出版说明

陈雄立,中国美术家协会会员,北京中国画研究会理事,现在中央民族学院美术系任教。他1939年生于北京,12岁从师于郑宗鋆、段履青、娄师白,16岁参加"北京中国画研究会",并从师于李苦禅先生。此后20余年刻苦钻研,勤师造化,无虚日。其作品以写意花鸟为主,兼及山水、人物。泼墨写鹿,为其独特风格,并著有《画鹿技法》一书。《鹿趣图》长卷曾在国内外展出。1987年赴澳大利亚,在《霍斯沃斯现代艺术馆》举办大型画展,获得好评。画辑中的《李仙图》被澳大利亚《新

州国立艺术馆》收藏。作者在30余年艺术实践中,继承中国画优秀传统,主张"形象之记忆性"、"笔墨之书写性"、"意境之文学性"。本辑收入他的人物、花鸟、山水精品共12幅,以供同好探讨、欣赏及交流。——编 者

Introduction

Chen Xiongli, a member of the Chinese Artists Association and a consule member of the Beijing Research Institute of Chinese Painting, is teaching in the Fine Arts Department of the Central Institute for Nationalities. Born in Beijing in 1939, he began to study painting under Zheng Zongyun, Duan Luqing and Lou Shibai at twelve, and joined the Beijing Research Institute of Chinese painting at sixteen. At the same time, he began to study under noted artist Li Kuchan. He has been working hard at painting for over 20 years ever since. His main paintings feature flowers and birds. He also works on landscape and figure. His paintings embody a unique style in splash-ink and deer painting which are characteristically manifested in his book Technique of Deer Painting. His painting Joyous Dear was exhibited both at home and abroad. In 1987, his paintings were exhibited at Hoseworth Modern Arts Gallery in Australia and were highly appreciated, among which Immortal Man entered the collection of National Gallery of New South Whales. As an artist for over thirty years, Chen inherited the fine tradiaton of classical Chinese painting. This album collects twelve of his best paintings depicting figures, flowers, birds and landscape for exploration and appreciation.
