A friend of mine named Paul received an expensive car from his brother as a Christmas present. On Christmas Eve when Paul came out of his office, a street urchin(顽童) was walking around the shining car. "Is this your car, Paul?" he asked.

Paul answered, "Yes, my brother gave it to me for Christmas." The boy was surprised. "You mean your brother gave it to you and it didn't cost you anything? Boy, I wish..." He hesitated(犹豫).

Of course Paul knew what he was going to wish for. He was going to wish he had a brother like that. But what the boy said surprised Paul greatly. "I wish," the boy went on, "that I could be a brother like that."

Paul looked at the boy in surprise, and then he said again, "Would you like to take a ride in my car?"

"Oh yes, I'd love that."

After a short ride, the boy returned and with his eyes shining, said, "Paul, would you mind driving in front of my house?"

Paul smiled a little. He thought he knew what the boy wanted. He wanted to show his neighbors that he could ride home in a big car. But Paul was wrong again. "Will you stop where those two steps are?" the boy asked.

He ran up to the steps. Then in a short while Paul heard him coming back, but he was not coming fast. He was carrying his little crippled(残疾的) brother. He sat him down on the step and pointed to the car.

"There he is, Buddy, just like I told you upstairs. His brother gave it to him for Christmas and it didn't cost him a cent. And some day I'm going to give you one just like it... then you can see for yourself all the nice things in the Christmas windows that I've been trying to tell you about."

Today, there are 6 billion people on the earth. By the year 2050 there may be 12.5 billion. There are a lot of people to feed. We need more food.

One way to produce more food is by growing plants. For thousands of years, farmers have made plants better. Every season, they pick the best plants for the next season. It works very slowly.

Since 1983, scientists have been able to change plants more quickly by changing their genetic material(转基因食品), called GM foods.

By changing the genetic material of a plant, it is possible to make new plants. They make plants, which are strong against plant diseases. They can also help in our diseases, a kind of rice is being prepared, for example, which stops people from becoming blind.

Rich countries produce GM foods because they are easy to grow and bring in more money. Poor countries are interested in them because they help produce more food.

GM plants are not natural. No one knows how good or bad they are. Making GM foods is only one way of feeding people in 2050. There are strong feelings against them, because they are unnatural. They feed people, then hurt them or their children later. But both rich and poor countries are very interested in their use, and they are not going to go away. In 2050 we may think differently about them.

Dear Rose,

I like your programs very much. I'm now writing to ask you something about American customs. My American friends want me to join them in their dinner party. I am very happy and have decided to go but I'm a little worried about it, too. The customs in my country are very different from here, and I know little about it.

Should I bring a present, such as sweets or flowers? Should I arrive on time or a little late? At the dinner table, how can I use the fork and knife? How can I let the family know that I'm thankful for their kindness?

Sincerely,

Wang Lin

Dear Wang Lin,

It's a good idea to bring a small present when you go to a dinner party. Flowers are always nice, or you may bring a bottle of wine if you know that your friends drink it.

You should arrive on time or five to ten minutes late. Don't get there early. If you're going to be more than fifteen minutes late, you should call and tell them. Try to be free at the dinner table. If you don't know how to use the fork and knife, just watch the other people, and follow them. If you still have no idea of what to do, ask the person next to you.

If you like the food, say so. Of course, you'll thank them for the meal and for their kindness. It's also a good idea to send a thank-you card the day after.

Sincerely,

Rose

In the United States, people give gifts on many occasions(场合), at Christmas, weddings and on the birth of a baby, birthdays of good friends and the visit to a friend, etc. They also give gifts when someone achieves an honor or graduates.

However, they exchange these gifts only among good friends. If you don't know people very well, it is not good to give them gifts. And if you give too many gifts to your American friends, they will not feel comfortable because they don't know how to return you.

In most cases, it is good to bring a small gift on your visit to a friend. The gift should always be cheap. If you like, you can wrap the gift. But wrapping doesn't seem necessary because Americans always open the gifts when they receive them. And they often make comments about the gifts. For example, they will say, "What a beautiful present!"
