Preface

Our goal in writing this book was to establish a new standard in the presentation of current and up-to-date concepts in strategic management. We believe that this goal has been realized and is fully evident in this 6th edition of our market-leading book. Written in a lively and user-friendly manner, this text presents a rich and comprehensive examination of strategic management concepts and tools. Following are some of the most important features of our book and this edition.

- This text offers the most comprehensive and thorough coverage of strategic management available in the market.
- The research presented in our text is the most up-to-date in the field and most current in practice compared to all other strategic management books.
 Although the text is grounded in the current research, it is also strongly application oriented with more examples and applications of strategic management concepts, techniques, and tools than any other competitor on the market.
- We integrate two of the most popular and well-known theoretical concepts in the field of strategic management, industrial organization economics through the writings of such authors as Michael Porter and the resource-based view of the firm from the work of such authors as Jay Barney. No other book integrates these two theoretical perspectives to explain the process of strategic management.
- We use the ideas of prominent scholars (e.g., Michael Porter, Richard Rumelt, Kathy Eisenhardt, Gary Hamel, C. K. Prahalad, David Teece, Oliver Williamson, Don Hambrick, Dan Schendel, Richard Bettis, Sumantra Ghoshal, Kathy Harrigan, Rosabeth Kanter, and Costas Markides as well as numerous others) and prominent executives and practitioners (e.g., Carly Fiorina, John Chambers, Andy Grove, Herb Kelleher, Steven Jobs, Meg Whitman, Jeffrey Immelt, and Anne Mulcahy as well as many others) to provide an effective understanding of the theoretical base of strategic management and its application in organizations.
- We (the authors of this book) are also highly active scholars in the conduct of strategic management research and the application of the concepts derived from that research. Thus, our own research is integrated in the appropriate chapters as well.
- In this edition, we offer examples of over 100 companies' actions in the chapters' Opening Cases and Strategic Focus segments. Furthermore, the application of strategic management concepts is shown in more than 600 different companies in the book's chapters. There is no strategic management book on the market that has both the up-to-date research and the application orientation shown by this number of company examples.

Some of the highlights of our new edition include:

- New Opening Cases and Strategic Focus Segments: We continue our tradition of providing new Opening Cases and Strategic Focus segments and many other new examples in each chapter to describe actions companies take within the context of a chapter's topic.
- An Exceptional Balance between current research and applications of it in actual organizations. The content has not only the best research documentation

- but also the largest amount of effective firm examples to help students understand the strategies discussed.
- Enhanced Experiential Exercises to support learners' efforts to understand the use of strategic management in organizations of all types.
- Lively, Concise Writing Style to hold readers' attention and to increase their interest in the subject matter.
- Continuing, Updated Coverage of vital strategic management topics such as competitive rivalry and dynamics, strategic alliances, mergers and acquisitions, international strategies, corporate governance and ethics, and strategic entrepreneurship.
- Full Four-Color Format to enhance readability by attracting and maintaining readers' interest.
- New Content in Chapter 12, Strategic Leadership: "Effectively Managing the Firm's Resource Portfolio"; "Developing Human Capital and Social Capital"; and "Emphasizing Ethical Practices." Also, expanded discussion of the Balanced Scorecard used by many corporations today.
- New Content in Chapter 13, Strategic Entrepreneurship: This chapter presents a discussion of social entrepreneurship that is unique to this edition and not found in any competitor. The discussion is fully developed within the text and also features a Strategic Focus segment on this increasingly important and timely topic.

Supplements

Instructors

IRCD (0-324-20387-X)

Key ancillaries [Instructor's Case Notes, Instructor's Resource Manual, Test Bank, ExamViewTM, PowerPoint®, Case Analysis Spreadsheets, and CNN Video Guide (integrates cases and videos)] are provided on CD-ROM, giving instructors the ultimate tool for customizing lectures and presentations.

INSTRUCTOR'S RESOURCE MANUAL WITH VIDEO GUIDE AND TRANSPARENCY MASTERS (0-324-20382-9)

Prepared by Leslie E. Palich, Baylor University. The Instructor's Resource Manual, organized around each chapter's knowledge objectives, includes ideas about how to approach each chapter and how to reinforce essential principles with extra examples. The support product includes lecture outlines, detailed answers to end-of-chapter review questions, instructions for using each chapter's experiential exercises, guides to all available videos, and additional assignments.

TEST BANK (0-324-20383-7)

Prepared by Janelle Dozier. Thoroughly revised and enhanced, Test Bank questions are linked to each chapter's knowledge objectives and are ranked by difficulty and question type. We have increased the number of application questions throughout, and we have also retained scenario-based questions as a means of adding in-depth problem-solving questions to exams (these were new to the last edition). The Test Bank material is also available in computerized ExamViewTM format for creating custom tests in both Windows and Macintosh formats.

EXAMVIEWTM (0-324-23621-2)

Computerized testing software contains all of the questions in the printed Test Bank. This program is an easy-to-use test creation software compatible with Microsoft

Windows. Instructors can add or edit questions, instructions, and answers, and select questions by previewing them on the screen, selecting them randomly, or selecting them by number. Instructors can also create and administer quizzes online, whether over the Internet, a local area network (LAN), or a wide area network (WAN).

TRANSPARENCY ACETATES (0-324-20384-5)

Key figures from the main text have been re-created as colorful and attractive over-head transparencies for classroom use.

POWERPOINT® DISCUSSION SLIDES (0-324-20386-1) POWERPOINT® LECTURE SLIDES (0-324-20385-3)

Prepared by Dennis Middlemist, Colorado State University. An all-new PowerPoint® presentation, created for this edition, provides configurations both for lecture-based teaching formats and for discussion-based teaching formats. Slides can also be used by students as an aid to note-taking

Students and Instructors

WEBTUTOR™ TOOLBOX (0-324-23172-5—WEBCT; 0-324-23171-7—BLACKBOARD)

WebTutor[™] ToolBox provides instructors with links to content from our book companion websites. WebTutor[™] ToolBox also provides rich communication tools to instructors and students including a course calendar, chat, and e-mail.

WEBSITE

This edition's website offers students and instructors access to a wealth of helpful support and learning materials. Included are Instructor Resources, Student Resources, Interactive Study Center, Interactive Quizzes, links to Strategy Suite, e-Coursepacks, and Careers in Management. You will find continually updated case information, a section on how to write a case analysis along with the case analyses for this edition's applicable cases, and a new feature—interactive spreadsheets that help students understand the importance of case analyses and how to perform them. We have provided an Internet index with important strategy URLs and PowerPoint® slide presentations. We have also included additional experiential exercises, Strategic Focus applications, Ethics questions, Internet exercises, and Global Resources. Finally, for quickly finding new terms, we offer an online glossary. The Strategic Management website provides information about the authors and allows you to contact the authors and the publisher.

CNN VIDEO (0-324-20389-6)

"Management and Strategy" is a 45-minute video of short news clips from CNN, capitalizing on the resources of the world's first 24-hour all-news network. The 6th edition features videos that are closely linked with current case and text content for a truly integrative approach, assuring particular relevance to students of strategic management and a fresh perspective on text content. A resource guide accompanies the video, and further support is offered in the Instructor's Resource Manual.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND STRATEGY VIDEO (0-324-26131-4)

This is a 45-minute video based on the remarkable resources of Small Business School, the series on PBS stations, Worldnet, and the Web. The video features seven firms that capitalized on their beginnings and used strategic management to grow market share and create competitive advantage. A resource guide within the Instructor's Resource Manual describes each segment and provides discussion questions.

CORPORATE STRATEGY VIDEO (0-324-20390-X)

This is a 45-minute video featuring corporate strategy situations for classroom viewing. Corporate strategy and strategic planning perspectives are analyzed at an up-and-coming company, Caribou Coffee; strategy and leadership are examined at CVS; and organizational structure is studied through Student Advantage. A resource guide within the Instructor's Resource Manual describes each segment and provides discussion questions.

E-COURSEPACK

Current, interesting, and relevant articles are available to supplement each chapter of Strategic Management in an e-Coursepack—the result of a joint effort between the Gale Group, a world leader in e-information publishing for libraries, schools, and businesses, and South-Western. Full-length articles to complement Strategic Management are available 24 hours a day over the Web, from sources such as Fortune, Across the Board, Management Today, and the Sloan Management Review. Students can also access up-to-date information on key individuals, companies, and text-book cases through predefined searches of Gale databases.
