Fundraising

Fundraising is a way to raise money, or funds, to help others.

Money is sometimes raised at school.

Money collected through fundraising can help schools, sports groups, charity groups or other people who need money.

A walkathon is a way to raise money.
Many people can take part in a walkathon.

Children and teachers can organize a walkathon.
All children can take part in the walkathon
to help raise money.

Teachers can buy sports equipment,
or other things for the school,
with the money that is raised.

A readathon is a way to raise money.
Children read many different books
when they take part in a readathon.

Children and teachers can organize a readathon.
All children can take part in the readathon
to help raise money.

Teachers can buy books
or other things for the school library,
with the money that is raised.

A spellathon is a way to raise money.
Children learn to spell many words
in a spellathon.

A class at school can hold a spellathon.
Children receive money for each word
they spell correctly.

Fundraising is a very good way
for children and teachers to raise money for their school or for charity.
