We've got the whole world in our hands,
We've got the whole world in our hands,

We've got the whole world in our hands,
We've got the whole world in our hands!

She's got the sun and the moon in her hands,

She's got the sun and the moon in her hands,

She's got the sun and the moon in her hands,

She's got the whole world in her hands!

He's got the mountains and the valleys in his hands,
He's got the mountains and the valleys in his hands,

A vibrant, stylized illustration of a world. The sky is a deep blue, featuring a large, smiling yellow sun with a face in the top right corner, and two white birds in flight. Below the sky are jagged, white mountain peaks. The main body of the image is composed of large, overlapping, purple and blue geometric shapes that form a mountain range. In the foreground, there are green rolling hills. Four children are depicted: two are performing handstands on the hills, one is standing with arms raised, and another is lying on their back in a small, white, oval-shaped pool of water at the bottom center. The children are wearing various colorful clothing like striped shirts and shorts.

He's got the mountains and the valleys in his hands,
He's got the whole world in his hands!

She's got the plains and the deserts in her hands,
She's got the plains and the deserts in her hands,

She's got the plains and the deserts in her hands,
She's got the whole world in her hands!

He's got the lakes and the rivers in his hands,
He's got the lakes and the rivers in his hands,

He's got the lakes and the rivers in his hands,
He's got the whole world in his hands!

She's got the trees and the flowers in her hands,
She's got the trees and the flowers in her hands,

She's got the trees and the flowers in her hands,
She's got the whole world in her hands!

He's got the birds of the air in his hands,

He's got the birds of the air in his hands,

He's got the birds of the air in his hands,

He's got the whole world in his hands!
