《三国演义》简介

Introduction: Romance of the Three Kingdoms

Romance of the Three Kingdoms was written in the 14th century by Luo Guanzhong. It is a Chinese national epic about the troubled last years of the Han Dynasty (206 B.C.–220 A.D.) as well as the Three Kingdoms Period (220 A.D.–280 A.D.). The story begins in 169 A.D. when many warlords fought for power during the gradual collapse of the Han Dynasty. As a result, the former Han Dynasty was ruled by three warlords: Cao Cao, Prime Minister of Han controlling the northern part of the country; Liu Bei, founder of the Kingdom of Shu in the southwest; and Sun Quan, founder of the Kingdom of Wu in the south. However, eventually, the Sima family united the whole of China by overthrowing Wei and founding the Jin Dynasty.

Romance of the Three Kingdoms is a great source of knowledge for both Chinese history as well as traditional Chinese culture. It narrates a tale of friendship and rivalry, of loyalty and betrayal, and of victory and defeat. It is considered as one of the Four Great Classical Novels of Chinese literature and continues to be extremely popular in China, Japan, Korea and Vietnam, in addition to many other countries around the world.
