THE STORY OF A PIONEER

REVEREND ANNA HOWARD SHAW IN HER PULPIT ROBES

TO
THE WOMEN PIONEERS
OF AMERICA

*They cut a path through tangled underwood
Of old traditions, out to broader ways.
They lived to hear their work called brave and good,
But oh! the thorns before the crown of bays.
The world gives lashes to its Pioneers
Until the goal is reached—then deafening cheers.*

Adapted by ANNA HOWARD SHAW.

LOCH-AN-EILAN CASTLE

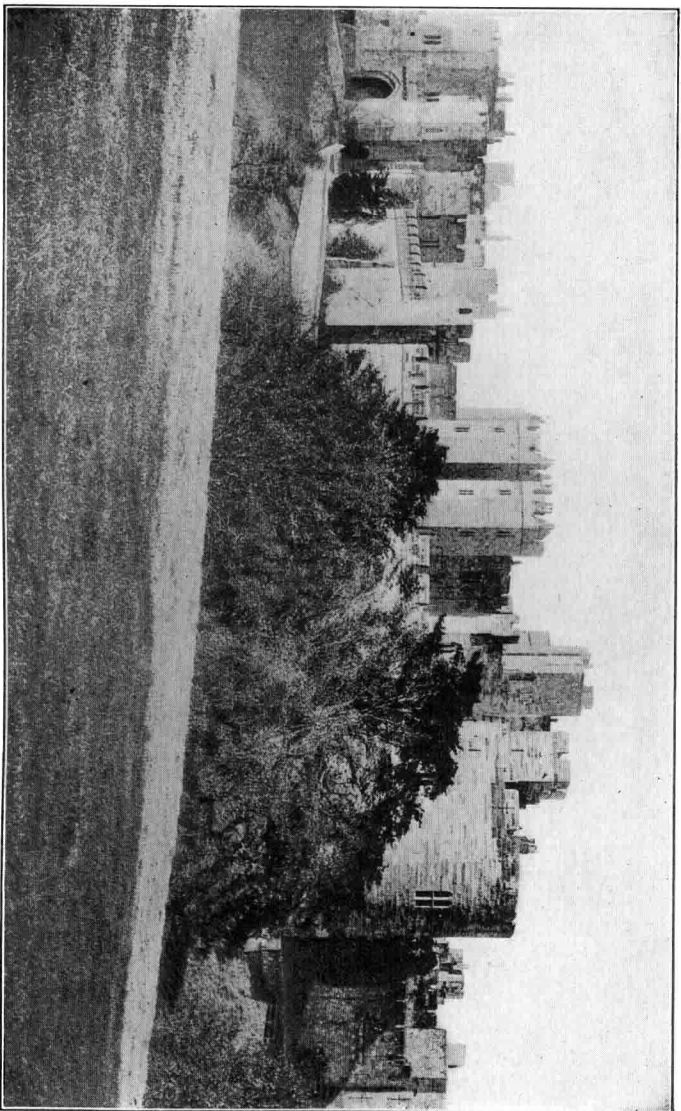

The ancient stronghold of the Shaws of Rothiemurchus.

Loch-an-Eilan sad and lone,
Long has thy day of pride been gone;
Rothiemurchus knows no more
The race that dwelt upon thy shore;
Scattered now in every clime
Waiting the appointed time,
When they shall return to thee—
“FIDE ET FORTITUDINE.”

Yes, Loch-an-Eilan, to thy shore
Shall the Shaws draw nigh once more,
And with a joy-inspiring strain
Behold the Shaws arise again.
