lebayer 222 Main St. Laguna Beach, CA 92651 U. S. A.

1. Who seems to have eating too much?

2. Which country is Akemi in now?

3. Where does Mari spend her morning?

4. How long did Kim stay in the desert?

5. When can Roni see Kim?

The world is not only hungry, but it is also thirsty for water. This may seem strange to you, since nearly 70 percent of the earth's surface is covered with water. 1. _____ Man can only drink and use the other 3 percent—the fresh water from rivers, lakes, underground and other sources. And we can not even use all of that. 2. _____

However, as things stand today, this fresh water is still enough for us. But our need for water is becoming larger and larger quickly—almost day by day. We should take steps to do with this problem now and in this way we can get away from a serious worldwide water shortage (短缺) later on.

3. _____ One of the first steps is to develop ways of reusing it. Today in most large cities, water is used only once and then sent out into a sewer (下水道) system. From there it returns to sea or runs into underground places.

But even if every large city reused its water, we still would not have enough water. All we'd have to do to make use of seawater in the world is to remove the salt. 4. _____

- A. If we take these steps, we'll be in no danger of drying up.
B. We all have to learn how to stop wasting our valuable water.
C. Even worse, some of it has been made dirty.
D. But about 97 percent of that is sea water, or salt water.

Every year many animals die. Some animals die because they are sick. Some die because people kill them and some die because they have nowhere to live.

In some countries animals die because there is not enough food. Today there are only about 500 pandas in the forests in China. Pandas eat bamboo but sometimes the weather is very bad and the bamboo does not grow, so there is not enough bamboo for the pandas to eat. And the pandas die!

In some countries, people kill animals for money. Poachers (偷猎者) kill elephants for their tusks (长牙), sell them to factories for a lot of money. In the factories people make lots of things with ivories (象牙), for example, combs, jewelry and paper knives. Today we must save elephants; we must not kill them for their tusks. So we must not buy ivory! Poachers also kill rhinoceroses (犀牛) because people in the Middle East use the horns (角) to make handles for daggers (匕首).

People also kill lots of other animals for their skins, their fur or their meat. They kill leopards (豹子), crocodiles (鳄鱼) and snakes for both their meat and skins. People make coats with leopard skins, and bags, purses and shoes with crocodile and snake skins. People also eat crocodiles, snakes, turtles and birds. Sometimes people kill animals and birds for entertainment, too.

- () 1. Every year many animals die because _____.
- A. they are ill

Skin-diving (潜水) is a new sport today. This sport takes you into a wonderful new world. It is like a visit to the moon. When you are under water, it is easy for you to climb big rocks (岩石), because you are no longer heavy.

Here, under water, everything is blue and green. During the days there is plenty of light. When fish swim nearby, you can catch them with your hands.

When you have tanks (罐) of air on your back, you can stay in deep water for a long time. But you must be careful when you dive in deep water.

To catch fish is one of the most interesting parts of this sport. Besides, there are more uses for skin-diving. You can clean ships without taking them out of water. You can get many things from the deep sea.

Now you see that skin-diving is both useful and interesting.

- () 1. Skin-diving is a new sport. It can take you to _____.
- A. the moon
B. a new world of land
C. the mountain
D. deep water
- () 2. In deep water _____.
- A. there is plenty of light
B. there is no light at all
C. you can find a lot of blue fish
D. everything looks blue and green
- () 3. You can climb big rocks under water easily because _____.

B. you are as heavy as on the land
C. you are not so heavy as on the land
D. you have no weight at all
- () 4. With tanks of air on your back, you can _____.
- A. catch fish very easily
B. stay under water for a long time
C. climb big rocks
D. have more fun
- () 5. Which of the following is NOT true?
- A. Skin-diving is a new sport.
B. Skin-diving is like visiting the moon.
C. The only use of skin-diving is to have more fun.
D. Skin-diving is not only interesting but also useful.

B. 阅读短文,把方框中 A—D 四个句子填入文中空白处(1—4),使短文内容完整、正确,然后完成第 5 题

1. _____ Usually the question is asked of a man on the go, a man hurriedly walking along the street, or busily working at his desk. 2. _____ He'll probably say, "Fine, I'm all right." But maybe the question would make him a little uncomfortable. If you are a good friend, you may have seen something in his face or his walk that he didn't notice that morning. It starts worrying him a little. First thing you know, he looks in a mirror (镜子) to see if everything is all right, while you go happily on your way asking someone else "How do you feel?" 3. _____ It's quite all right, for example, to ask "How do you feel?" if you're visiting a close friend in hospital. But if he or she is walking on both legs, hurrying to take a train, or sitting at his or her desk working, do not ask him that silly question.

When George Bernard Shaw, a famous writer of plays, was in his eighties, someone asked him, "How do you feel?" Shaw said, "4. _____"
