The Red Ants and the Black Ants

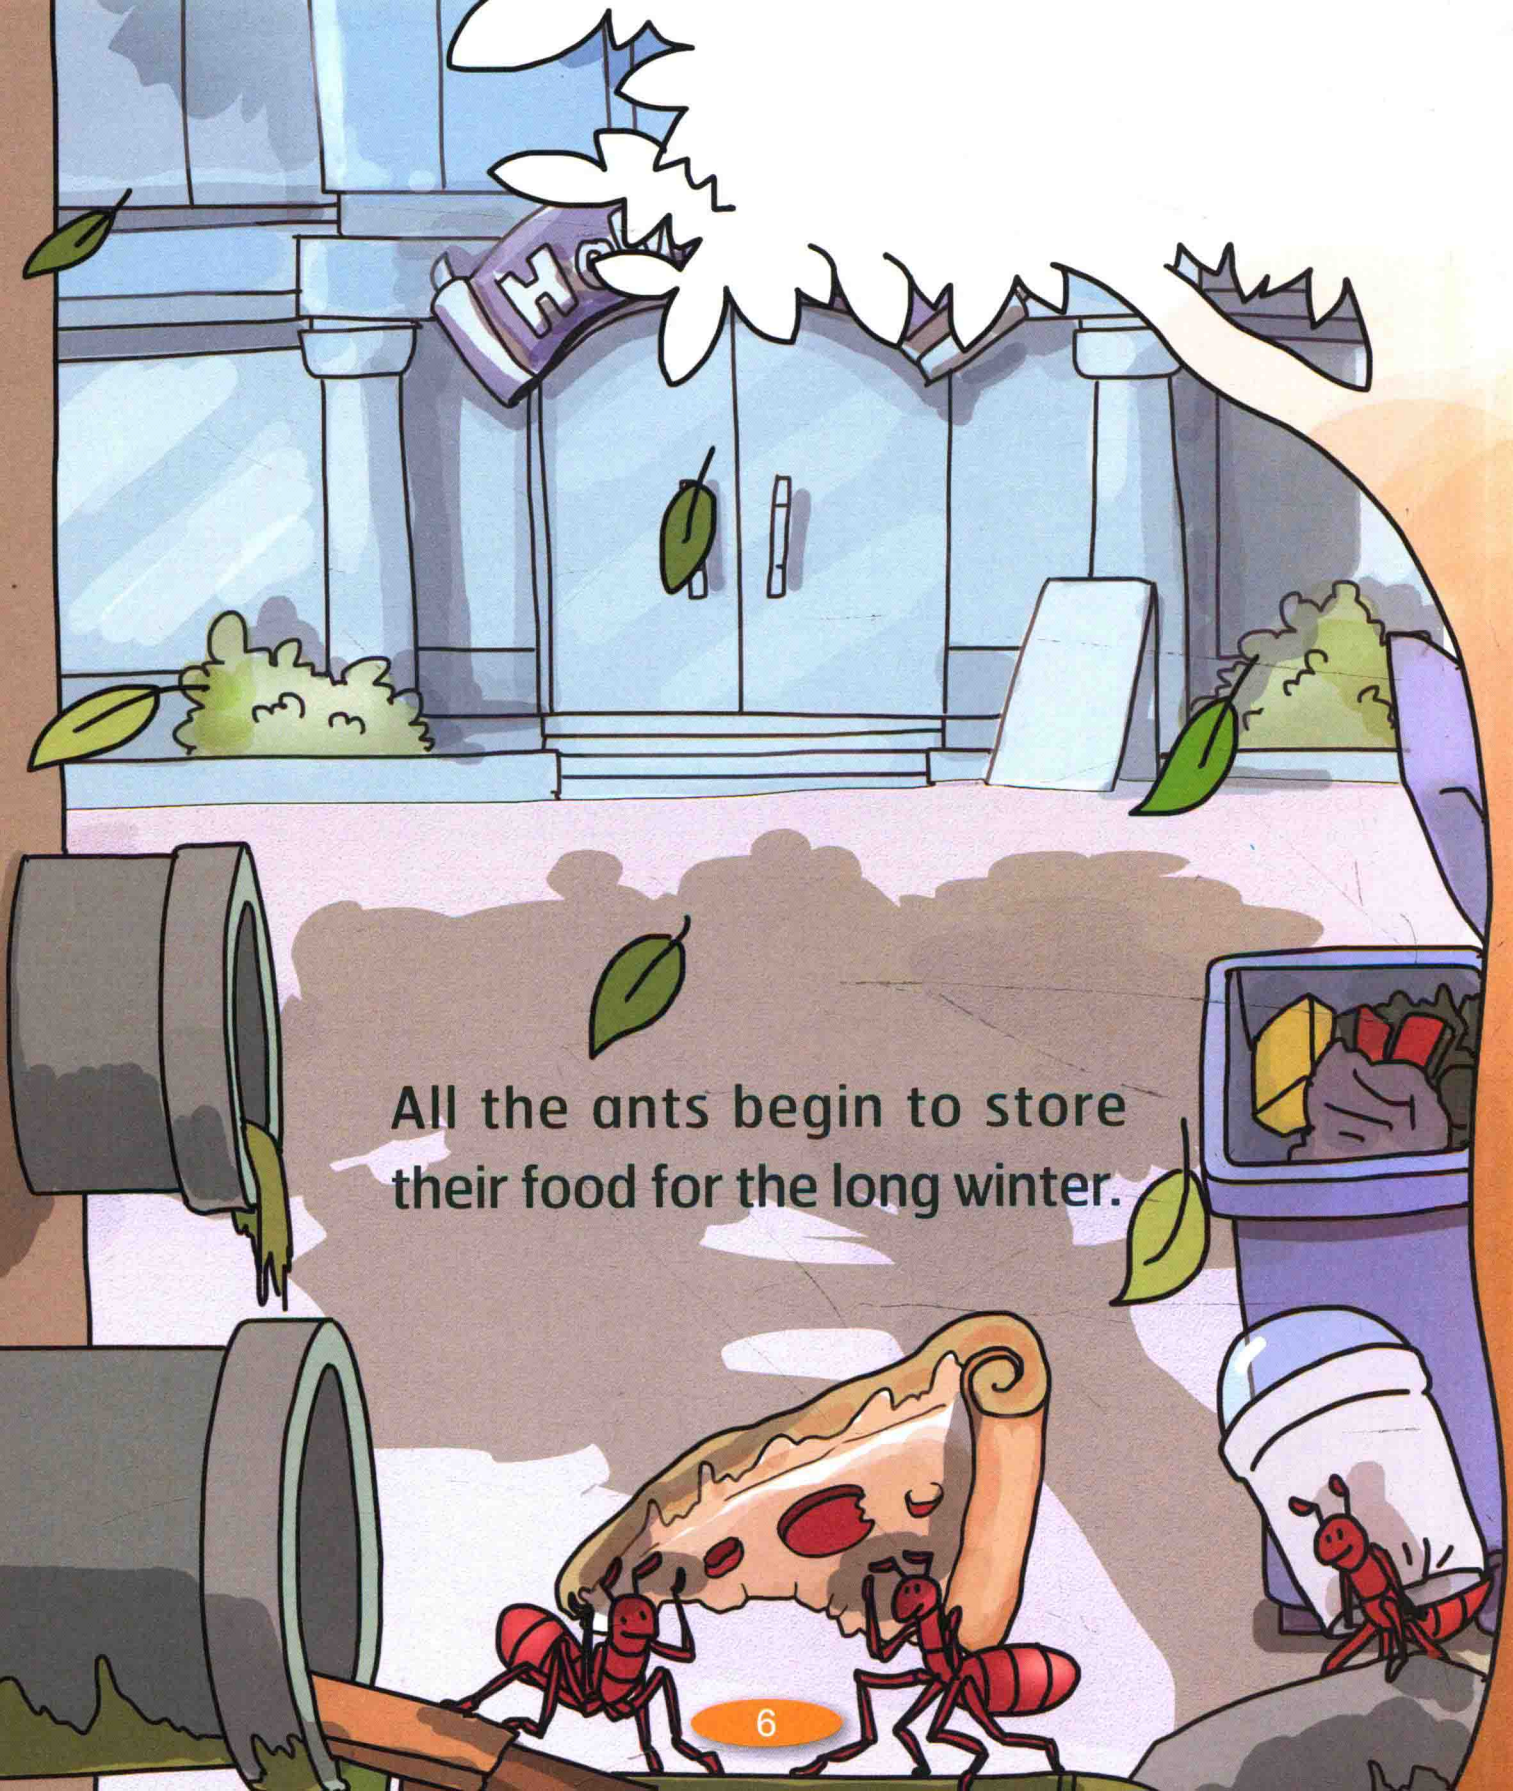

The red ants live near a restaurant.
Every day they eat breakfast, lunch
and dinner there.

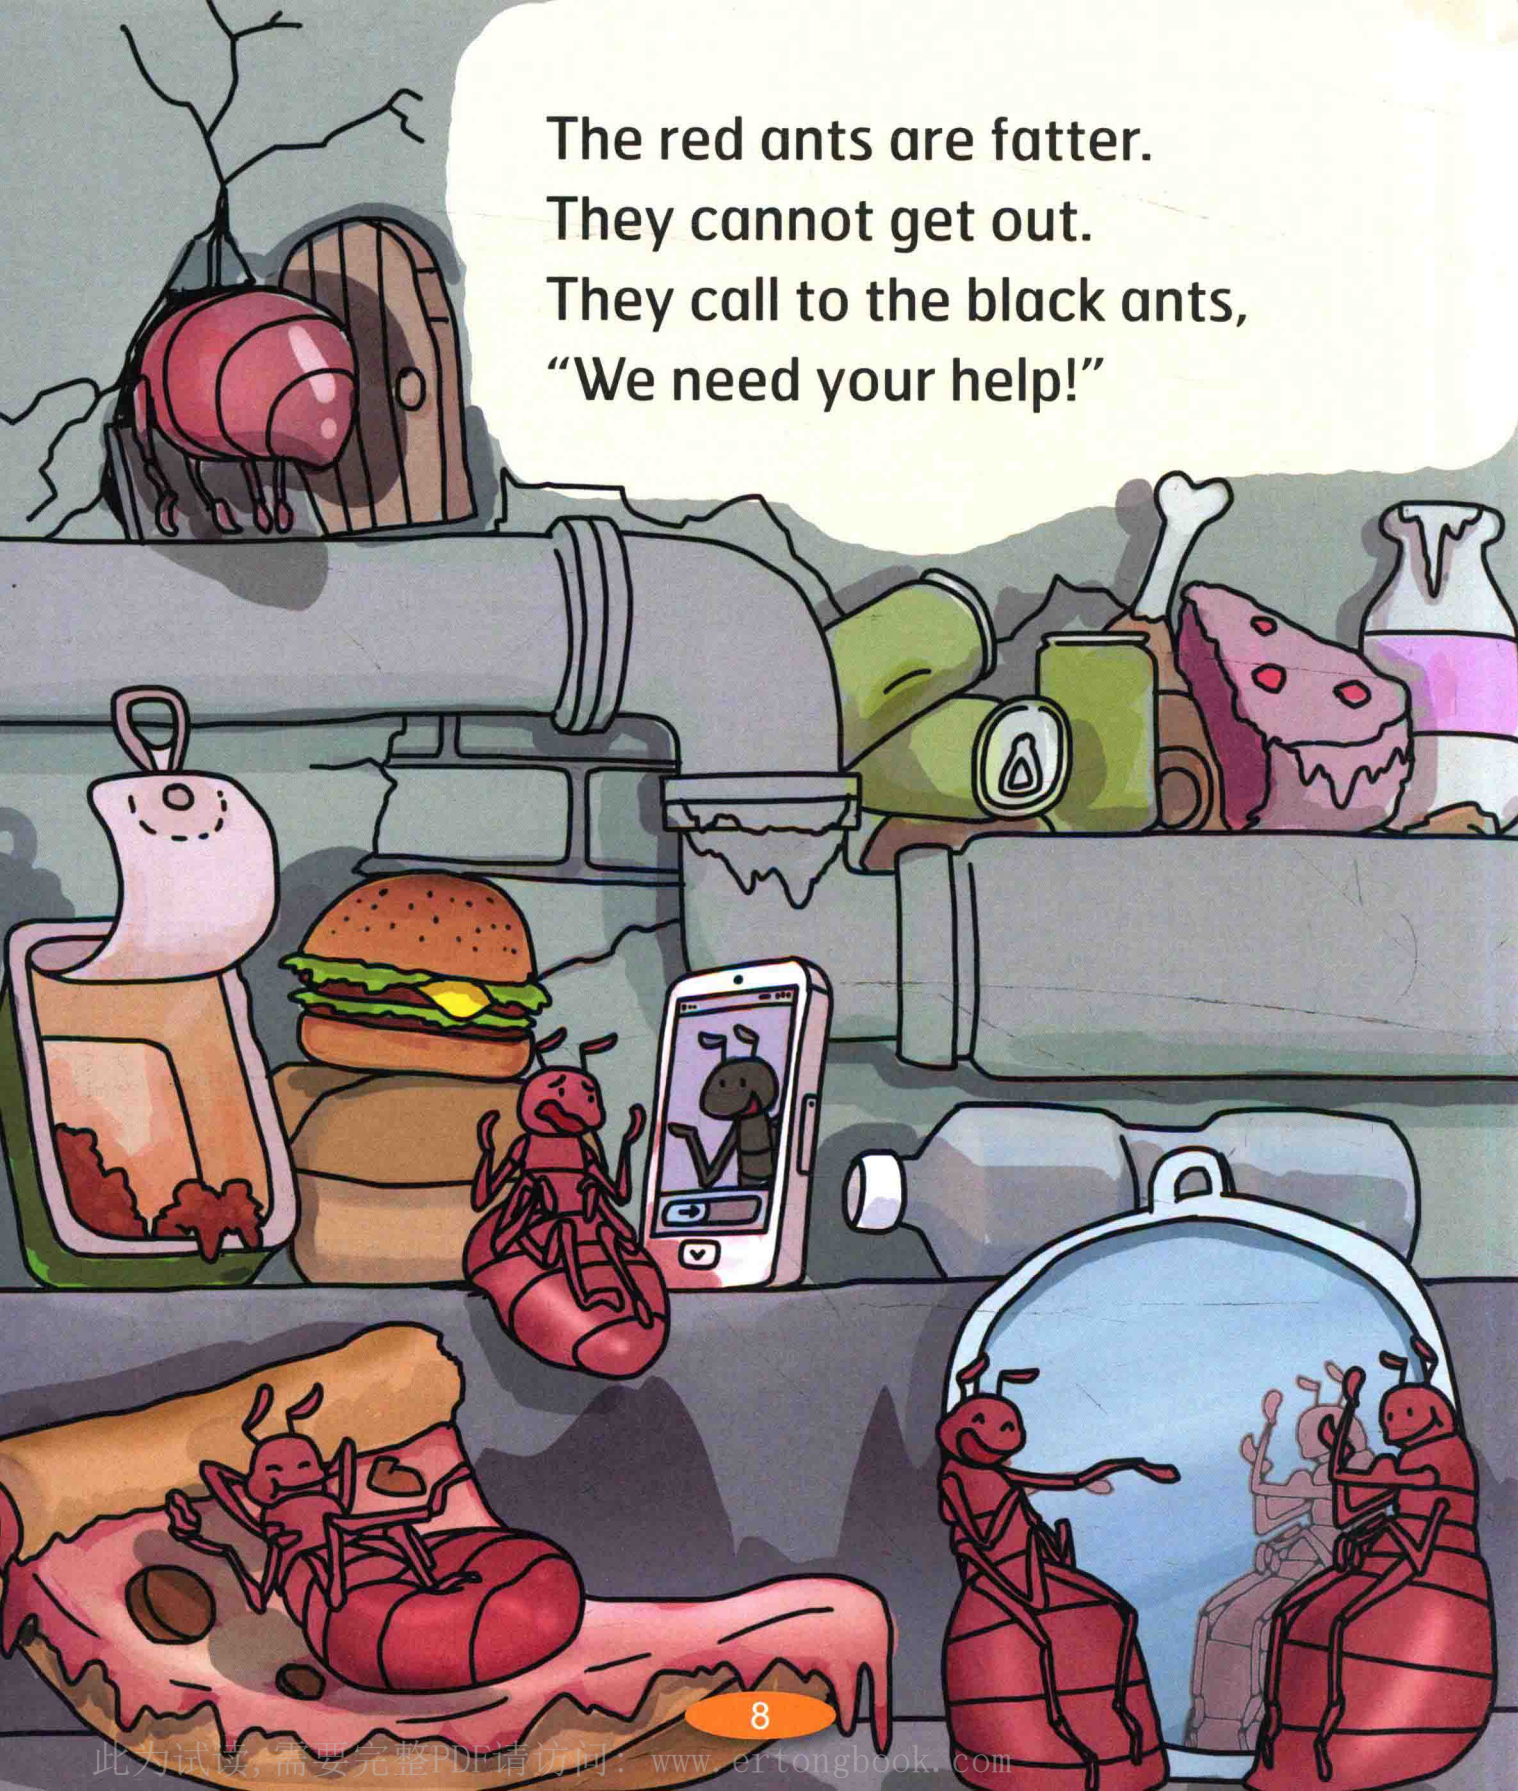

The black ants live near a farm.
Every day they eat breakfast,
lunch and dinner there.

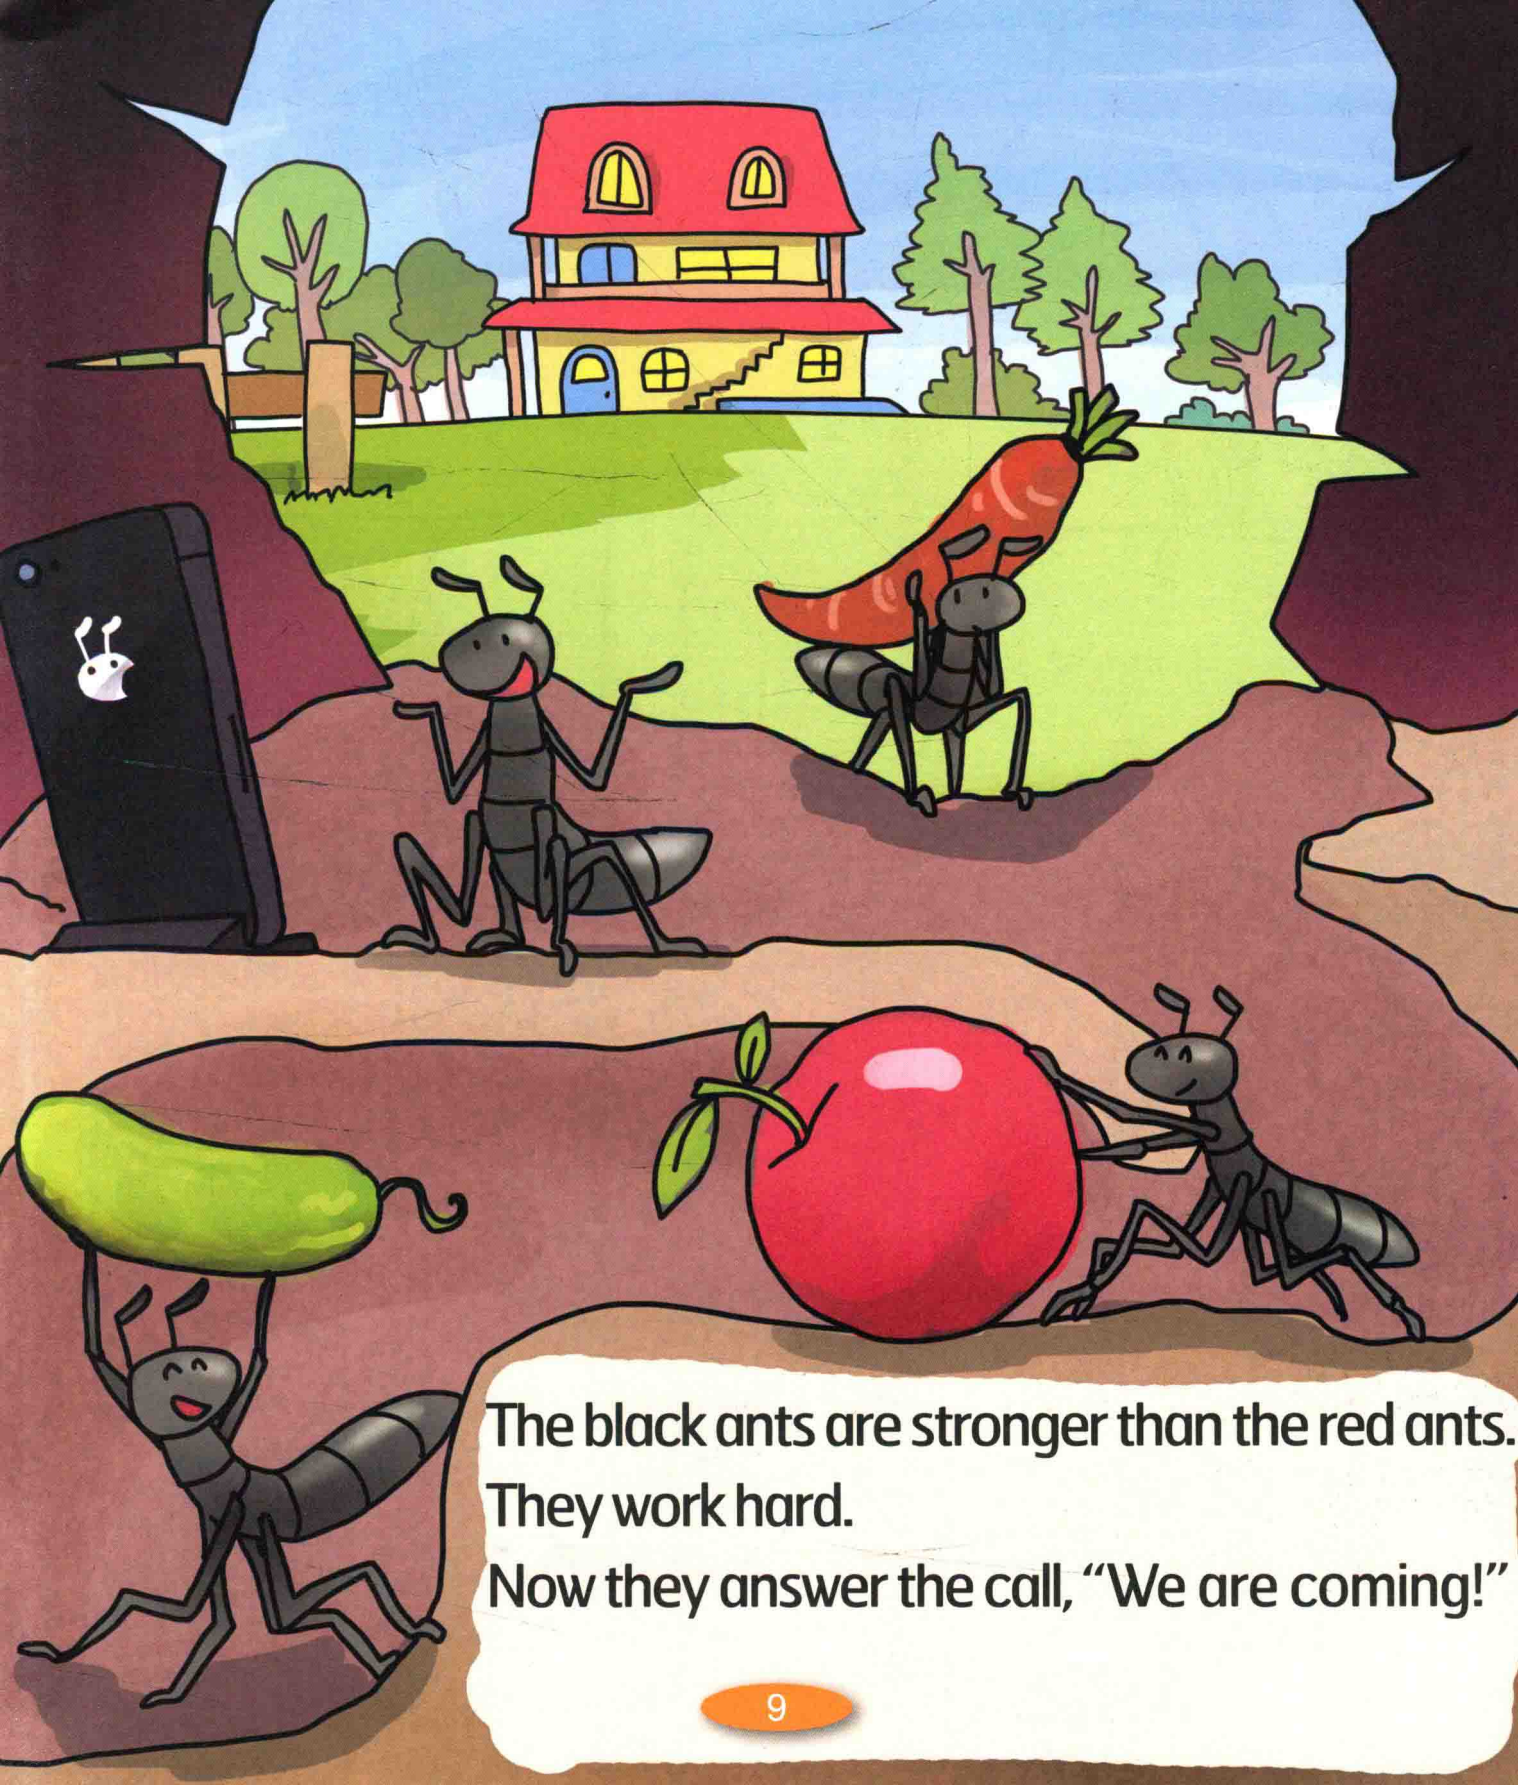

All the ants begin to store
their food for the long winter.

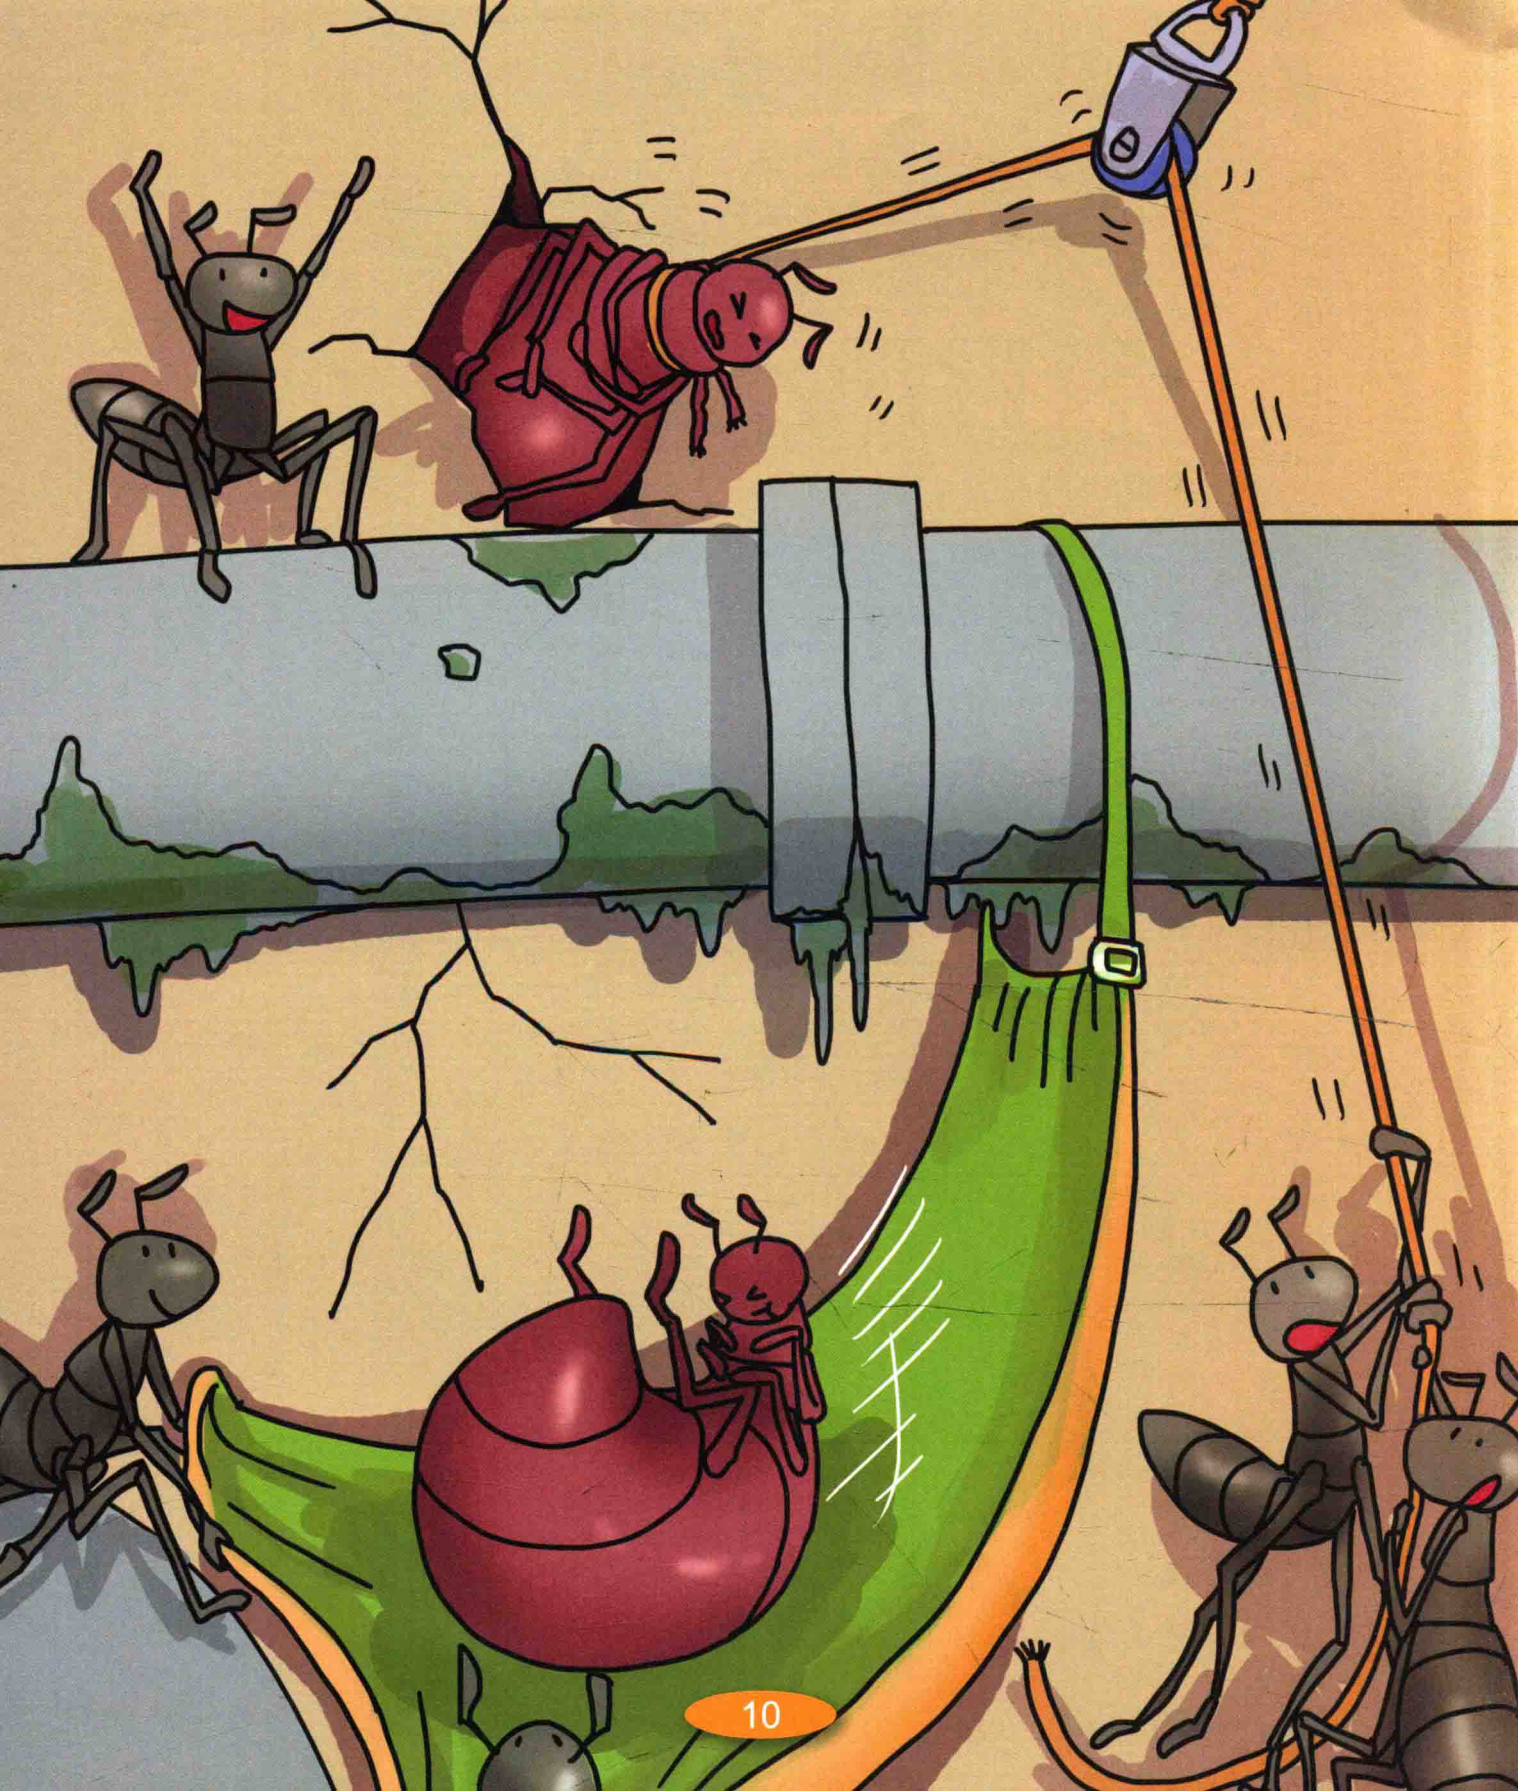

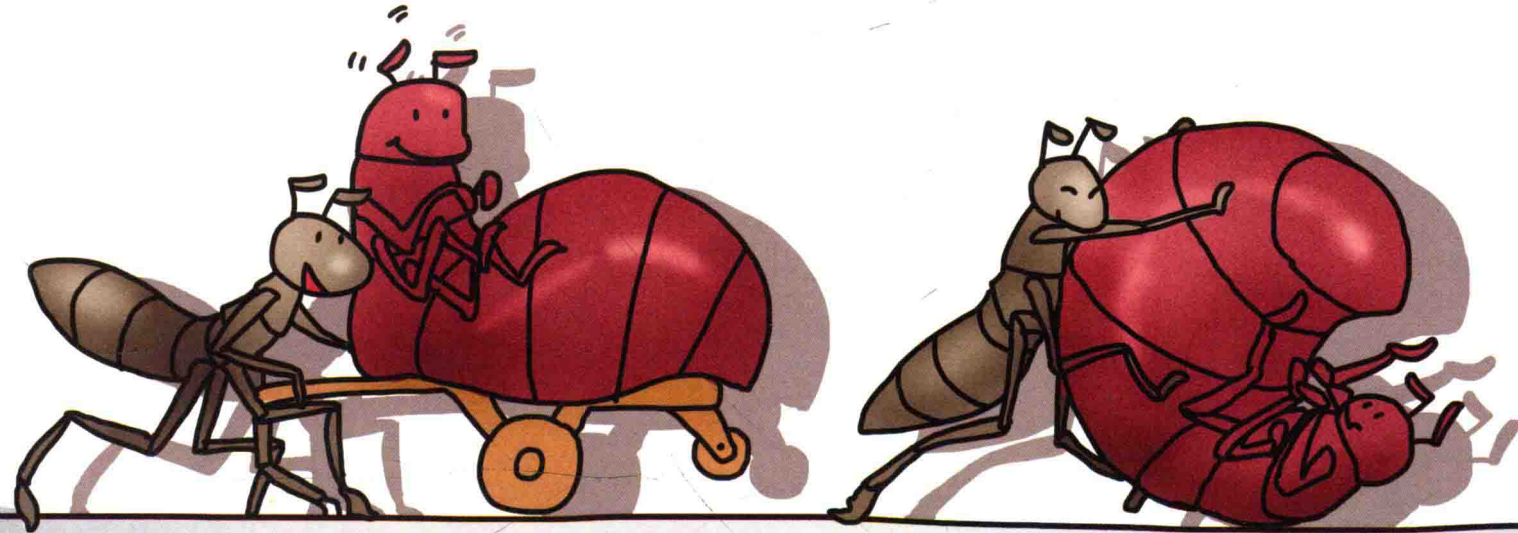

The red ants are fatter.
They cannot get out.
They call to the black ants,
“We need your help!”

The black ants are stronger than the red ants.
They work hard.
Now they answer the call, "We are coming!"

The black ants help the red ants out.
Then, all of the red ants move to the farm.
They all live happily together.

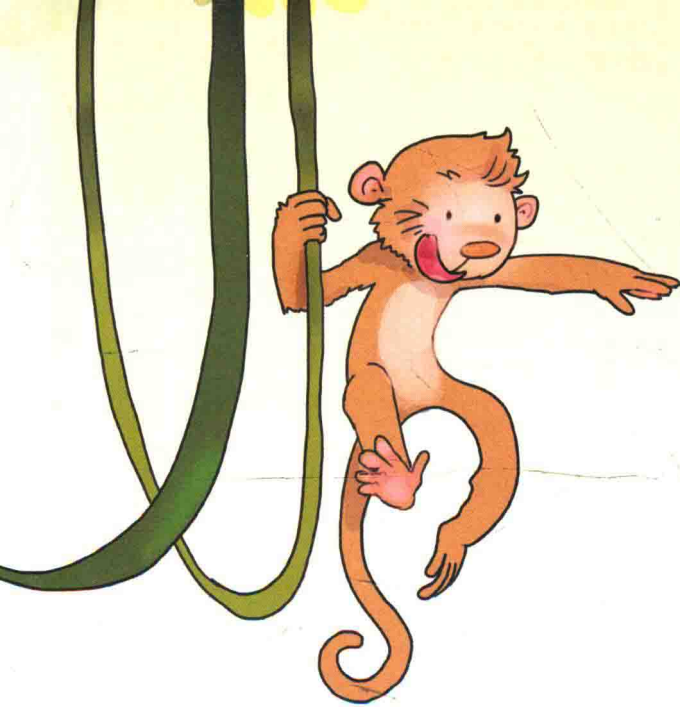

We Will Live Very Long

One veggie, two veggies,

Three veggies, four,

We eat veggies more and more.

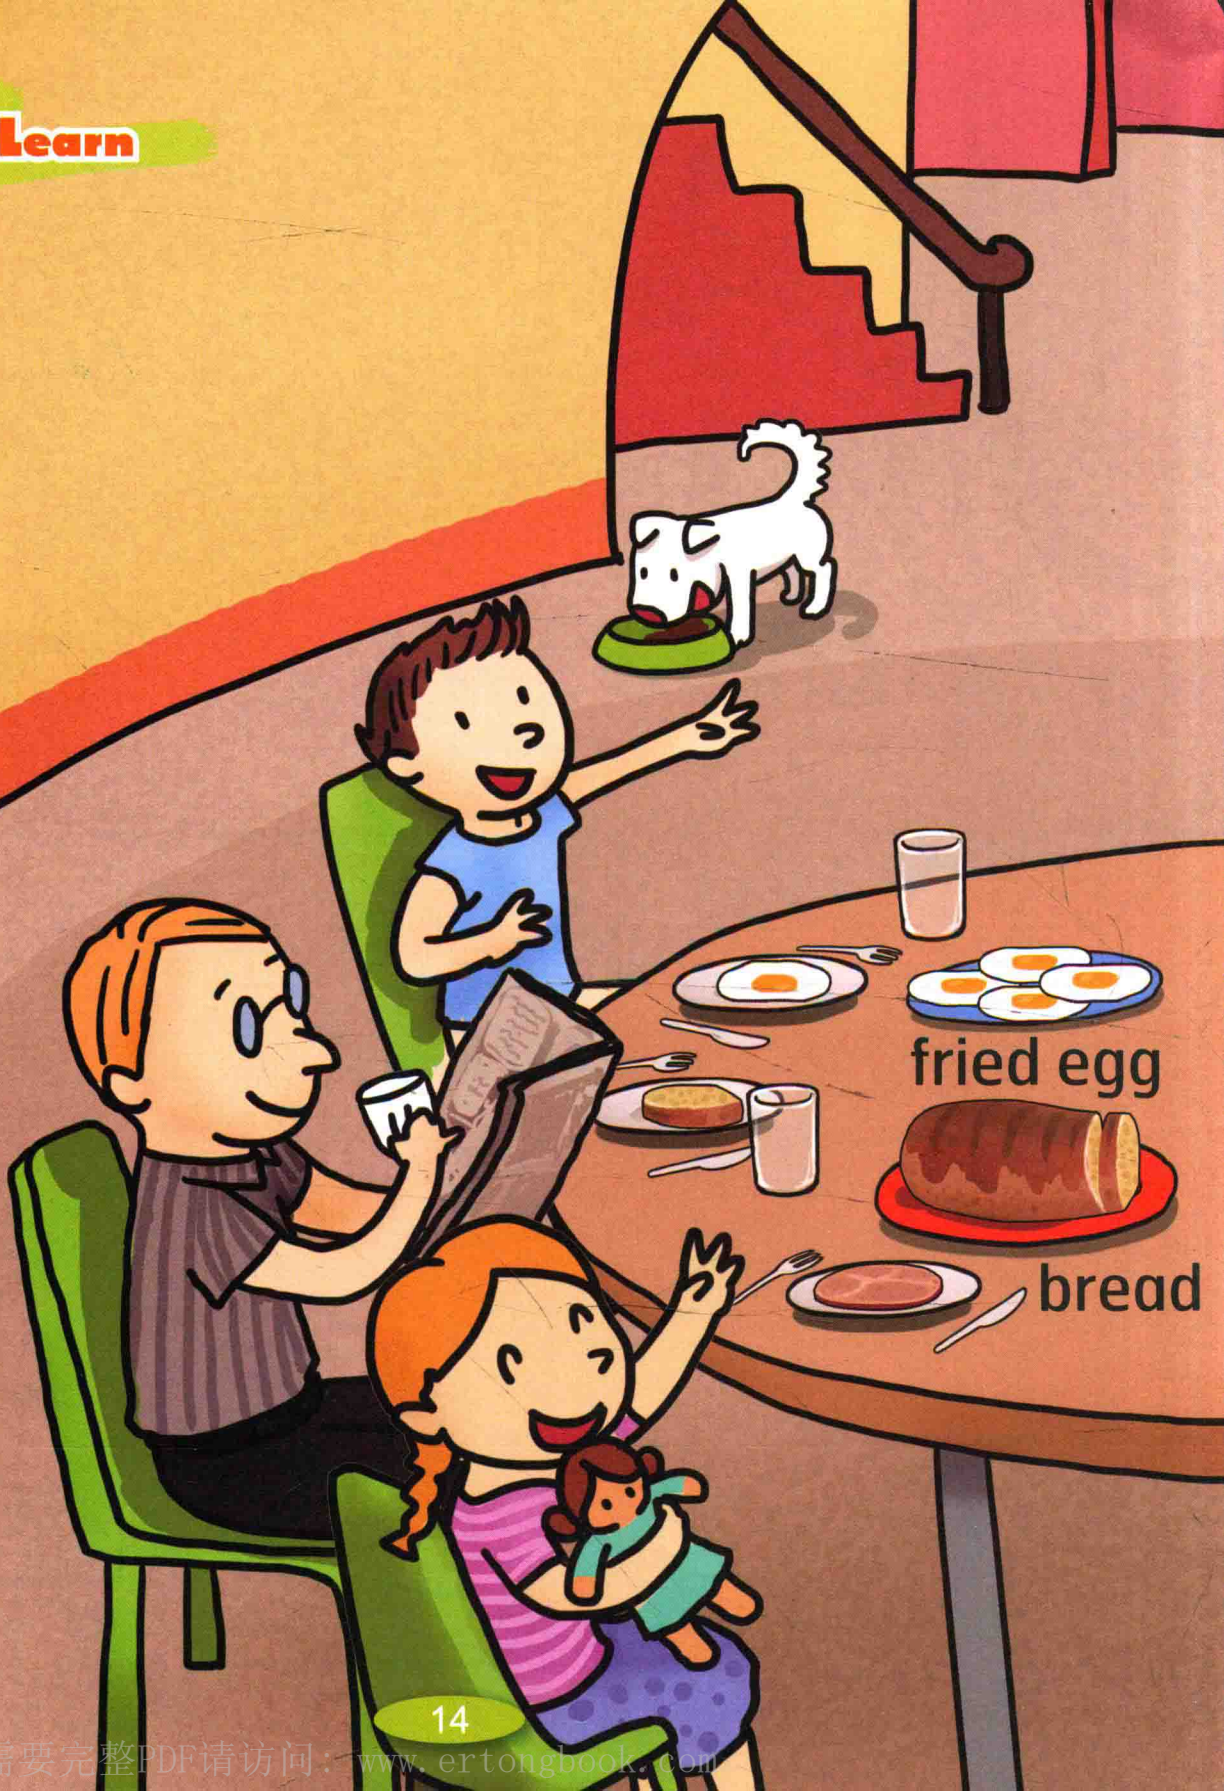

We are big.

We are strong.

We will live very long.
