The Toytown Helicopter

Story by Jenny Giles

Illustrations by Richard Hoit

Here is the Toytown Garage.

An illustration of a garage during a heavy rainstorm. The sky is dark blue with white diagonal lines representing rain falling from the top-left to the bottom-right. The garage has a white gabled roof with a red border. The main body of the garage is white. On the left side, there are three light purple rectangular panels. A dark purple door is partially open on the right side of the garage. In the background, there is a green hill with a yellow base. The ground in the foreground is a speckled greyish-brown. The text 'Toytown Garage' is written in green on the white wall, and '玩具停车场' is written in black on the purple panels.
