第二节 短文理解 2

阅读短文, 从各题所给的三个选项中选出可以填入空白处的最佳选项。

根据下面短文回答第 36~40 题。

Mrs. Baker's sister was ill. She had someone to look after her from Monday to Friday, but not at the weekend, so every Friday evening Mrs. Baker used to go off to spend the weekend with her at her home in a neighboring town. But as Mr. Baker could not cook, so he had arranged for (安排) his sister to come over and spend the weekend looking after him at their home.

This means that Mr. Baker had quite a busy time when he came home from work on Friday evenings. First he had to drive home from the railway station. Then he had to drive his wife to the station to catch her train. And then he had to wait until his sister's train arrived, so as to take her to his house.

Of course, on Sunday evenings he had to drive his sister to the station to catch her train back home, and then wait for his wife's train, so as to bring her home.

One Sunday evening he had seen his sister off on her train and was waiting for his wife's arrival, when a porter, who had often seen him at the station, came over and spoke to him.

"You are having a lot of fun," he said. "But one day one of those women is going to catch you with the other, and then you will be in real trouble!"

36. Who was ill?

- [A] Mr. Baker's sister.
- [B] Mrs. Baker's sister.

- [A] Mr. Baker.
- [B] Mrs. Baker's sister.
- [C] Mrs. Baker.

38. How did Mr. Baker get to work?

- [A] By train and by car.
- [B] Just by car.
- [C] On foot.

39. Where did Mr. Baker spend the weekend?

- [A] At home.
- [B] In his office.
- [C] In his sister's home.

40. On weekends _____.

- [A] Mr. Baker did the cooking
- [B] Mrs. Baker cooked for him
- [C] his sister cooked for him

根据下面短文回答第 41~43 题。

In England, afternoon tea, taken between four and five, is the most informal (非正式的) meal of the day. If you are a friend of the family, you may drop in for tea without an invitation or telling that you are coming. Very often it is not served at a table. The members of the family and visitors take tea in the sitting-room. Each person has a cup and saucer, a spoon (汤匙) and a small plate for bread-and-butter and cake. By the way, do not help yourself to cake first, bread-and-butter first, then cake if there is any. Another piece of advice, do not put more than one piece of bread or cake on your plate at the same time.

41. In England, tea is usually served _____.

- [A] early in the morning
- [B] early in the afternoon
- [C] between four and five

The day was like any other day in his life. Tom walked past the shop on the street corner. He stopped to look at the front row of shoes, and he felt happy to see that the pair of shoes he wanted very much were still there. Looking down, he felt sorry for himself. He really wanted to have them for his birthday.

He sadly walked away and thought how to tell his mother about it. He knew she would give him anything he liked if she could. But he also knew very well she had little money. He decided not to go home at once because he didn't want his mother to be worried about him. So he went to the park and sat on the grass. Then he saw a boy in a wheel chair. He notice that the boy moved the wheel with his hands. Tom looked at his own feet, "It's much better than being without feet." He thought, there was no reason to feel sorry and sad.
