ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Grateful acknowledgment is due many teachers, parents, and other friends who have made helpful suggestions for a list of songs which every child should know. In addition to these essential old favorites, carefully selected new songs about children's activities and interests are included through the cooperation of poets, composers, and publishers.

In particular, acknowledgment is due:

Mr. Henry Ford for the privilege of using source materials in illustrating "Mary Had a Little Lamb," a true story which occurred at the little red schoolhouse now on his property at the Wayside Inn, Sudbury, Massachusetts.

Harper & Brothers for permission to use the poem, "Familiar Friends" from I Spend the Summer by James S. Tippet.

Alfred A. Knopf, Inc. for the poem, "Grace for a Child," by Agnes Louise Dean reprinted from Let Us Be Merry, copyright, 1941, by permission of and special arrangement with the publisher and author.

Mary Had a Little Lamb

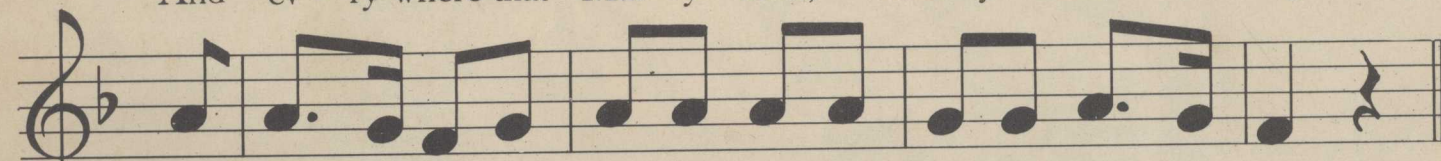

1. Mar - y had a lit - tle lamb, lit - tle lamb, lit - tle lamb,

Mar - y had a lit - tle lamb, Its fleece was white as snow.

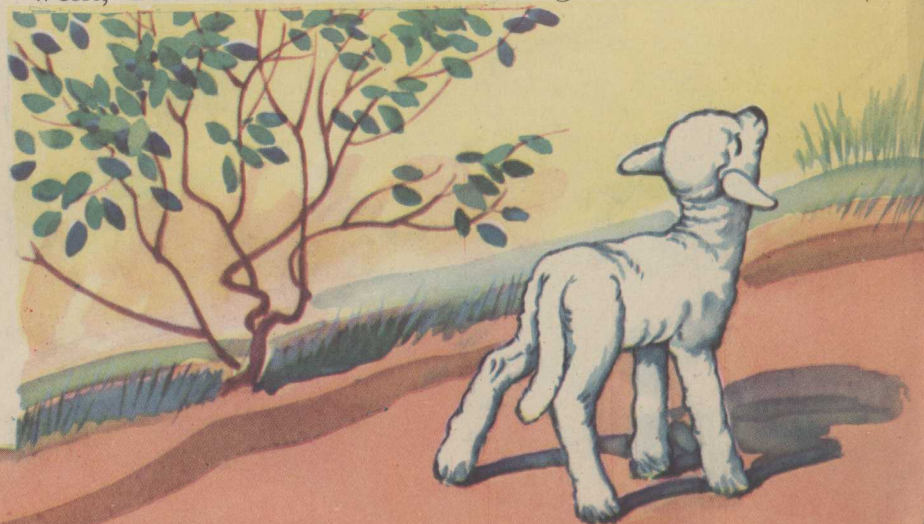

And ev - 'ry-where that Mar - y went, Mar - y went, Mar - y went,

And ev - 'ry-where that Mar - y went, The lamb was sure to go.

2. He followed her to school one day,
That was against the rule;
It made the children laugh and play,
To see a lamb at school.

3. And so the teacher turned him out,
But still he lingered near,
And waited patiently about,
Till Mary did appear.

4, "What makes the lamb love Mary so?"
The eager children cry;
"Oh, Mary loves the lamb, you know,"
The teacher did reply.

Away in a Manger

1. A - way in a man - ger, no crib for a bed,
 The lit - tle Lord Je - sus laid down His sweet head;
 The stars in the sky — looked down where He lay,
 The lit - tle Lord Je - sus, a - sleep in the hay.

2. The cattle are lowing, the poor Baby wakes,
 But little Lord Jesus no crying He makes;
 I love Thee, Lord Jesus, look down from the sky,
 And stay by my cradle till morning is nigh.
