Subject Guide to FORTHCOMING BOOKS

SUBJECT HEADINGS

As of July 1976, titles in SUBJECT GUIDE TO FORTHCOMING BOOKS are listed under Library of Congress Subject Headings. Headings and cross-references are updated to conform with the latest supplement to the Ninth edition of Library of Congress Subject Headings, although many sub-headings are consolidated where they seem too cumbersome for the needs of this SUBJECT GUIDE, and a few were changed when the needs of this book seem to diverge from LC practice.

Wherever official LC classification was unavailable, provisional classifications were assigned. As LC information for these books becomes available, the provisional classification will be verified or changed in future editions of the SUBJECT GUIDE.

Where the Library of Congress does not assign subject headings to cataloged books, they are usually omitted from this SUBJECT GUIDE. For example, general adult fiction is omitted except where a work's background (biographical, historical, etc.) seemed extensive and authentic enough to warrant mention. There are, however, four major groups of books which are not classified by the Library of Congress which have been classified for the benefit of SUBJECT GUIDE TO FORTHCOMING BOOKS users. Classical fiction titles by one author are included in SUBJECT GUIDE TO FORTHCOMING BOOKS under the non-LC heading LITERATURE (FICTIONAL WORKS BY ONE AUTHOR) or under geographical headings such as AMERICAN LITERATURE (FICTIONAL WORKS BY ONE AUTHOR). Similarly, dramatic works by one author are included under the non-LC heading DRAMA (DRAMATIC WORKS BY ONE AUTHOR) or under geographical headings such as NEAR AND FAR EASTERN DRAMA (DRAMATIC WORKS BY ONE AUTHOR). Poetry by one author is included under the non-LC heading POETRY (POETIC WORKS BY ONE AUTHOR). Finally, juvenile fiction is included under the non-LC heading CHILDREN'S FICTION. These subject headings are interfiled alphabetically within the Library of Congress subject headings, but are indicated as non-LC subject headings. Collections and criticism of fiction, drama, and poetry are classified by the Library of Congress and are, of course, included in SUBJECT GUIDE TO FORTHCOMING BOOKS. In some cases juvenile non-fiction titles have been set apart under a heading such as AERONAUTICS—JUVENILE LITERATURE. In other cases, juvenile titles are listed with adult books and identified by grade range.

Juvenile fiction and non-fiction are also listed in a separate "Juvenile Books" section following the subject listings.

SUBJECT GUIDE TO FORTHCOMING BOOKS' first principle is to list books where the user will be most likely to look for them, with as many references as seem necessary.

Headings are explicit rather than general. Thus books on cost accounting are under COST ACCOUNTING, not ACCOUNTING. Books on actors are under ACTORS AND ACTRESSES, not under THEATER. Similarly, look first under PLASTICS rather than CHEMISTRY, or under ACRYLATES rather than PLASTICS for books on those specific subjects. Also, search past the main heading to the various sub-headings. For example:

- PAINTING
- PAINTING—DICTIONARIES
- PAINTING—EARLY WORKS TO 1800
- PAINTING—HISTORY
- PAINTING—STUDY AND TEACHING
- PAINTING, AMERICAN
- PAINTING, INDUSTRIAL
- PAINTINGS

ARRANGEMENT OF HEADINGS

The headings in SUBJECT GUIDE TO FORTHCOMING BOOKS are arranged alphabetically using as a guideline the ALA Rules for Filing Catalog Cards prepared by the ALA Editorial Committee's Subcommittee on the ALA Rules for Filing Catalog Cards. For example:

- ACCOUNTING
- ACETYLENE
- ACTING
- ACTINOMYCETES
- ADAMS, HENRY, 1836-1918
- ADHESIVES

Many of the main headings are broken down into subdivisions. These subdivisions are interfiled alphabetically after the main heading. For example:

ACCOUNTING
ACCOUNTING—DICTIONARIES
ACCOUNTING—EXAMINATIONS, QUESTIONS, ETC.
ACCOUNTING—LAW
ACCOUNTING—PROBLEMS, EXERCISES, ETC.

Geographical subdivisions follow all of the form subdivisions. For example:

ARCHITECTURE
ARCHITECTURE—VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE
ARCHITECTURE—AFRICA

Headings with a comma follow subdivisions set off by a dash. For example:

ART
ART—HISTORY
ART, AMERICAN
ART OBJECTS
ART OBJECTS—COLLECTORS AND COLLECTING

There are also many cross-references which are alphabetically interfiled with the main headings. For example:

ACCOUNTING
see also Auditing; Bookkeeping; Business
Losses; Business Mathematics; Cost Accounting; Depreciation; Financial Statements; Income Accounting;
Inventories; Liquidation; Machine
Accounting; Productivity Accounting; Tax
Accounting.
ACCOUNTING—FORMS, BLANKS, ETC.
see Business-Forms, Blanks, Etc.
ACCOUNTING—HISTORY ACCOUNTS, COLLECTING OF
see Collecting of Accounts

ARRANGEMENT OF BIBLIOGRAPHIC ENTRIES

Entries are listed by author. Each entry is filed alphabetically by word, with the following exceptions:

M', Mc, and Mac are filed as if they were written Mac and are interfiled with other names beginning with Mac. For example: Macan, McAnally, Macardle, McAree, McArthur, Macartney, M'Aulay. Within a specific name group Mc, Mac, and M' are interfiled according to the given name of the author. For example: Macdonald, Agnes; MacDonald, Alexander; McDonald, Annie L.; MacDonald, Austin F.; MacDonald, Betty.

If no author is given, the bibliographic entry is interfiled by title. Numerals, including year dates, are written out and filed alphabetically. For example:

Seven Years in Tibet.
Sevenson, Eric. The Way To Win.
Seventeen.
Seventeen-Fifteen to the Present.

Initial letters (whether authors' given names, or titles) are filed before words or names beginning with that letter. For example: Smith, H. C. comes before Smith, Harold A.; B. F. Skinner: The Man and His Ideas comes before Baal.

INFORMATION INCLUDED IN ENTRIES

Entries include the following bibliographic information, when available: author, co-author, editor, co-editor, translator, co-translator, title, sub-title, number of volumes, edition, LC number, series information, language if other than English, illustration information, grade range, month and year of publication, type of binding if other than cloth over boards, price, ISBN, publisher's order number, imprint, and publisher. (Information on the ISBN Numbering System developing in the U.S. and other English-speaking countries is available from R. R. Bowker Co.) All prices and publication dates are tentative and subject to change.

PUBLISHER NAMES

In each bibliographic entry a publisher symbol is used in lieu of the publisher's full name. A key to these symbols follows the juvenile listings.

Here is an example of an entry in the list of abbreviated publishers' names. Above the full name of any publisher represented in SUBJECT GUIDE TO FORTHCOMING BOOKS, the name or abbreviation for that publisher is given as it is used in SUBJECT GUIDE TO FORTHCOMING BOOKS entries.

ALA

American Library Assn.

50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611
(0-8389)

▲ THIS IS THE PUBLISHER'S
INTERNATIONAL STANDARD
BOOK NUMBER PREFIX

Where a book is published by one firm, and distributed by another, an effort has been made to show both firms within the bibliographic entries themselves. For example, an entry for a book published by Melbourne Univ. Pr. but distributed by Intl Schol Bk Services, Inc. will convey this information in the form "Pub by Melbourne U Pr" after the price with "Intl Schol Bk Serv" at the end of the entry.
