Preface

China is a beautiful treasure-house of ancient tales and folklore. Here are stories filled with sincere reflection echoing the vast and deep spirit of our culture and civilization. These represent the best of Chinese culture—tales that uphold a people's sense of their common origin.

This collection of First Books for Early Learning offers stories familiar to all of us. Drawn from folklore and mythology, along with the origins of special days in the traditional calendar and of famous places, these eighty books also recall ancient physicians, philosophers and thinkers, figures famed for statecraft, generals, royalty, prodigies and scientists, remembered through tales of wisdom and great poetry.

To give Chinese children all over the world an understanding of their ancestors' lives, and the changes through the different ages of China's history, scientific development and achievements in arts and literature, we have brought together concise language with most vivid illustrations. These ancient historical figures also give inspiration and ideas to children to connect with their own roots.

As Chinese, we know Chinese history well as a son or a daughter knows his or her family. Only with such knowledge can one possess a depth of passion and a sense of responsibility. It is our wish that this collection will guide children at an early age to learn from the history of our nation and to identify with the social progress and philosophical spirit of the Chinese people. We hope our children will develop wider horizons of wisdom to become open-minded yet with a rooted outlook on life.

First Books for Early Learning was originally compiled in Chinese for the children of China. The writers and artists who contributed to this collection have used the perspective of traditional literature and arts to interpret Chinese mythology, legends and history. We hope this collection will be enjoyed by Chinese people—and, now in translation, also by people all over the world—and all children who want to learn more about China.

Zhao Zhenwan

从前，有一位老公公，名字叫愚公。在他家门前有两座大山，进出都要绕着走，很不方便。

Once upon a time, there was an old man known as Yu Gong, or Grandpa Fool. Two mountains sat in front of his house. Every time there was a need to go anywhere he and his family had to go around the mountains, causing a great inconvenience.

一天，愚公召集全家老小，商议挖掉这两座大山。

One day, Grandpa Fool gathered his family. Old and young sat together to discuss removing the two big mountains.

全家人都很赞成。

Everyone in the family agreed to do it.

愚公的老伴有些担心，就问：“挖出来的泥土和石头往哪里放呢？”

Grandpa's wife had her worries. She said, "Where do we put all the earth and rocks that come from the mountains?"

大伙说：“那好办，把它扔到渤海边上。”

But everyone else simply replied, “That’s easy. We’ll just throw them all by the Bohai Sea.”
