LE Roy de Perse auers mille chevaux & 50. mille hommes de pied assiege Dille à deux iournées de la vallee de Babilone: où le grand Seigneur a fait faire commandement à tous les lamulaires de se rendre sous peine de la vie & continue nonobstant ce diuersiflement à faire tousiours vne alpro guerre aux preneurs de Tabac, qu'il fait suffoquer à la fumee.

La Sainteté a finalement reçu les articles & conditions accordés concernant la paix si long temps attendue en Lebie. Il est survenu dans Madrid un accident de feu qui a fort endommagé l'hôtel du Comte Olivarez, & le Palais Royal. Sa Majesté Catholique a pourvu le Marquis d'Ayton de la charge de General de la marine en la coste de Flandres, & a envoyé Dom Ferdinand Contieras pour hastier le pacquement de la flotte de Vestinde. Le Clergé contribue en Portugal deux cens vingt-cinq mil escus pour subvenir à la necessité presente des affaires.

La ville d'Vlm a refusé ouvertement la contribution que le Commissaire Imperial luy demandoit, & respondit au Magistrat qu'il acceptoyent la resolution de l'assemblée de Lipsic. On fait marcher contre eux les Regimens d'Italie Mais on croit que le passage leur a refusé par les Sieurs de Suève & Francgault, qui ont desja leuë force Soldats.

Les imperialistes se font icy arrester apres la prise de Francfort sur Oder & attendent mille Hongrois que le Palatin leur doit envoyer, qui se joindront à la garnison de Landsberg, & autres troupes d'infanterie de plus de mille hommes, capables de résister deormais aux Suédois entiers.

Les Espagnols ne sont point contents, & ne trouvent point bon l'État de Milan que les passages de Savoye soyent gardez par les François. On dit qu'ils se disent que les Grands se promettent d'entretenir 10000 hommes, si on continue la guerre. A quoy les François repliquent, que de passer, qu'ils ne rendront point ce qu'ils tiennent sans vne bonne execution du traité de la part des autres.

On levé des gens de guerre par toute l'Autriche, Silesie, Moravie, De l'année Bohème, &c. & par les pais circonvoisins, qui donneront bien de l'affair. 3. May.
Le Roy de Sardaigne. Le Burgrave de Dona est retourné en Silesie y prendre le commandement des armées. On ne doute plus de la paix d'Italie, non celle de Trente, & non celle d'Ulm. On a icy publié un Edict portant, que si quelque Prince, ou Prince de l'Empire dans le premier de May prochain n'a pas de l'Empire un allié, ou Duc de Wurtemberg, s'en va en qualité de Généralissime commander les troupes qui retourneront d'Italie, si quelqu'un de l'Empire voudra joindre 24. mille hommes, pour lesse Duc de Wurtemberg.

From the Paris Gazette, dated November 21.

Venice, October 31.

GENERAL Delfino has put a new Re-enforcement of Troops into Defenzano, so that there are now in that Place 20 Companies of Regular Troops besides Militia. We have Advice from the Possesmes that the Ferrabutti, or Imperial Banditi, having plunder'd a Bark that was going up the Po, the Podesta of Rovigo caus'd them to be pursued; and their Leader with some others were kill'd, 30 taken Prisoners, and the greatest part of the Booty was recover'd: But the Captain who commanded the Soldiers of the Republick was also kill'd. Some Vessels that are arriv'd from Constantinople report that the Turkish Fleet is return'd from the Black Sea, after having furnish'd with all things necessary for their Defence, the 2 New Ports built in the Straight of Caffa overagainst the Muscovite Ports, for the Security of the Crimea. The 2^d Instance Signior Nicolo Delfino was choic'd by the great Council to be Procurator of St. Mark, in the room of Signior Pietro Venier deceased some Days before. On this Occasion the 6 was for 3 Days together Feasting, Balls, Masquerades, and Illuminations at Signior Delfino's Palace, as is the Custom here. The new Procurator is Brother of Signior Delfino, General of our Troops on the Terra Firma, and also our Ambassador at the Court of Vienna.

From the Amsterdam and Lelden Gazettes, dated November 29. and 20.

Venice, November 6 and 7. The 31st of last Month an Express arriv'd here from Brussels, with Letters from the Elector of Bavaria for a Elector, as also Bills of Exchange for 10000 Ducats, and a Preface of five Manders, Leece and Linnen. Letters from Legazano and Crema dated the 31st of last Month, advise that 4000 German Horse had taken one of 9 Villages of the Bergomase, all the Corn, Wine and other Provisions they could lay their Hands on; and that 2000 French Horse, entering by Night into the Towns of Olsengo and Ombasno, both lying within 2 Miles of Crema, plunder'd them and treated the Inhabitants with great Insolence. Letters from Mantua inform us the Marquis de Zuli Governor of that Place, has made the necessary Dispositions for receiving the General Onits and Troops of the 2 Crowns that are to have their Winter Quarters there: The Duke of Mantua was expected there in order to his going from thence to Milan, and thence to the Bohemian Islands for the recovery of his Health.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 20.

Cologne, November 21. The 21st of Nov. the Prince of Saxe Zeitz arriv'd here from Bonn in one of the Elector Palatin's Yachts, to receive, in the Name of the Emperor, Homage of this City, and made his Entry in the following manner: 1st. Came a Company of Grenadiers; then 20 Coaches drawn by 2 Horses each; next a Troop of Horse well mounted and clad, preceded by a good number of led Horses, Trumpets, and Kettle Drums; after them came 8 Coaches drawn by 6 Horses each, in which were the Syndicks and ancient Burgomasters; then came a Coach in which sat his Highness the Prince, and with him the 2 Ruling Burgomasters, before and after this Coach rode the Horseguards; next came 14 Coaches in which were several Ministers, Persons of Quality, and others; and last of all came our City Troop of Horse very well mounted and equipped. When his Highness was come to the Town-house our Cannon were fired, &c. they were also twice more during a magnificent Entertainment which lasted till 9 at Night. The Day at Noon his Highness receiv'd Homage of our Magistrates and of half the Burghers: To Morrow the other half of the Burghers will do Homage, and take an Oath of Allegiance, with like Solemnity.

Wymouth, November 27. This Day arriv'd this Port 4 Ships from Rotterdam, and from Zwickzes in Ballish, bound for Burdeaux; and the Marbella of Dublin with Wine from Oporto. Thomas Lee Moller, bound for Cork.

Wymouth, November 28 Yesterday was sent in here by the Newborough Gally, Peter Tuppy Commander, a small French Vessel laden with Sugar: We was taken out of a Fleet of about 30 Sail under 3 Convoys with whom 7 Guernsey Privateers fell in, in the Night: Another of 400 Tons with Sugar was taken by this Privateer, and one of 60 Tons with Sugar; but how many more by the rest, it being Night, we cannot give an Account.

Wymouth, November 28. There continue 2 or 3 more of our Majesty's Ships Adventure and Nightingale, with some Ships and Vessels bound for Holland; and a Gally laden with

Tories gain 12 seats in London area

CREECH JONES HAS A RECOUNT—HIS DEPUTY BEATEN

Express Poll Figures

TWENTY Tory gains and one Socialist had been recorded in the General Election early this morning. The outstanding feature was the huge advance of people voting, 94 per cent, going to the poll at Kingston-on-Thames, an average of 85 per cent, in results on the day. Twenty-two Liberal deposits have been lost, and 49 Conservatives deposited.

The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information about the situation and understanding the perspectives of all stakeholders involved. Once the problem has been identified, the next step is to develop a plan of action. This plan should outline the goals, objectives, and strategies that will be used to address the problem. It should also specify the roles and responsibilities of each stakeholder and establish a timeline for implementation.

After the plan has been developed, the next step is to implement it. This involves putting the plan into action and monitoring progress along the way. It is important to communicate regularly with all stakeholders throughout the process to ensure everyone is on track and to make adjustments as needed. Finally, once the project has been completed, it is important to evaluate the results and determine what lessons learned can be applied to future projects.

the same time, the Government has been making a study of the problem of the distribution of the population in the country. It has been found that the population is concentrated in the cities and towns, and that the rural areas are underpopulated. This is a serious problem, and the Government is taking steps to solve it. It is building new towns and villages, and it is encouraging people to move to the countryside. It is also building roads and bridges, and it is improving the schools and hospitals. It is doing all these things to make the countryside a more attractive place to live. It is also building new towns and villages, and it is encouraging people to move to the countryside. 1. The first step in the process of creating a new product is to identify a market need. This involves conducting market research to determine what consumers want and what problems they are facing. Once a need is identified, the next step is to develop a concept that addresses this need.

2. The second step is to create a prototype. This is a preliminary version of the product that allows the designer to test the concept and make necessary adjustments. Prototyping can be done using various methods, including 3D printing, CNC machining, and hand fabrication.

3. The third step is to conduct a feasibility study. This involves evaluating the technical, financial, and market viability of the product. A feasibility study helps to identify potential risks and challenges, and provides a basis for making informed decisions about whether to proceed with the project.

4. The fourth step is to develop a business plan. This document outlines the company's goals, strategies, and financial projections. It is a crucial tool for securing funding and guiding the company's operations. A well-developed business plan should include information about the market, the competition, and the company's unique value proposition.

5. The fifth step is to manufacture the product. This involves sourcing materials, setting up production facilities, and hiring workers. Manufacturing can be a complex process, and it is important to ensure that the product is produced consistently and to a high quality.

6. The sixth step is to launch the product. This involves marketing the product to the target market and distributing it to customers. Launching a new product can be a challenging task, and it is important to have a clear marketing strategy in place.

7. The seventh step is to monitor the product's performance. This involves tracking sales, customer feedback, and market trends. Monitoring performance allows the company to make adjustments and improvements as needed, ensuring that the product remains competitive and profitable.
