Preface

China is a beautiful treasure-house of ancient tales and folklore. Here are stories filled with sincere reflection echoing the vast and deep spirit of our culture and civilization. These represent the best of Chinese culture—tales that uphold a people's sense of their common origin.

This collection of First Books for Early Learning offers stories familiar to all of us. Drawn from folklore and mythology, along with the origins of special days in the traditional calendar and of famous places, these eighty books also recall ancient physicians, philosophers and thinkers, figures famed for statecraft, generals, royalty, prodigies and scientists, remembered through tales of wisdom and great poetry.

To give Chinese children all over the world an understanding of their ancestors' lives, and the changes through the different ages of China's history, scientific development and achievements in arts and literature, we have brought together concise language with most vivid illustrations. These ancient historical figures also give inspiration and ideas to children to connect with their own roots.

As Chinese, we know Chinese history well as a son or a daughter knows his or her family. Only with such knowledge can one possess a depth of passion and a sense of responsibility. It is our wish that this collection will guide children at an early age to learn from the history of our nation and to identify with the social progress and philosophical spirit of the Chinese people. We hope our children will develop wider horizons of wisdom to become open-minded yet with a rooted outlook on life.

First Books for Early Learning was originally compiled in Chinese for the children of China. The writers and artists who contributed to this collection have used the perspective of traditional literature and arts to interpret Chinese mythology, legends and history. We hope this collection will be enjoyed by Chinese people—and, now in translation, also by people all over the world—and all children who want to learn more about China.

Zhao Zhenwan

唐朝有个大诗人，名叫李白，他小的时候，光想玩，不爱念书。

Li Bai is one of the most celebrated poets of the Tang Dynasty (618-907). When he was a young child, he enjoyed playing and did not like to study.

有一次，他逃学跑到郊外去玩，看见一个老婆婆在磨一根铁杵。

One day, he ran away from school and stepped outside the city to roam around. He soon met an old woman grinding an iron pestle.

李白觉得很奇怪,就问老婆婆:“你在干什么呀?”
老婆婆说:“我要把这根铁杵磨成绣花针呢!”

Li Bai was very curious. He asked the old woman,
“What are you doing?” The old woman answered,
“I’m going to grind this iron pestle down into an embroidery needle.”

李白听了很惊讶：“杵这么粗，什么时候才能磨成绣花针呀？”

Li Bai was quite amazed and asked, “This iron pestle is so big. When will you get it down to the size of an embroidery needle?”
