I can see with my telescope.
What can I see?

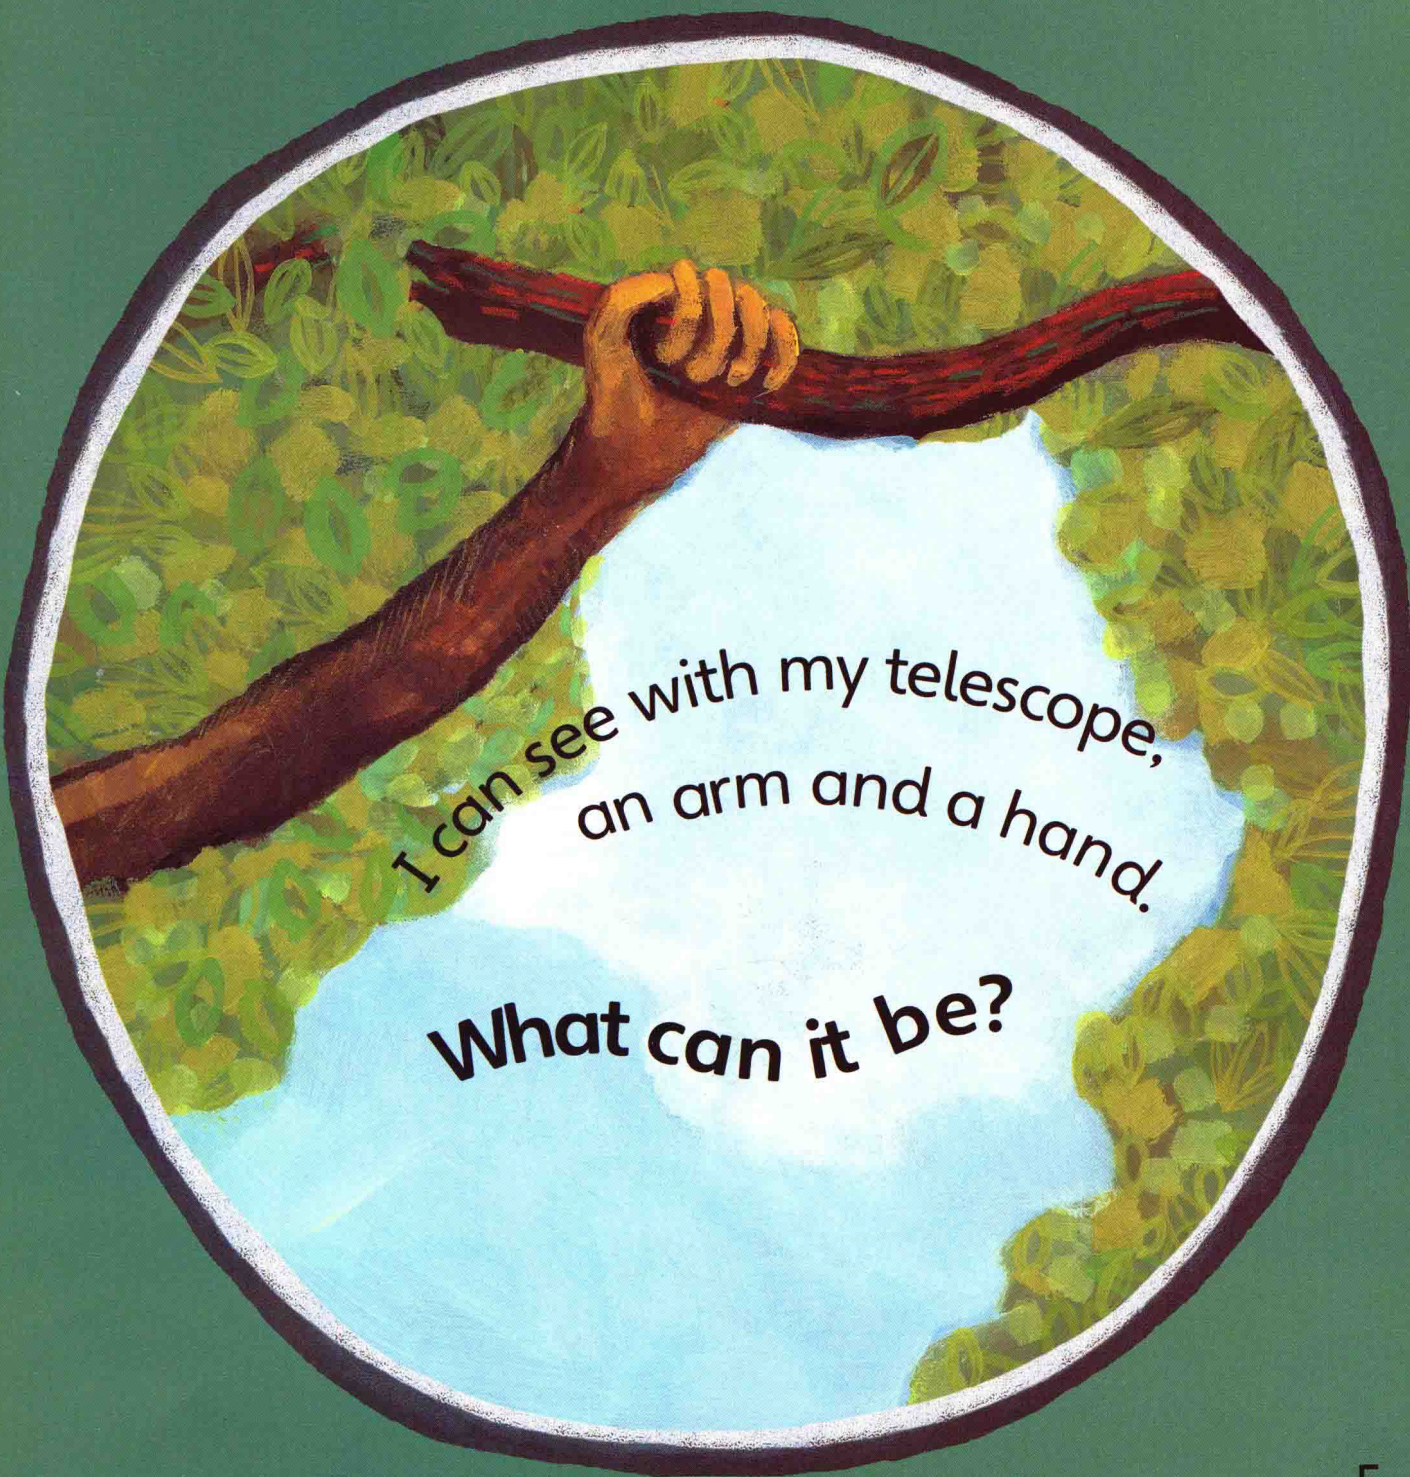

A circular illustration with a dark blue background. Inside the circle, a zebra's legs and tail are visible, standing in a field of yellow and green grass. The zebra's legs are white with dark brown stripes. The tail is also white with dark brown stripes and has a tuft at the end. The text "Two legs and a tail." is written in a black, sans-serif font, slanted upwards from left to right, positioned over the zebra's legs.

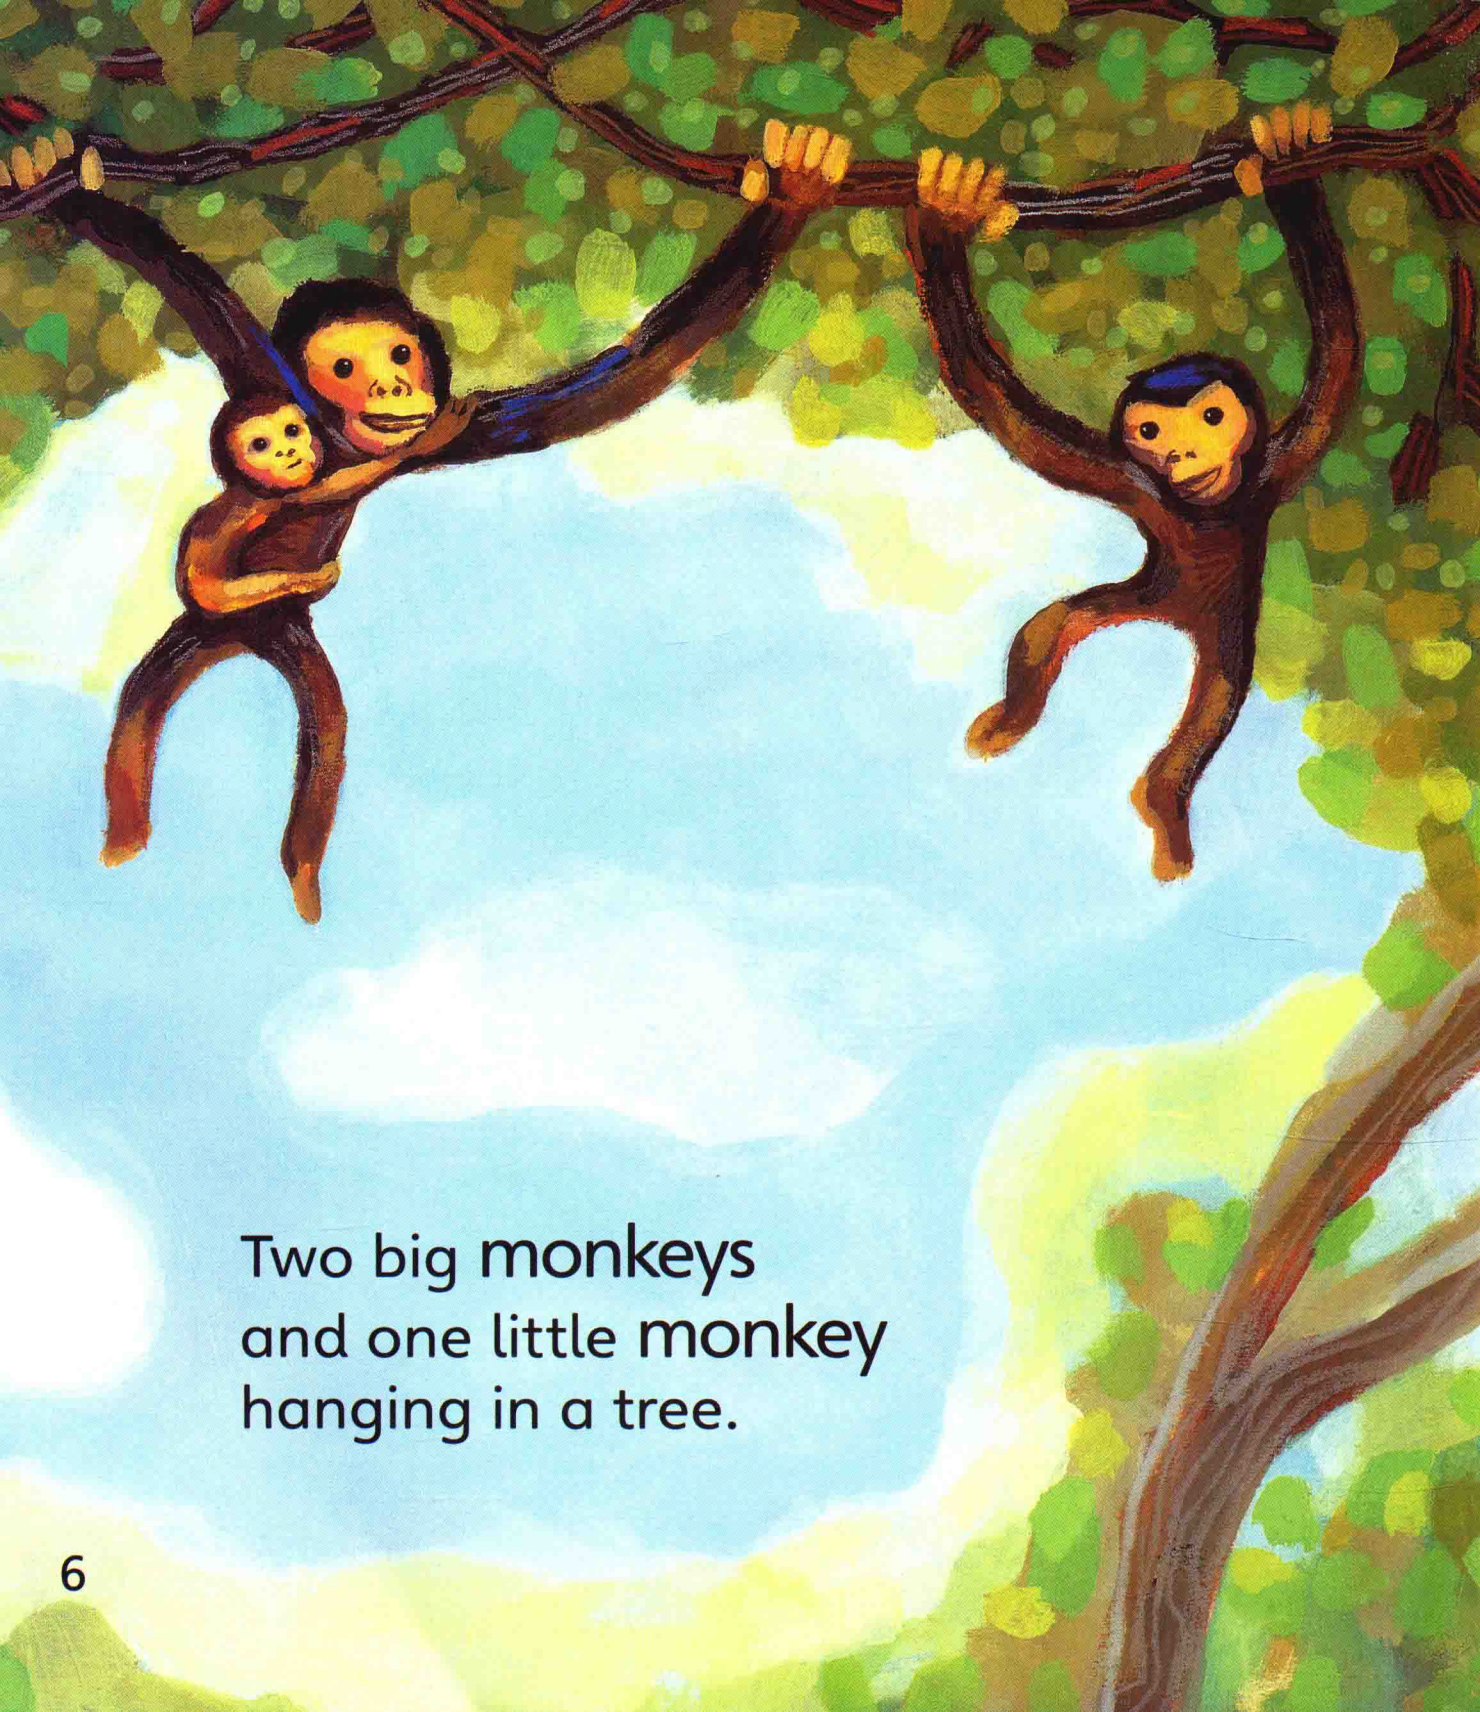

Two legs and a tail.

What can it be?

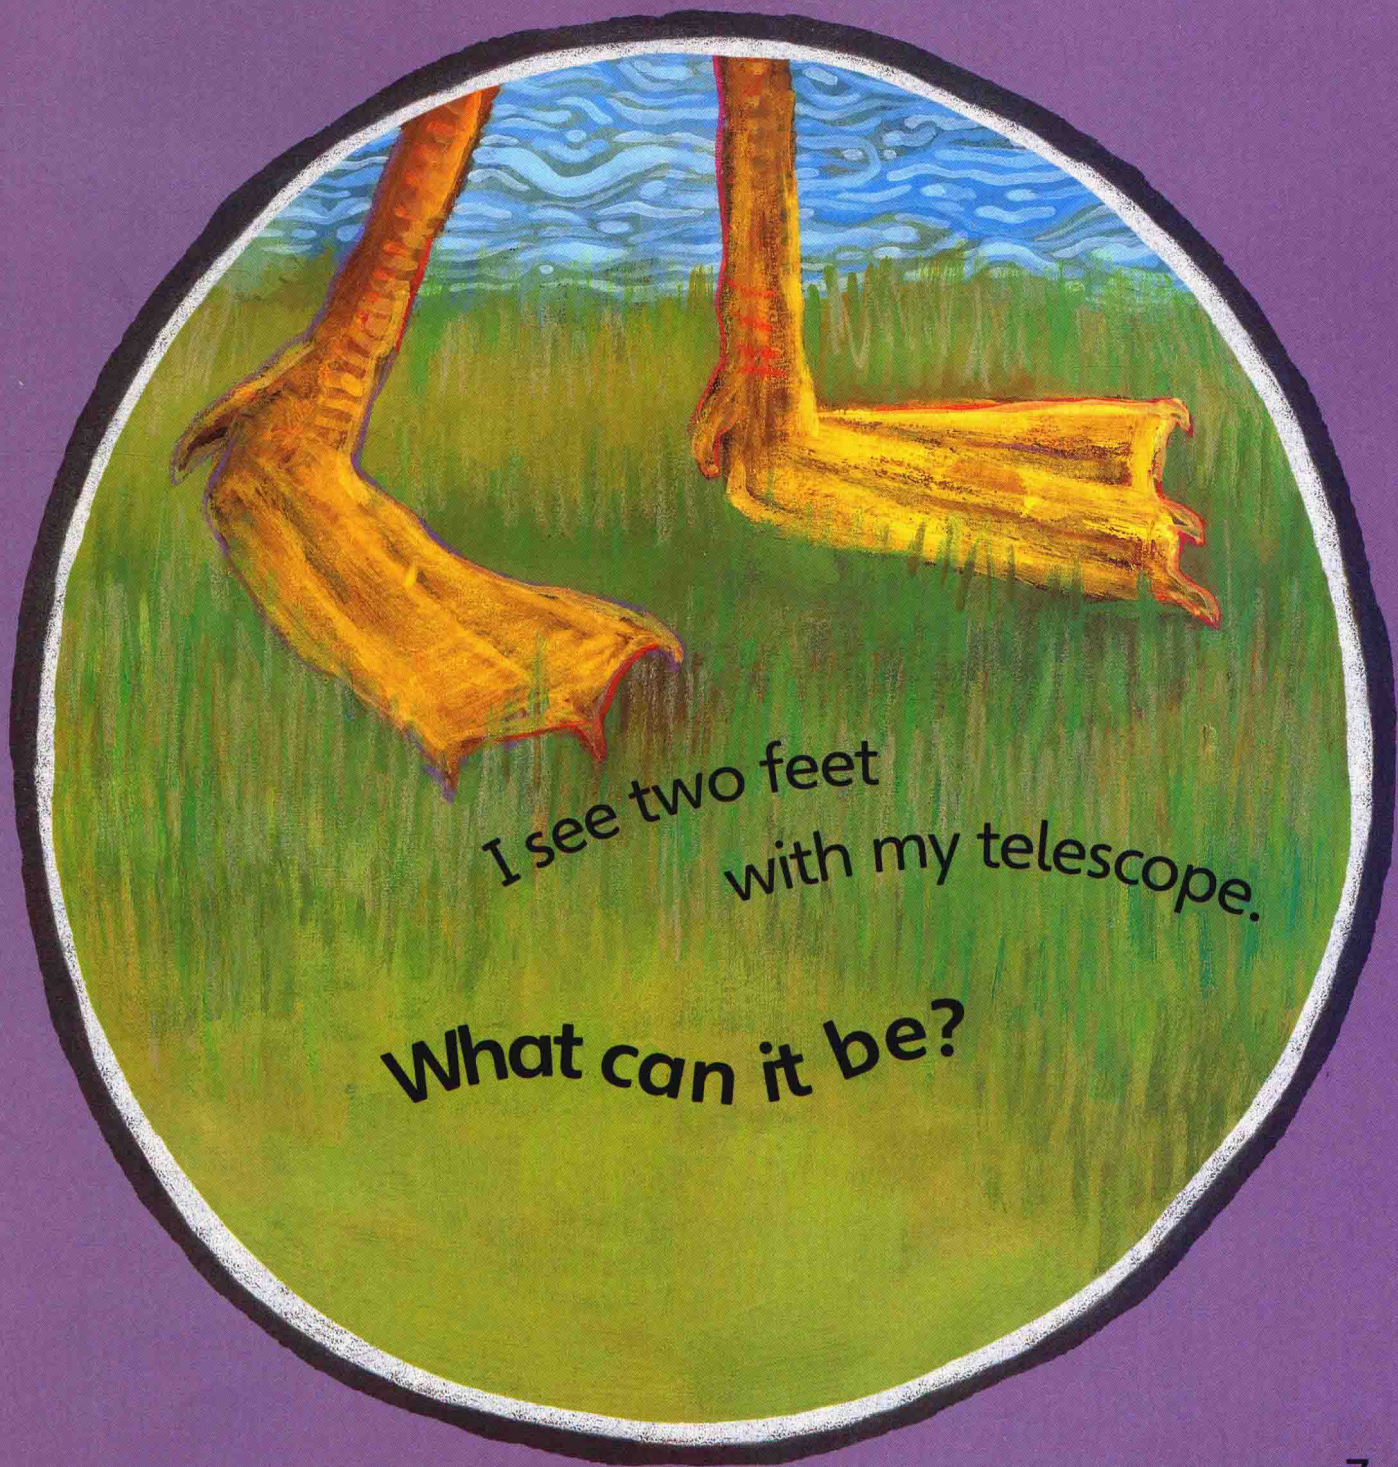

A big zebra
with a little zebra.
That is what I can see.

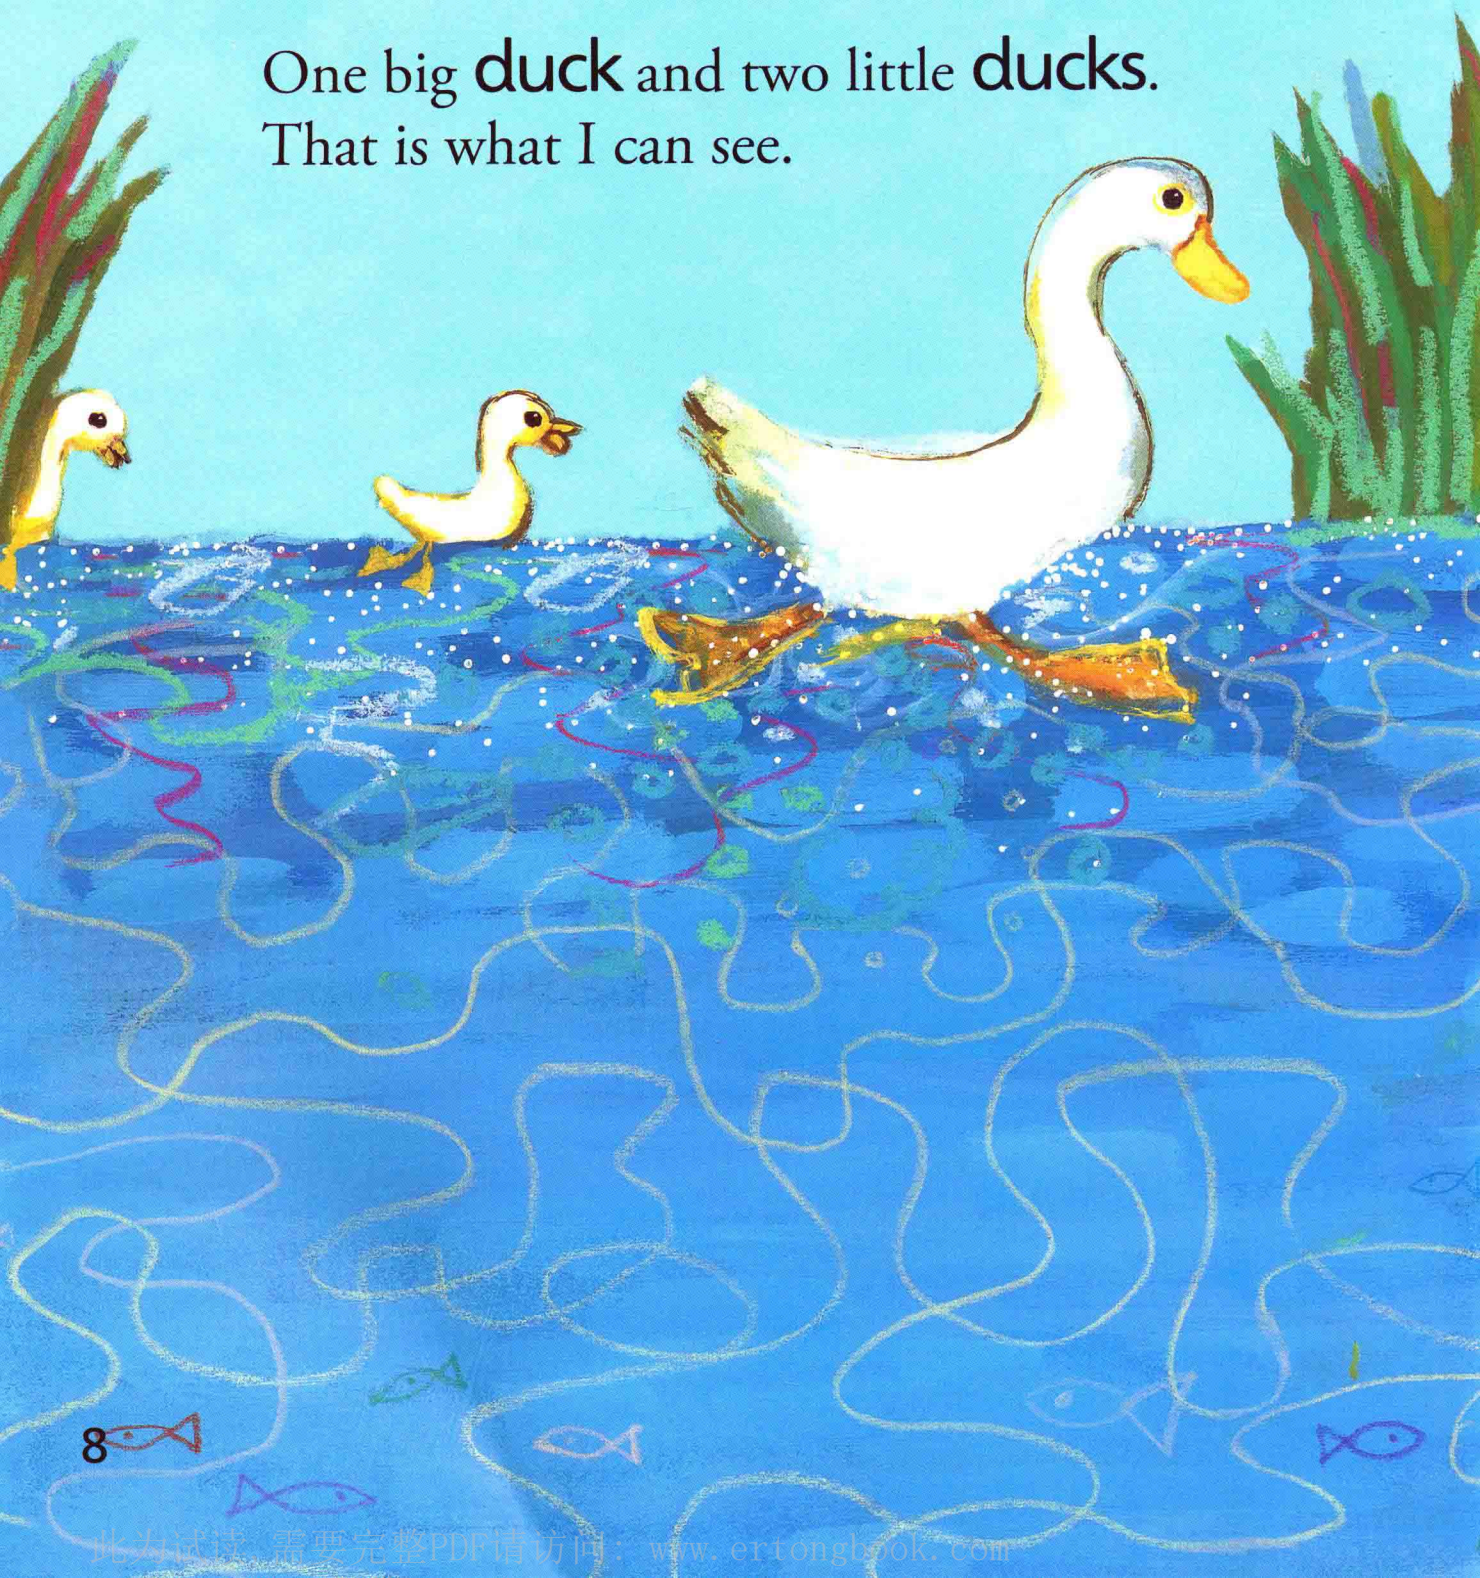

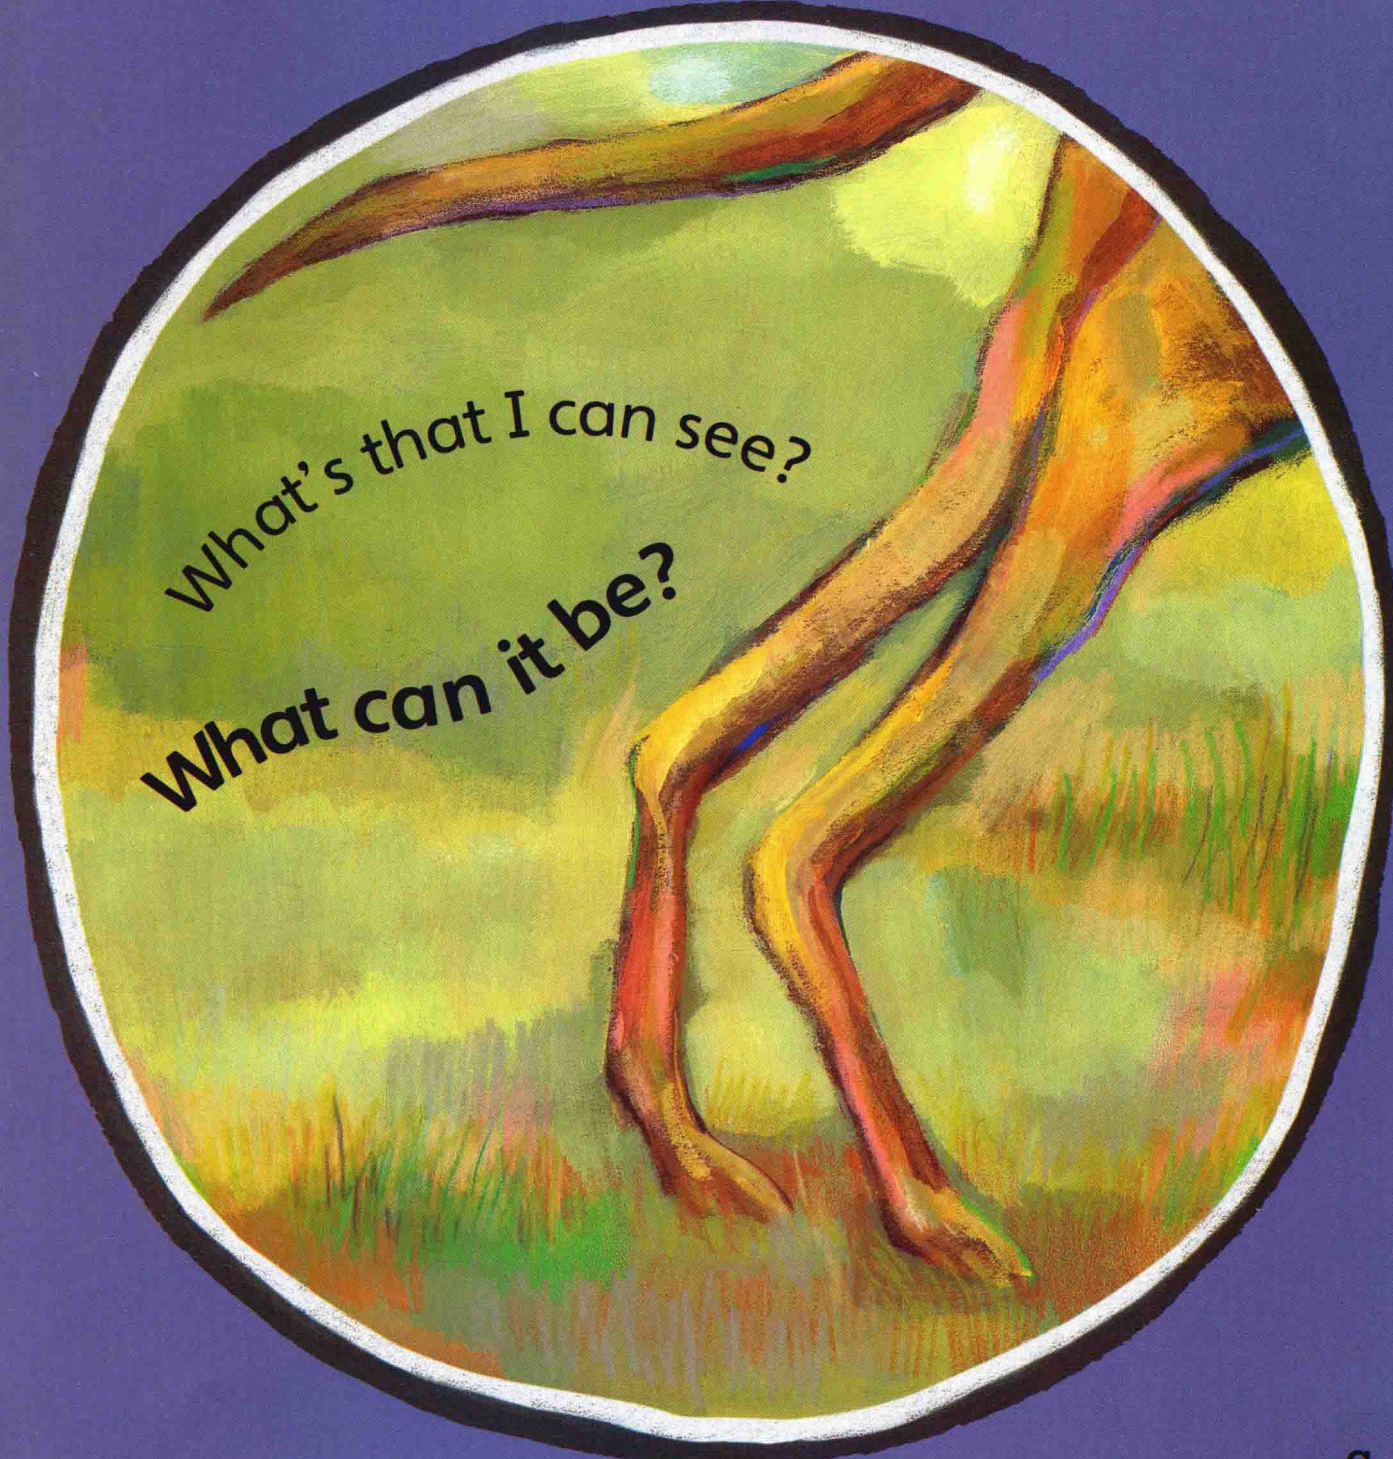

Two big monkeys
and one little monkey hanging in a tree.

One big duck and two little ducks.
That is what I can see.

A circular illustration with a white border, set against a dark blue background. Inside the circle, a crocodile is depicted in a swampy environment. The crocodile's body is a mix of brown, orange, and red, with a blue stripe running along its back. It is positioned on the right side of the circle, with its head and front legs visible. The background within the circle is a mix of green and yellow, suggesting a swampy or grassy area. A large, thick tree trunk is visible on the left side of the circle, extending from the top towards the bottom. The text "What's that I can see?" and "What can it be?" is written in a black, sans-serif font, slanted upwards from left to right, positioned over the crocodile and the tree trunk.

What's that I can see?
What can it be?

One big kangaroo
and a little joey too.

I see a wing
with my telescope.

What can it be?

I see a flying owl
and the owl sees me.

What can it be?

Two furry legs!
Claws on each paw!

It is a lion!
Roar! Roar! Roar!
