That night, the jewellery shop robbery was on the TV news.

The reporter (记者) said that people on the street had seen the men get away in a red car.

"When I came home from school, I saw a red car parked outside the empty house next door," Eddie said to his mum.

Mum smiled.

"Oh, there are lots of red cars around," she said.

"But I have not seen this one here before," Eddie said.

NOTES

The Red Car

After dinner, Eddie went outside.
He looked over at the house next door.
It was dark and empty.
He looked out at the street.
The red car was still parked there.
Eddie walked over to the car
and looked inside.
Just then, there was a noise
from somewhere behind him.

Eddie turned around.
The noise was coming from the empty house.
He had to go and have a look.

He walked up the path
and went around the back of the house.

Eddie walked up to a window and looked in.

He could not believe what he saw.

What's Going On?

Eddie saw two men sitting at a table.
They were taking things
out of a big black box.
Eddie could see that it was jewellery.

Eddie moved away from the window.
He ran down the path
and into his house.

"Mum, Mum! Call the police!
The jewellery robbers are next door,"
he said.

"Oh, come on, Eddie!" said Mum.

"Really, Mum! Go and have a look if you don't believe me," he said.

NOTES

make up 编造

Mum looked hard at Eddie.
She could see that he was not making it up.
So, she called the police.

The police came to the house.
"Very good work, Eddie,"
said one of the police
as they took the robbers away.
"You're going to make a good detective (侦探) one day."
"I think I am, too," Eddie said.
