前 言

运用现代语言学的理论和方法从事海外汉语教学,是赵元任先生在哈佛大学开始的。据《赵元任年谱》所载,赵先生曾先后两次执教哈佛。1942年,他在哈佛暑期学校开设中文课程,同时主持 ASTP(Army Special Training Program)项目,并兼任哈佛中文教学部的主任。从那时起,哈佛大学的中文教学便开始了她现代化的历程。正如 Timothy Light 教授(1982)所说: "Let us not forget that Y. R. Chao was the pioneer in what is now the accepted mode of teaching Chinese."(我们绝不能忘记:赵元任是我们今天教学模式的创始人。)这里追述历史的目的不仅因为今天北美的中文教学仍得益于赵氏奠定的模式,同时也想说明哈佛中文教学所坚持的两大传统的历史来源:教材用"地道的口语"说话、上课用"直接的方法"操练。

半个多世纪以来,语言学及第二外语教学的理论经历了乔姆斯基革命的疾风暴雨。然而,令人欣喜的是,赵氏创立的教学模式不仅没有落伍,反而益发显示出强大的生命力。因此,为了继承和发展赵元任先生的理论和方法,我们哈佛中文部的教师共同编写了这套一至五年级的中文教程。一方面认真实践赵先生"说地道的口语"的原则,另一方面努力开辟一条"写典雅的文章"的新路。粗而言之:一、二年级的汉语习得以"地道的口语"的教学为基础,适当地引入正式典雅的语体;三、四年级在巩固基础口语的同时,逐渐将重点转移到"典雅的文章"(包括正式口语)的训练;五年级则专注于典雅的写作和正式口语的训练。就教材而言,一年级的《初来乍到》和二年级的《入乡随俗》以"地道的口语"为主;四年级的《说古道今》和五年级的《文以载道》突出"典雅的文章";而三年级的《知人论世》则为承前启后的过渡(从"地道的口语"逐步过渡到书面的正式语体)。根据这一体系的构想和要求,以教授口语为主的《初来乍到》和《入乡随俗》中的课文,均由教师自己编写;过渡性的《知人论世》既有著名作家的原文,也有教师自编和改写的文章;重点为书面语的《说古道今》和《文以载道》中的文章,几乎全部选自书刊杂志中的原文。

我们认为,海外汉语的教学当以教授和习得"语言(普通话)"为根本宗旨。因此,尽管我们力图使所写和所选的课文生动有趣并能反映传统文化和当代问题,我们更希望达到的目标是在语言的教学和习得上有所突破。本着这样的一种考虑,一年级的教材努力做到合理分布词语的音、形、义以及语法和语用的难易等级;二年级的教材努力达到语法、词汇及语用上的"自然口语性"和交际上的"话语适用性";三年级的教材力求从口语向书面语逐步过渡(词汇用三角标口语、五星标书面语);四年级的教材承接三年级进而加强书面语感的培养,训练正式与非正式语体的辨别能力;五年级的教材则以书面用语为中心(如"韵律词、嵌偶词、常用古句型"等),通过"文白兼容法"和"文章典雅度"的

训练,来培养学生正式语体的写作能力。总之,我们努力使这部教程具有系统性、科学性和实用性。

这套教程是集体创作的成果。参加编写的教师不仅各司其职,而且各尽其责。作为主编,我首先要感谢哈佛中文部各位教师的积极参与以及他们的敬业精神。没有教师们的热情和奉献,我们不可能在这么短的时间内顺利完成这项工作。我要特别感谢哈佛东亚系的前系主任 Philip Kuhn 教授和现系主任 Michael Puett 教授,没有他们的鼎力支持,就不会有哈佛中文部今天的发展,就不会有哈佛北京书院,也就不会有这套教材的计划、编写和现在的成果。

这里我们还要感谢 Language Consortium 所给予的经费资助 (五年级教材),使我们有可能得到哈佛的教师、研究生和本科生的帮助。特别感谢万敏教师,她为《文以载道》的前期工程做了大量的工作。此外,还有煌海、章琛、李铭佩、Alexander,Ilona Szonja Budapesti 等同学,他们都在百忙中抽出时间,帮我们做了很多繁琐细致的资料校对的工作。我还要代表我们编写组的教师感谢 Keith McMahon 教授,他不惜牺牲自己的宝贵时间和我们讨论教材的问题,并亲自校改《文以载道》每篇课文的英文提要。在教材的试用过程中,参与各年级教学工作的许多教师(特别是在哈佛北京书院任教的许多年轻教师和研究生)以及使用教材的许多同学,都对教材提出了宝贵的修改意见和建议。对此,我深表感谢。

这里还要特別感谢的是杜维明教授和王德威教授的热心支持,使我们有幸得到燕京学社和 CCK 基金的资助,在教材出版之前,召开了一个小型专家座谈会(2006 年春),专门就五年级的《文以载道》和配套使用的《汉语书面用语初编》进行研讨和修正。我们感谢与会专家:林培瑞、顾百里、普佳明、陆俭明、王宁、崔希亮、王洪君、宋柔、沈阳、王云路等教授,他们每一位都给我们的教材提出了中肯的批评和宝贵的建议。尽管现在的成果离他们的要求还有相当的差距,但是没有他们的帮助,我们连今天的水平也难以达到。

最后,让我代表教材编写组的全体教师向北京高等教育出版社的刘援副社长、徐群森分社长,还有王丽编辑表示我们诚挚的谢意。他们不仅慷慨承出这部教材,而且态度认真、工作负责,为这部教程的版面设计、资料查对、内容校勘等一系列出版工作投入了大量的人力和物力。

毋庸讳言,编写一部系列性的教材,对我们来说还是首次尝试。我们虽然力图走出一条 新路,但由于时间、经验和水平的限制,其中必然有很多不妥、不当和有待修正改善之处。 我们真诚地希望使用这套教材的教师和同学,不断给我们提出批评建议,使之日臻完善。

Preface

The application of modern linguistic theory and methods to Chinese language education overseas began with Professor Yuen Ren Chao at Harvard University. As recorded in The Chronicle of Yuen Ren Chao, Professor Chao taught at Harvard on two consecutive occasions. In 1942 he offered a Chinese course for Harvard's summer school. Later he concurrently presided over the ASTP (Army Special Training Program), while serving as the director of Harvard's Chinese Language Program. At that time, Harvard's Chinese language pedagogy initiated a new era of modernization. As Professor Timothy Light (1982) remarked, "Let us not forget that Y. R. Chao was the pioneer in what is now the accepted mode of teaching Chinese".

The purpose of this foray into the past is not solely because of the pride that contemporary North American Chinese language educators have retained for the method established by Professor Chao. It likewise explains the historical origin of two fundamental traditions that Harvard's Chinese language teaching has upheld: that teaching materials employ "authentic spoken Chinese" and that teaching pedagogy engages in a "direct drilling method".

For more than half a century, theories of linguistics and second-language acquisition have undergone the stormy upheaval of the Chomskien revolution. Yet, people may be glad to know that not only has Professor Chao's pedagogical method not fallen out of date, but it has instead exhibited powerful resilience. Because of this, teachers in Harvard's Chinese Language Program have composed and compiled this Chinese language curriculum for first-through fifth-year courses that inherits the methodology of Professor Chao, and developes it further. On the one hand we have tried earnestly to put Chao's principle of "speaking authentic spoken Chinese" into practice, while on the other hand, diligently ushering in new avenues for "writing elegant written Chinese". Put bluntly, the first and second year Chinese classes are based upon the teaching of "authentic spoken language", introducing a formal, refined style when appropriate. The third and fourth year curriculum is geared towards consolidating basic spoken language and training in the gradual transition to "formal written language" (including formal speech). The fifth year is devoted to training in formal written and formal spoken Chinese.

As for the teaching materials, first year's New Arrivals and the second year's When in China prioritize "authentic spoken Chinese", while the fourth year's On the Present and Past and the fifth year's Writing and Truth features "formal written Chinese". The third year's Understanding the People and the World is a transitional piece linking lessons learned in the former texts with a new trajectory for future study (i.e. authentic spoken language gradually transitioning to formal written styles). Based on the fundamental concepts and requirements of this system, textbooks that prioritize instruction in spoken language like New Arrivals and When in China, are composed and compiled by the teachers themselves. The transitional text, Understanding the People and the World, contains both original works from well-known authors as well as essays adapted by our teachers. Almost all of the essays in the fourth and fifth year textbooks are original works from selected texts and periodicals.

We believe that the education in Chinese overseas should take the instruction and acquisition of the language itself (Mandarin) as its primary objective. Hence, even while we attempt to ensure that all written and selected essays in our lessons are lively and interesting, and they reflect traditional culture and the questions of today, the target we most wish to attain is something of a breakthrough in language instruction and acquisition. Based on this consideration, the first year teaching materials aspire to inculcate logical partitioning of sounds, form and meaning, as well as the classification in the degree of difficulty for grammar and usage. The second year teaching materials strive to effectuate "natural spoken language" in grammar, vocabulary and word use, in addition to "speech proficiency" for communication. The third year teaching materials attempt the gradual transition from spoken language to written language (using the Empty Triangle to mark informal style and the Black Star for formal styles). The fourth year's teaching materials continue from the third year, strengthening the development of students' intuition for written Chinese and training them in their capacity to distinguish between formal and informal styles. The fifth year teaching materials center upon written language (such as disyllabic (or prosodic) words, monosyllabic words used within a disyllabic template, commonly used classical patterns, etc.). We hope to nurture students' ability to write in a formal style by training them in the "methods of spoken/written alterations" and in the "degrees of formality in writing", which are the first steps toward written proficiency for future endeavors. In conclusion, we have sedulously worked to ensure a systematic, scientific and practical curriculum.

This set of textbooks is a product of collective creativity. Teachers involved in this composition are not only dedicated to their work, but also have fulfilled much broader duties. As editor in chief, I would first like to thank all the teachers in Harvard's Chinese Language Program for their positive involvement and professional commitment. Without their enthusiasm and dedication, it would not have been possible to successfully conclude this task in such a short time. I would like to especially thank the former chair of the Harvard Department of East Asian Languages and Civilizations, Professor Philip Kuhn, as well as its current chair, Professor Michael Puett. Without their full support, present developments in Harvard's Chinese Language Program would not have been possible. Without them, there would be no Harvard Beijing Academy, nor would we be enjoying the accomplishment underlying this set of text-books, from its planning and composition, to the present day.

At this point, we would also like to thank the Language Consortium for their financial support in the production of the fifth year teaching materials and for providing us the opportunity to elicit assistance from Harvard's teachers, graduate students and undergraduate students. We extend special thanks to Ms. Wan Min for her significant contribution in the early stages of this project. In addition, I would like to thank Christopher Hakkenberg, Zhang Chen, Li Mingpei, Alexander Van Zandt Akin and Ilona Szonja Budapesti for spending much of their time assisting in the complex and minute details of proofreading materials. I would also like to represent the teachers involved in this compilation to thank Professor Keith McMahon, who would not disdain to sacrifice his precious time to discuss questions of the curriculum, and personally proofread and correct English abstracts in Writing and Truth. Teachers at all levels (especially many young teachers and graduate students teaching at the Harvard Beijing Academy), as well as many students who used the materials, all raised valuable suggestions and recommendations during the initial application of these teaching materials. For this, I extend my deep gratitude.

Here I would also like to thank Professor Du Weiming and Wang Dewei for their enthusiastic support. Fortunately, we've got help from them to attain financial assistance from the Yenching Institute and the CCK Foundation, as well as their assistance in convening a small-scale symposium in the Spring of 2006 to discuss and offer revisions before the publication of the fifth year's materials of Writing and Truth, and the accompanying handbook, Expressions of Written Chinese. We thank the following experts for participating in this symposium: Perry Link, Cornelius C. Kubler, James R. Pusey, Jianming Lu, Ning Wang, Xiliang Cui, Hongjun Wang, Rou Song, Yang Shen, Yunlu Wang as well as other professors who provided pertinent criticism and valuable suggestions for these materials. Even if the current results are far from being satisfactory, without their help, even this level of quality would have been hard to be achieved.

Finally, I represent all those involved in the compilation of these textbooks in expressing my sincere gratitude towards Yuan Liu, the Vice President Higher Education Press(Beijing), Qunsen Xu, the Division President, and Li Wang, the editor. Not only did they fervently undertake the burden of publishing this set of materials, but they did so with a serious attitude and a sense of professional responsibility. They invested a significant degree of manpower and material resources in the systematic process of layout, material verification and the content collation of these education materials.

To be honest, composing and compiling this series of teaching materials is, as far as we are concerned, simply our first attempt. Although we've attempted to embark on a new path, because of the limitations of time, experience and capacities, there will always be errors as well as areas awaiting revision and improvement. We sincerely hope that the critiques and recommendations of the teachers and students who use this set of materials won't cease, so that they may further impel continual improvement.

學生,請他們談談對打工的看法。

北京一所著名大學採訪了校長和幾位打工的打工的中國大學生越來越多,最近,記者到

从80年代中期开始,利用课余时间打工的中国大学生越来越多。最近,记者到北京一所著名大学采访了校长和几位打工的学生,请他们谈谈对打工的看法。

校長:

根據我的統計,我們學校有百分之八十左右的同學打工。老實說,盡管教育部規定學生可以勤工檢學,但我不希望學生到外面去打工,因為我認為學生應該一心一意地學習。但是,不打工不行啊!你一定知道,過去上大學都是免費的。現在呢,每年的學費差不多三千塊錢,明年可能會漲到五千,經濟條件差的家庭怎麼負擔得起?但是有的學生打工的時間過多,有的因為打工常常不來上課,還有的上課的時候開著手機,影響上課秩序,這些我們還是要管的。

端盤子的大學生:

我是國際關係專業二年級的學生。請你千萬別寫我的 名字。如果我的爸爸媽媽知道我在飯館打工,他們一定會傷 心的。他們自己省吃儉用替我交學費,每個月還給我飯錢, 希望我好好唸書。可是你知道不知道,現在大學生對衣服很 講究,你總得買兩套名牌服裝,得用比較高級的化妝品,要 不然,在同學中就會抬不起頭來。剛開始在飯館端盤子的時 候,我覺得很不好意思,但是幾個星期以後就漸漸習慣了。 雖然這個工作賺的錢不多,每個小時只有五塊左右,但是省 心,也比較安全。有的酒吧錢給得不少,可是年輕女孩子在 那種地方太危險了!

寫書的大學生:

端盤子? 你在開玩笑吧! 堂堂的大學生哪能去做那種

校长:

根据我的统计,我们学校有百分之八十左右的同学打工。老实说,尽管教育部规定学生可以勤工俭学,但我不希望学生到外面去打工,因为我认为学生应该一心一意地学习。但是,不打工不行啊!你一定知道,过去上大学都是免费的。现在呢,每年的学费差不多三千块钱,明年可能会涨到五千,经济条件差的家庭怎么负担得起?但是有的学生打工的时间过多,有的因为打工常常不来上课,还有的上课的时候开着手机,影响上课秩序,这些我们还是要管的。

端盘子的大学生:

我是国际关系专业二年级的学生。请你千万别写我的名字。如果我的爸爸妈妈知道我在饭馆打工,他们一定会伤心的。他们自己省吃俭用替我交学费,每个月还给我饭钱,希望我好好念书。可是你知道不知道,现在大学生对衣服很讲究,你总得买两套名牌服装,得用比较高级的化妆品,要不然,在同学中就会抬不起头来。刚开始在饭馆端盘子的时候,我觉得很不好意思,但是几个星期以后就渐渐习惯了。虽然这个工作赚的钱不多,每个小时只有五块左右,但是省心,也比较安全。有的酒吧钱给得不少,可是年轻女孩子在那种地方太危险了!

写书的大学生:

端盘子? 你在开玩笑吧! 堂堂的大学生哪能去做那种

事,純粹是糟踐自己。大學生應該做一些更有意義的工作。 我是中文系的,你信不信,這個學期我已經出了三本書了, 而且每一本都是暢銷書!一本是《打工的意義》,印了十萬 冊,不到兩個星期就賣光了。另外一本呢,是《中外著名情 書選》,很受年輕人的歡迎。第三本的內容有點兒那個,我 就不說了。

知識產權?俗話說得好, "天下文章一大抄"。誰不抄啊?有人說我只想賺錢,不錯,我是想賺錢,但是在我看來,寫書不能不考慮市場和讀者的需求。我們中文系的一位教授,用了二十多年的時間,寫了一本《中國詩詞研究》,沒有一家出版社願意給他出,最後還是自己花錢勉強印了兩千冊。我不想和他一樣。

我覺得打工的意義不只是賺錢,更重要的是了解社會, 學到在課堂上學不到的東西。我是國際經濟專業的,在一家 廣告公司打工。雖然以前我也上過廣告課,但是那都是紙上 談兵。我們的老師原來都是教計劃經濟的,現在改教市場經 濟。老實說,他們的知識實在有限。在這家公司工作了兩三 個月,我的感覺是,"勝讀十年書"。對不起,我還得跟客 戶聯絡,咱們以後有時間再聊吧! 事,纯粹是糟践自己。大学生应该做一些更有意义的工作。我是中文系的,你信不信,这个学期我已经出了三本书了,而且每一本都是畅销书!一本是《打工的意义》,印了十万册,不到两个星期就卖光了。另外一本呢,是《中外著名情书选》,很受年轻人的欢迎。第三本的内容有点儿那个,我就不说了。
