Le Roy de Perse avec 11. mille chevaux & 50. mille hommes de pied assiege Dille à deux journées de la ville de Babylone: où le grand Seigneur a fait faire commandement à tous ses laïssaïres de se rendre sous peine de la vie, & continue nonobstant ce divertissement-là à faire toujours vne alpre guerre aux preneurs de Tabac, qu'il fait suffoquer à la fumée.

La Sainteté a finalement receu les articles & conditions accordees concernant la paix si long temps attendue en Italie. Il est survenu dans Madrid vn accident de feu qui a fort endommagé l'hostel du Comte Olivarez, & le Palais Royal. Sa Majesté Catholique a pourveu le Marquis d'Ayton de la charge de General de la marine en la coste de Flandres, & a envoyé Dom Ferdinand Contieras pour haïster le portement de la flotte de Yestinde. Le Clergé a contribué en Portugal deux cens vingt-cinq mil escus pour subvenir à la necessité presente des affaires.

La ville d'Vlm a refusé ouvertement la contribution que le Commissaire Imperial luy demandoit, & respondu au Magistrat qu'ils acceptoyent la resolution de l'assemblée de Lipfic. On fait marcher conti eux les Regimens d'Italie; Mais on croit que le passage leur sera refusé par ceux de Suete & Franconie, qui ont desja leué force Soldats.

Les Imperialistes se sont icy arrestez apres la prise de Francfort sur Oder, & attendent mille Hongrois que le Palatin leur doit envoyer, qui se joindront à la garnison de Landsberg, & autres troupes doré Tilly les doit grossir, capables de resister de losmais aux Suedois entrez en la Sylecie.

Les Espagnols ne sont point contents, & ne trouvent point leur part pour l'Etat de Milan que les passages de Savoye seyeent gardez par les Suisses, & dit-on que les Grands promettent d'entretenir 30000. hommes si l'on continue la guerre. A quoy les François repliquent, sans se haïster, qu'ils ne rendront point ce qu'ils tiennent sans vne bonne execution du traité de la part des autres.

On leve des gens de guerre par toute l'Autriche, Sylecie, Moravie, Boheme, Baviere, & pais environnans, qui donneront bien des affaires au Roy de Suede. Le Burgrave de Dona est retourné en Sylecie y prendre la conduite des armées. On ne doute plus de la paix d'Italie, ny de celle de Transilvanie. On a icy publié vn Edict portant que chaque maison payera deux florins dans le premier de May prochain. Le fils de l'Empereur assisté du Duc de Friedland, s'en va en qualité de Generalissime conduire les troupes qui retournent d'Italie, auxquelles se doivent joindre 24. mille hommes que ledit Duc de Friedland

From the Paris Gazette, dated November 22.

Venice, October 31.

GENERAL Delfino has put a new Re-enforcement of Troops into Defenzano, so that there are now in that Place 20 Companies of Regular Troops besides Militia. We have Advice from the Poletines that the Ferrabini, or Imperial Band, having plunder'd a Bark that was going up the Po, the Podesta of Rovigo caus'd them to be pursued; and their Leader with some others were kill'd, 30 taken Prisoners, and the greatest part of the Booty was recover'd: But the Captain who command'd the Soldiers of the Republick was also kill'd. Some Vessels that are arriv'd from Constantinople report that the Turkish Fleet is return'd from the Black Sea, after having furnish'd with all things necessary for their Defence, the 2 New Ports built in the Straight of Caffa over against the Mascovic Furs, for the Security of the Coast. The apt Infant Signior Nicolo Delfino was chosen by the great Council to be Procurator of St. Mark, in the room of Signior Pietro Venier deceased some Days before. On this Occasion the 6 was the 3 Days together Feasting, Balls, Musquetades, and Illuminations at Signior Delfino's Palace, as is the Custom here. The new Procurator is Brother of Signior Delfino, General of our Troops on the Frontiers, and also is our Ambassador at the Court of Vienna.

From the Amsterdam and Liden Gazettes, dated the 28th October 29. and 30.

From the 28th October 6 and 7. The 21st of last Month an Express arriv'd here from Brussels, with Letters from the Elector of Bavaria for 2 Electors, as also Bills of Exchange for 2000 Ducats, and a Present of five Mandarins, Lace and Linens. Letters from Elagan and 6 others dated the 21st of last Month, advise that 2000 German Horse had taken 2000 of 3 Companies of the Bergamask, all their Corn, Wood and other Provisions they could by these Hands on; and that 2000 French Horse coming by Night into the Town of Orlengo and Ombino, both lying within 2 Miles of Parma, plunder'd them, and treated the Inhabitants with great Injuries. Letters from Mantua inform us the Marquis de Mail Government of that Place, has made the necessary Dispositions for receiving the General Officers and Troops of the 2 Crowns that are to have their Winter Quarters there. The Duke of Mantua was expected there in order to his going from thence to Milan, and thence to the Borromeo Islands for the recovery of his Health.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 22.

Colony, November 22. The 110 at Noon the Prince of Saxe Zeux arriv'd here from Bonn in one of the Elector Palatin's Yachts, to receive, in the Name of the Emperor, Homage of this City, and made his Entry in the following manner: 1st. Came a Company of Grenades; then 20 Companies drawn by 2 Horses each; next a Troop of Horse well mounted and clad, preceded by a good number of led Horses, Trumpets, and Kettledrums; after them came 8 Coaches drawn by 6 Horses each, in which were the Syndicks and ancient Burghers; then came a Coach in which sat his Highness the Prince, and with him the 2 Ruling Burgomasters, before and after this Coach rode the Horseguards; next came 14 Coaches in which were several Ministers, Persons of Quality, and others; and last of all came our City Troop of Horse very well mounted and accoutred. When his Highness was come to the Town-hoof our Cannon were fir'd, as they were also twice more during a magnificent Entertainment which lasted till 9 at Night. To Day at Noon his Highness receiv'd Homage of our Magistrates and of half the Burghers: To Morrow the other half of the Burghers will do Homage, and take an Oath of Allegiance, with like solemnity.

From the 27. November 27. This Day got into this Port 4 Ships from Rotterdam, and 1 from Zierikzee in Ballast, bound for Burdeaux; and the Margella of Dublin with Wine from Oporto; Thomas Lee Master, bound for Cork.

From the 28. November 28 Yesterday was sent in here by the Newborough Gally, Peter Tuppey Comorant, a small French Vessel laden with Salt; she was taken out of a Fleet of about 200 Sail under 1 Comorant's Vessel, and 9 Guernsey Privateers fell in, by the Night's Shoot of 400 Tons with Salt was taken by this Privateer, and one of 200 Tons with Sugar; but how many more by the rest, it being Night, the Comorant give no Account.

Tories gain 12 seats in London area

CREECH JONES HAS A RECOUNT — HIS DEPUTY BEATEN

London Staff Reporters
Tory gain and one Socialist had been recorded by the General Election early this morning. The out-coming feature was the huge percentage of people voting, 85 per cent, going to the poll at 8.15 p.m. There was no change of 50 per cent, as it had been for the last election. Sixty-two Liberal Agents have been lost and 43 Conservative Agents.

The Liberal Secretary, Mr. Frank Jones, called for a recount at 10.45 p.m., when the first count was taken. Mr. Jones, who was defeated at WEST HAM, was re-elected at WEST HAM NORTH.

察世俗每月統記傳序

無中生有者乃神也。神乃一自然而然。當始神創造
天地人萬物。此乃根本之道理。神至大至尊。生養我
們世人。故此善人無非敬畏神。但世上論神多說錯
了。學者不可不察。因神在天上。而現著其象。所以用
一個天字。指着神。亦有之。既然萬處萬人皆由神而
原被造化。自然學者不可止察一地方之各物。準
