Baby Bear's Hiding Place

Story by Beverley Randell
Illustrations by Isabel Lowe

One day, Father Bear said, “I’m going into the forest
to find some food.
You can come with me,
Baby Bear.”

“Oh, good,” said Baby Bear.
“I will get my basket.”

■ forest 森林

■ basket 篮子

■ berries 莓, 浆果

Baby Bear went into the forest with Father Bear.

“Look at all the red berries
in my basket!” said Baby Bear.

“You are a good little bear,”
said Father Bear.

Then Baby Bear

saw a big tree.

“I can climb this tree,”

he said, and up he went.

“I’m going to climb

all the way to the top,”

said Baby Bear.

■ climb 爬

But then Baby Bear
saw a big hole
in the tree.

“I can get inside this hole,” he said.

■ get inside 进入

■ hole 洞

Baby Bear went into the hole.
He looked down.

“I can see Father Bear,”
he said,
“but he can’t see me.
I can hide from him in here.”

■ hide 隱藏，隱蔽

Father Bear said,
“Come on, Baby Bear.
We are going home, now.
Where are you?”

■ lost 迷路

“I can see Baby Bear’s basket but I can’t see him,”
said Father Bear.
“Is he lost in the forest?”
