One,
two,
three ...

If not for you

A painting of a forest scene. In the foreground, a large orange bear stands on its hind legs, holding the tail of a small blue bird. The bear has a black nose and a small black eye. The bird is facing the bear. In the background, there are several tall, thin trees with green foliage. A small orange animal is visible in the distance, partially hidden by a tree. The overall style is painterly and whimsical.

Babe, I couldn't find the door
Couldn't even see the floor

I'd be sad and blue

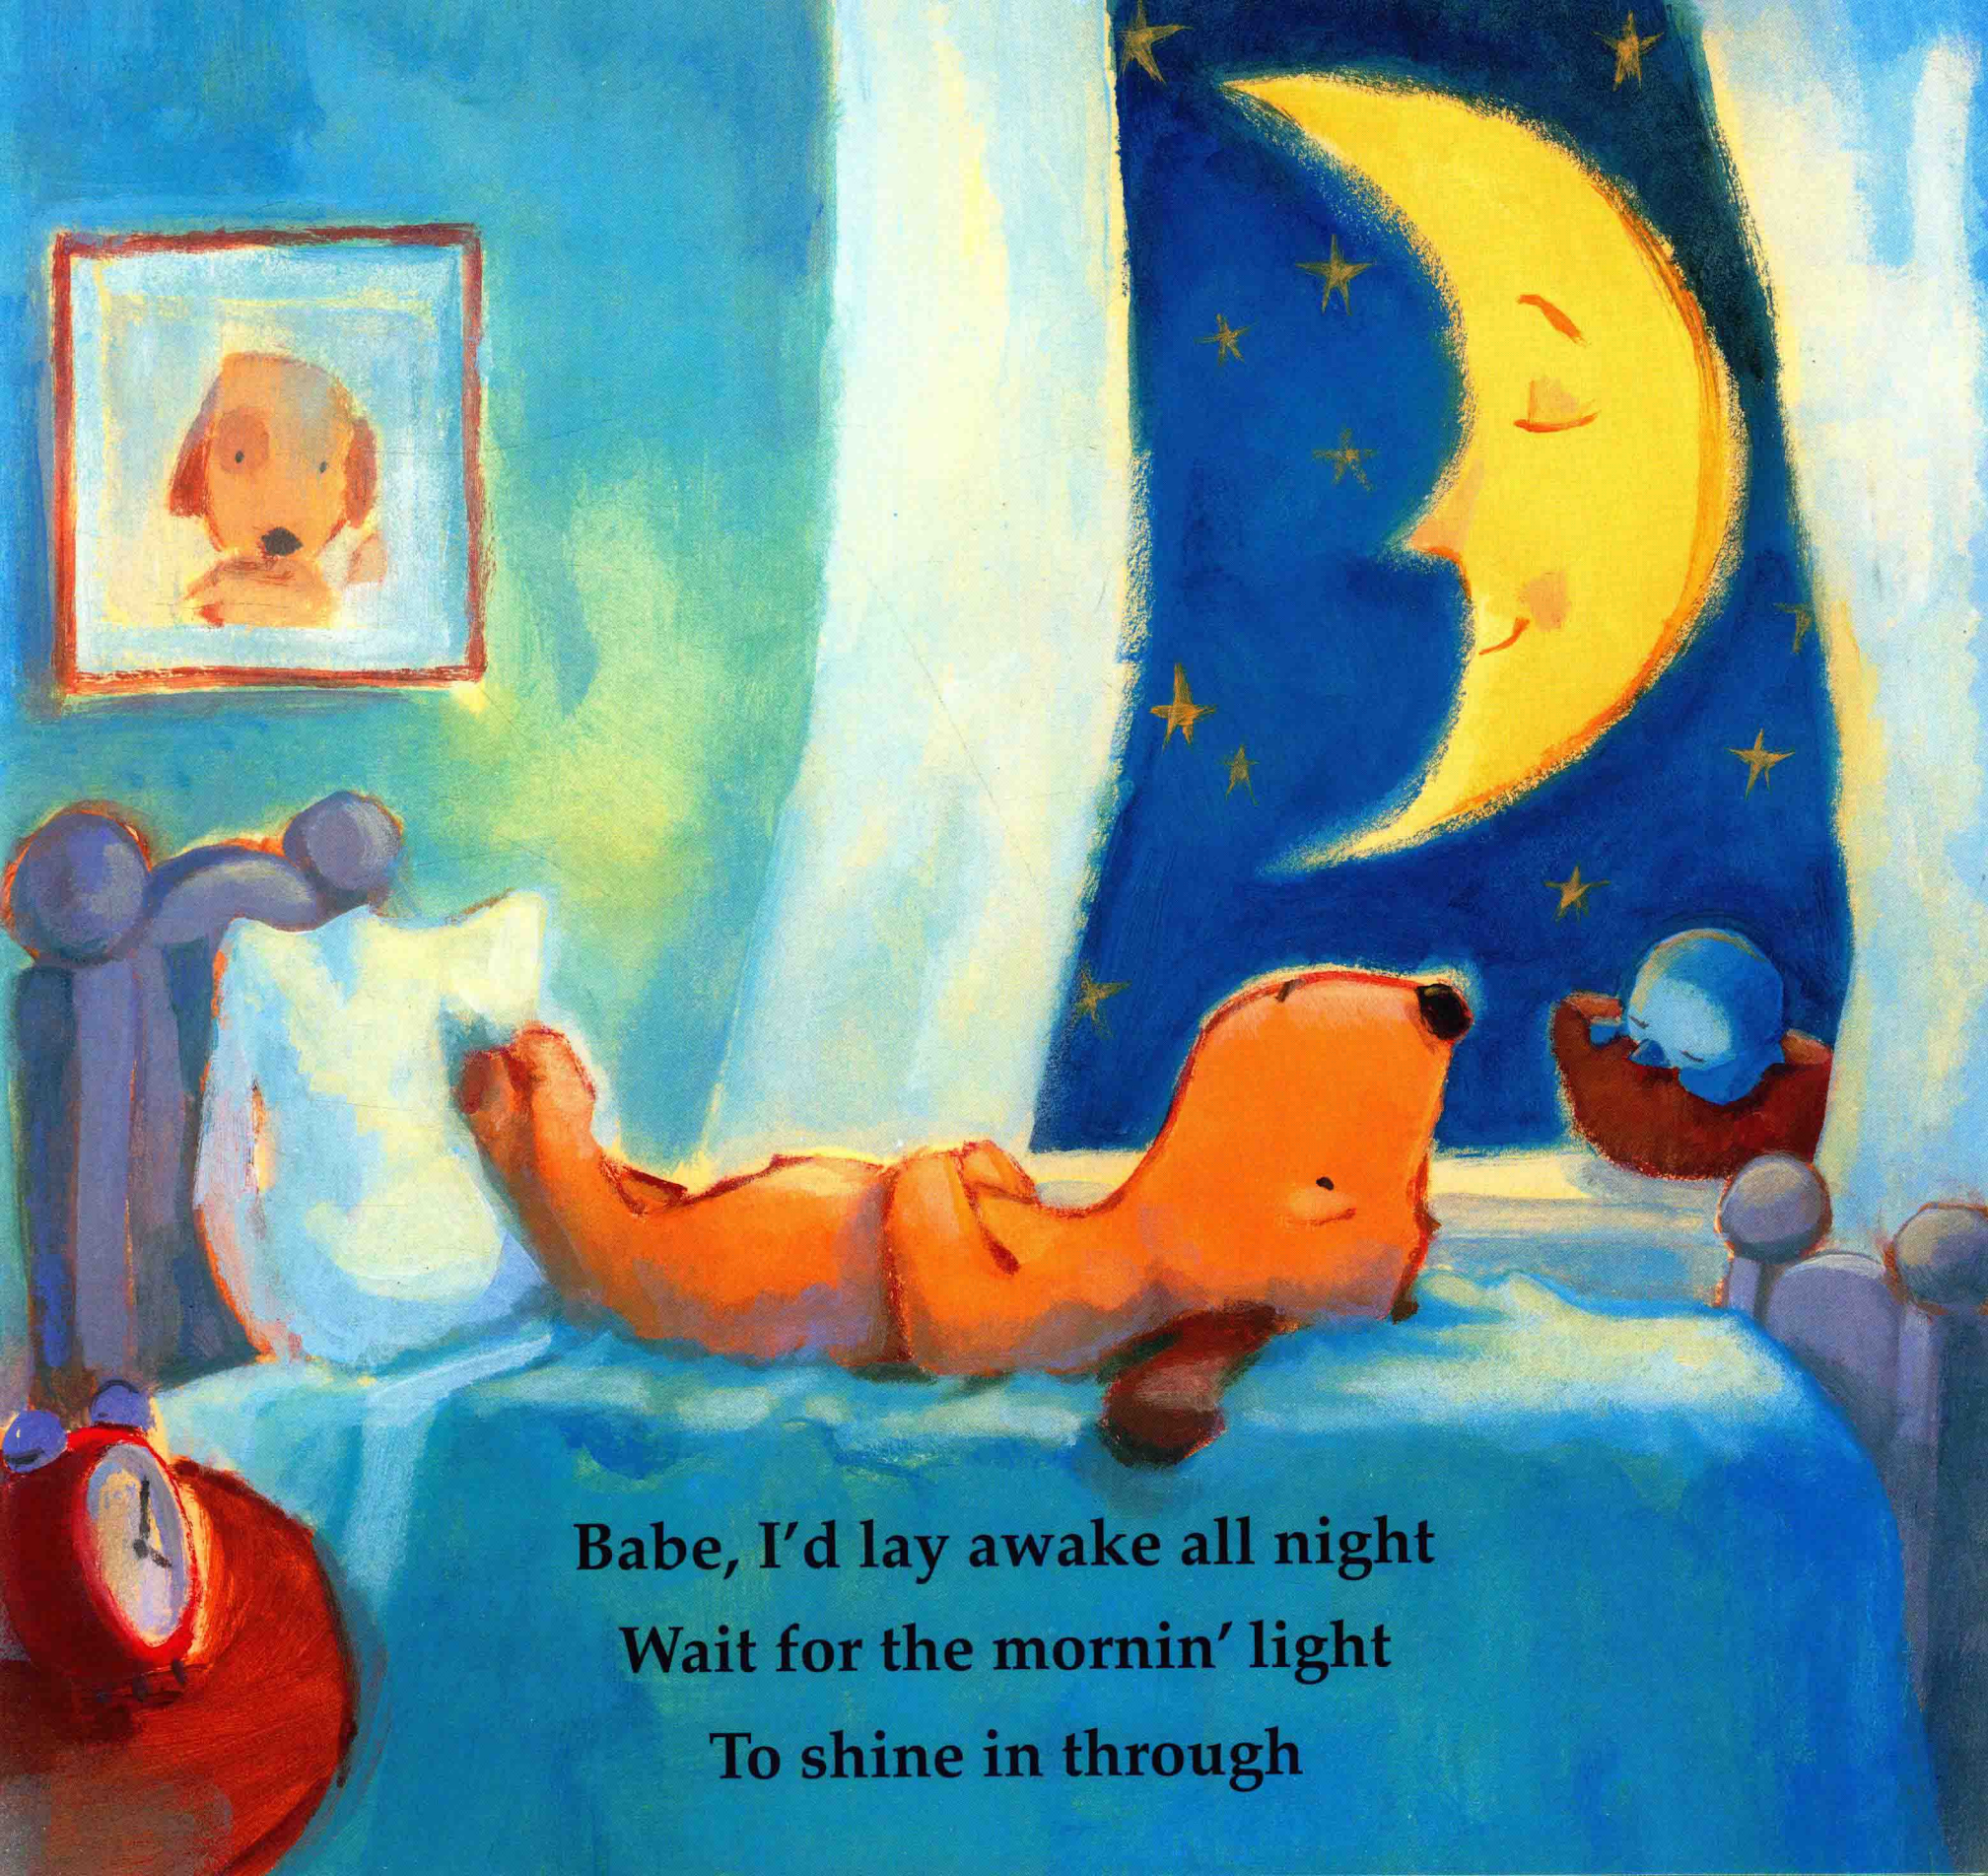

If not for you

If not for you

Babe, I'd lay awake all night
Wait for the mornin' light
To shine in through

But it would not be new

If not for you

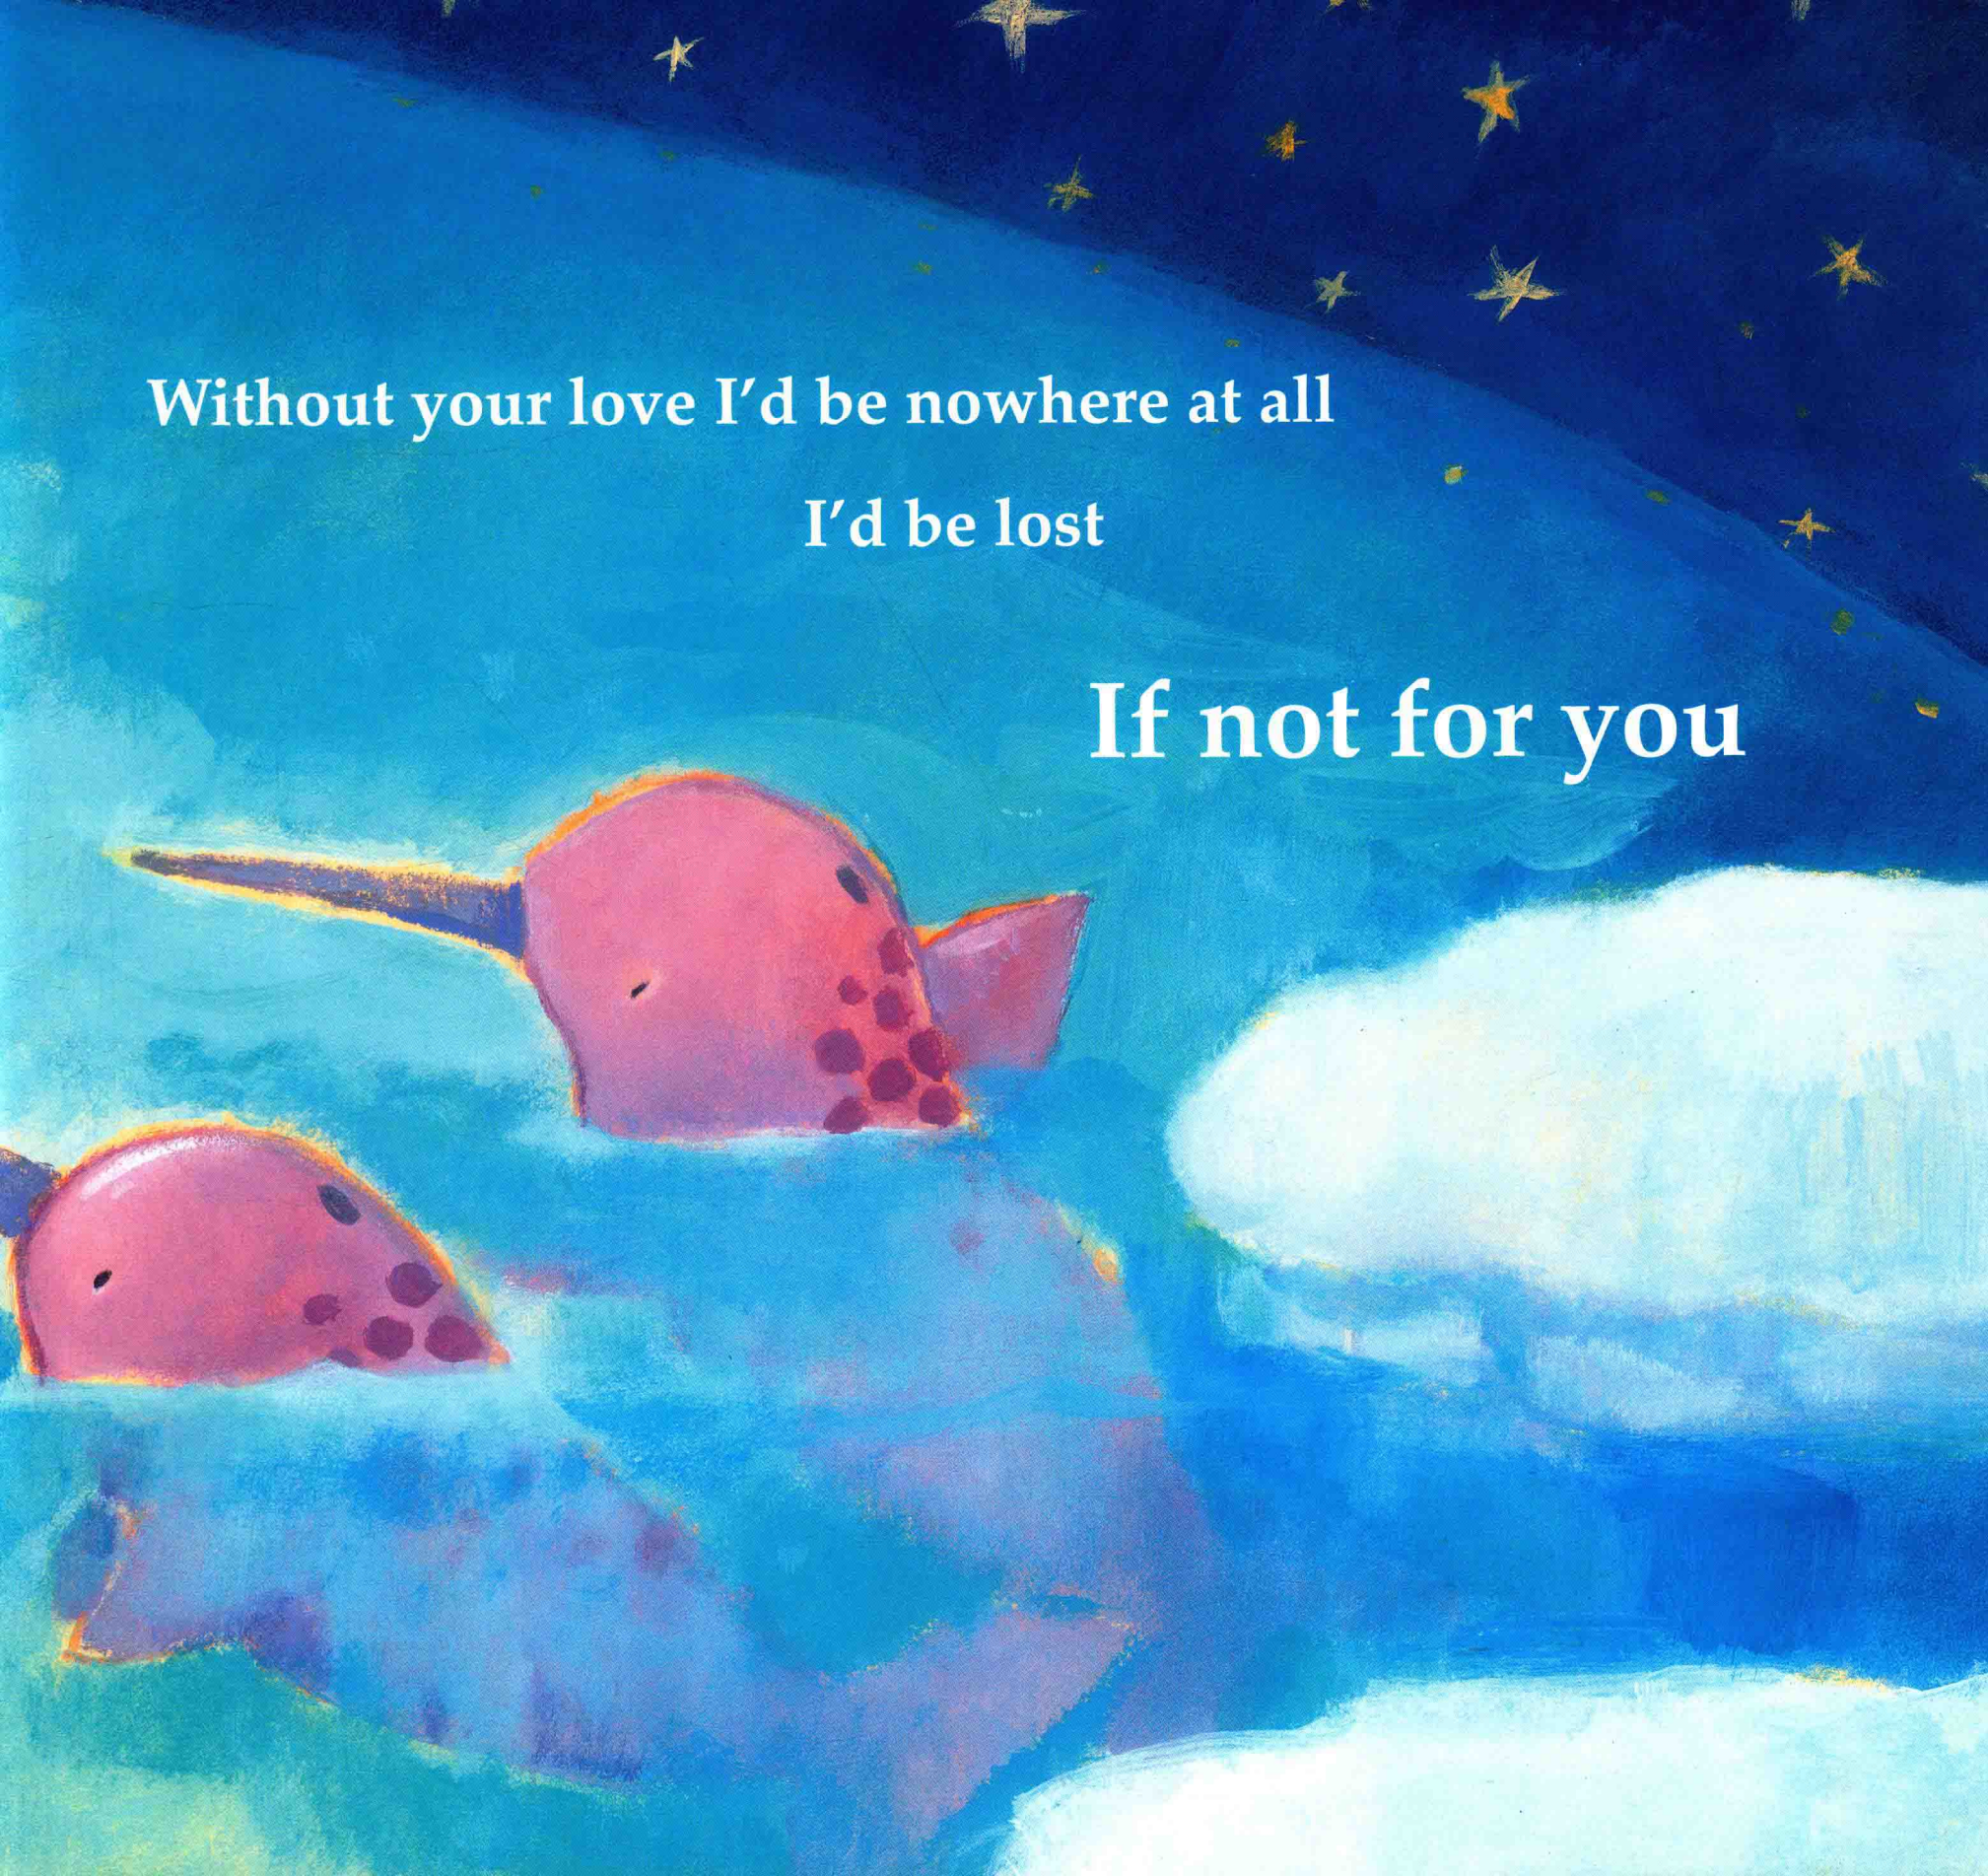

If not for you
My sky would fall
Rain would gather too

A painting of two pink whales in a blue ocean under a starry night sky. The whales are depicted in a stylized, almost folk-art manner, with dark spots on their sides. The ocean is a deep blue with white-capped waves. The sky is a dark blue with numerous yellow stars of varying sizes. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

Without your love I'd be nowhere at all

I'd be lost

If not for you

And you know it's true
