上帝創造萬物,萬物各具其靈,各秉其性,各生其生,各物其物。

人也、草也、木也、風也、雨也,無一不乘其自有之道而生化循環於天地之間。 唯人之慧深者,得悟天下萬物皆各有其性,各具其能。智不足者,則以己見而視天下,或發狂言,或出妄語,而曰:「我之能也,定可勝天」,是執物之理,而不明 其心智由何而來。在天地定數之中,又何能自離於天地之大生、大化、大限、大局 之範也。故天有不測之風雲,人有旦夕之禍福→一旦無常來到,悔之晚矣。

時至今日,科哲猛進,物能發達,雖皆因人靈之聰慧也,然聰慧之來,亦由無而有,由有而形,由形而證,以至於使物能發揮至極致。

唯今之世, 上帝恐人誤認追求物能爲生命之根本,而忘卻己身乃物之所成。聰 與慧亦出於身物之中,故有心反悟於己身者,當思我之智與慧、心與靈、記憶與理 解,又何能託於物身之外耶?

故 上帝感愛及於眾生,派諸教主抱大智慧,懷大博愛之心,降世倡教於各地, 各緣其緣,各渡其因。使眾生能於衣食住行中,體悟靈性之修養,使昧於物性者, 或有心醒之時。待百年定限之後,能同登天國。故有一九二〇年代道院之創,修以 殺己之靈,更創世界紅卍字會以施天下一胞之慈。

及至一九八〇年代, 上帝見眾生仍各是其是,各非其非,不得已乃准予降下千百年前古人之語音,由是,有緣者得以見其奧妙。不分國際,不分色種,語語皆合道義,句句不離勸化,期喚醒世人之迷心,以作自省之悟。尤以聖意之裁,必有可譯之途,方能以作解者,是謂「方言」「靈語」或「天語」,是去其以一己能言之語遂其私意之弊病也。尤有私心私語者,以已之能明而明人,以己之能解而解人,實乃先欺己而後欺人,更欺於天地萬古不移之大道也。待得百年,身腐靈失,方知天地之大,個體之小,而實無能挽者如是!

世人時有聰明反被聰明誤者,以自識自見,擅解我神靈之意,各是其是,各非其非,各行其行,甚或有不以爲然者視之。故 上帝再賜大恩,吾等神佛奉 上帝之命,以靈降世,籍文字書畫顯靈跡於字裡畫間,以期啓人之眞信仰,而漸入靈修之門,此又一普渡有緣之時機也。使眾生共生共榮,以期世界一家,互助互爱,則天國之象自現也。

本塘(社)乃奉

至聖之旨而立,由各弟子盡其心力以成,不以外形誇於世,惟各本其誠,以成其來世之願,不以已身之私而炫,不以已身之能而逞,乃抱一誠,修已之身,渡已之靈,作表率爲後世範,是不愧降世之恩澤也。今社已四十餘載,以精華含珍之幅,作聖意靈蹟之存,希能啓發後世之人,更深省自我靈性可也,是爲之序。

God created all things. Everything has its spirit, its nature, its life, its matter.

Man, grass, tree, wind, rain--everything lives, transforms, and circulates between heaven and earth according to the Way that naturally belongs to it. Only those among humans who possess profound wisdom are able to realize that everything under heaven possesses its own nature and its own function. Those of limited insight take themselves as the measure of the world, and boast that "their abilities surely can excel those of Heaven." This is the rationale of controlling material things, but these people know nothing of the provenance of true wisdom. Caught in the fixed order of Heaven and Earth, how can man remove himself from the confines of the universe's great motions of producing, transforming, limiting, and conditioning. Immeasurably, wind and clouds move in the sky, and human life is subject to the vicissitudes of good and bad fortune. Once impermanence (i.e. death) arrives, it is too late for remorse.

Nowadays, science and philosophy are making strong progress, humanity's material powers are developing more and more. These are all products of human intelligence--but where does this intelligence come from? Existence arose from non-existence, form arose from existence, realization arose from form, all this eventually making the manifestation of material powers to this utmost degree possible.

But God is afraid that nowadays humans suffer from the misunderstanding that pursuing material power is the purpose of life, forgetting that their own bodies are made up of matter. Since intelligence and insight also appear within the body, he who wants to understand his own self must consider that one cannot posit wisdom and insight, mind and spirit, memory and understanding outside of the material body.

Therefore God, in his compassionate love for all living beings, has sent the founders of the great religions down to earth, equipped with great wisdom and love, to introduce their teachings everywhere, each doctrine following its own affinities, each pursuing the course of its own causation. Their common aim is to make people in their humdrum everyday life realize spiritual cultivation, and to give to those blinded by their material nature a chance to let their mind awaken, so that after their maximum lifespan of one hundred years, they can together ascend to Heaven. Therefore the Tao-yüan was founded in the 1920s to save the believer's own soul by cultivation, and the Global Red Swastika Society to extend compassion to all humanity.

By the 1980s, God saw that living beings still persisted in their old ways, and so he had no choice but to allow the voices of ancient men of thousands and hundreds of years ago descend into the world, so that those who have the necessary affinity could see their marvelousness. These messages do not differentiate between nations or between races; word for word they are in accordance with the Way, sentence for sentence they admonish to moral transformation, hoping to awaken the confused minds of people in order to lead them to enlightenment by self-reflection. Divine messages must be able to be translated; only then can they be understood. The so-called "method language", "spiritual language", or "celestial language" ensures that nobody can use ordinary language to express his own private ideas and pass them off as coming from the gods. Those of selfish mind and selfish speech show to others what they themselves can understand, they explain to others what they themselves can comprehend. But truly, they are deceiving themselves and others, and, what is more, they are deceiving the immutable Great Way. When they die, their bodies rot and their spirits disperse; only then do they realize the greatness of Heaven and Earth and their own smallness--but then it is to late to change anything.

Among the people of the world, there are not a few who are led into misunderstanding by their own cleverness. They think they can comprehend my divine intentons by their own power and act according to their own judgement. Therefore God in his great mercy commanded me to descend into the world and by means of writing and painting to make spiritual reality visible so as to stimulate true belief in people and make them gradually enter the gate of spiritual cultivation. This also is an opportunity for all who have the affinity to be delivered from their suffering, allowing living beings to live and prosper together, letting us hope that the world will become one family, mutually supporting and loving. Then the image of Heaven will manifest itself in the world.

This altar (and society) has been founded by order of the Most Holy One, with the utmost effort of all disciples. The disciple does not try to impress the world with outer forms, but takes sincerity as his basis, so as to fulfill his vows for his next life. He does not show off his own selfish intentions and does not boast about his own abilities. He embraces complete sincerity, cultivates himself, delivers his own spirit and thus sets an example for posterity. This is being worthy of the mercy that was sent into the world by God. Today the Society counts already more than forty years of existence. By means of the best and most precious paintings, it preserves a record of sacred intentions and spiritual presence, hoping thus to arouse posterity and encourage them to reflect on their own spiritual nature ever more profoundly.
