序

英语的听、说、读、写在英语学习中具有同等重要的地位。从历年中考英语对英语的要求来看，英语写作的地位越来越重要。同时，在英语考试中，作文也最能反映学生真实的英语水平。因而，写好英语作文显得格外重要。

近年来，英语学习的热度越来越高，英语也在中考中占据着愈来愈重要的地位。因此学好英语、写好英语作文，成为学生学习中的重要部分；教好英语作文，成为老师们教学的重点、难点；帮助学生学好英语作文，也成为许多家长共同的心愿。

在此基础上，我们推出单纯的英语作文选本，虽说不能算是创举，但却浸透着多位名师多年来总结的英语作文写作心得。满分作文、高分作文，并不是水中月、镜中花，本书将带领同学们征服英语作文，成为英语作文的掌控者。

愿本书能成为同学们写好英语作文的良师益友。尽管我们精心选择，细心点评，但由于时间仓促，美好的愿望不一定能完全实现，恳请读者朋友对于本书不足之处提出宝贵意见。

My English Teacher

I began to like English when I entered the middle school. I owe it to my English teacher who has stimulated my great interest in learning English and then influenced my future, and whose name is Zhang Yanshu—the name I will keep in my mind forever.

She showed great love to us which deeply appealed to our hearts. Different from other teachers, she had never been impolite to us. Oppositely, she treated us equally. She made efforts to attract us to the world of English, to understand the beauty of the language and enjoy the cultures of the foreign countries. With her skillful help, the students in our class took great interest in this course and improved rapidly.

She was kind and patient. She did not mind the students' slowness in learning new knowledge, but it did not mean that she was not strict with us. To make what we had learned strong, she often asked us to recall the knowledge in class. This was also a method to examine the homework she had assigned. In that case, we had to work hard so as to live up to her hope.

She is such an excellent teacher that we got so much from her, not only the knowledge but also kindness, diligence and appreciation for beauty. All these will be useful to all our life.

Something about Myself

I am a Chinese middle school student. I am in Class Three Grade Three. My name is Miao Jianfeng. I am fifteen.

I live in Beijing. There are four people in my family. They are my father, my mother, my sister and I. My father is an engineer and my mother is a teacher. My sister and I are both at school. We like school.

My home is in China Building Materials Academy. There are many buildings here. And there are many trees in front of these buildings. There is a garden behind my home. There are many flowers in it. Some are red, some are yellow, and others are white. I often water them. I like them. There is a playground near my home. I often play football on it.

I like sports very much. I often play basketball and football. I play basketball every morning and play football on Friday afternoon. Sometimes I swim. Do you like sports?

My Mother

My mother is just over fifty, a little bit older than our republic nation, so she has experienced two periods just like our country, showing both the traditional goodness and modern ideas.

Like all mothers, she is responsible and devotes most of her efforts to our family. So sometimes I feel regretful for her to give up her work, but she thinks it is the proper social role for a woman to be a housewife. She is satisfied with the family members' achievements. You see how traditional she is.

However, since she is intelligent and has received the high education, it is easy for her to accept something new. In recent years, she is interested in the stock. Therefore, she cares about the political and economic situation of the country and the world, and actively collects information of the companies whose stock she bought. What is more, she is a fan of the Argentina football team. So she was very sad after the defeat of this team in the 17th World Cup Tournament.

I love my mother, just because she loves me. Since we share some interests such as playing chess, we get chances to communicate with each other, which makes us close friends.

On Teachers' Day

It was Teachers' Day last Friday. Before it came, we were thinking about what we should do for our English teacher and what present we would give her on that day. Wu Li said, "Let's give our teacher a surprise." "What surprise?" we asked. She went on, "Every day before the class, one of us will give a weather and news report. On that day, the reporter will give the English teacher a card and a bottle of pure drinking water. Water is pure and clean, just like our love to the teacher. Water is also useful to the teacher. She talks a lot in class." "That's a good idea." we shouted.

On Teachers' Day, as soon as the teacher walked in and said "It's time for class", we stood up and shouted "Happy Teachers' Day". Wu Li went to the front, and gave her a card and a bottle of water with our best wishes. We did give our teacher a surprise. She held the bottle and didn't know what to say first, then smiled happily. She drank the water at once and said, "This is the best water I've had. Thank you very much." We knew she understood our meaning. We laughed and laughed.

Teacher Is Late

The bell for class was ringing and all the students had taken their seats, waiting for the teacher. Our Chinese teacher, Miss Li, had told us before that we were going to write a composition this class.

A minute passed, and another, but the teacher didn't appear. The boys and girls began to wonder what had happened to her. Soon some students began to talk, and some took up other subjects. Some boys even made noises.

About ten minutes later, Miss Li came in, smiling. No apology was made. We were a little angry.

At this moment, Miss Li picked up a piece of chalk and wrote "Teacher Is Late" on the blackboard and said that was the topic of our composition today.

All of us smiled and understood what the teacher meant.

The First Day of Our Military Training

Today was the first day of our military training. Early in the morning the whistle woke us up at 5:30. It was an order for us to get up. So we gathered as quickly as possible on the playground to do morning exercises. We had never got up so early when we were at home!

After breakfast we went to the playground to learn how to stand at attention. We spent the whole morning practicing this action, standing in the sun! In the afternoon we stood in the sun to stand at attention too.

Oh! My god! What boring time! When could we finish our training?

Helping Each Other Makes The World Wonderful

Hello, everyone. I'm Li Zhi. It's nice to speak about help here. Have you heard of an old saying "True love is giving, not taking"? It tells us that we should pay attention to giving instead of taking. In my opinion, I think we should help people in need. It is also a kind of giving. If we help our classmates, we can get friendship. If we help old men, we can get happiness. If we help the patient, we can get pleasure. So, my dear friends, don't hesitate.
