Wuzhumuqin Grassland, the blue hometown

The blue sky is a pasture of powerful eagles, and the green field is a hometown of steeds.

It is a real paradisaical grassland, Wuzhumuqin, spacious, treacherous and majestic.

It is a real paradisaical grassland, Wuzhumuqin, gorgeous and abundant, with warm wind floating and green, far and wide.

One can experience that the extensive grassland just starts a run-up rather than an end while they ride a horse on the stretch of boundless green grass under endless azure; by songs over the sky, continuous wind scudding and clouds surging, the grassland is full of the heroic emotion without depressed. The moment eagles roar in the sky, whisking through clouds and scudding in the dome, one really realizes the height; no sooner had one rushed about on a horseback in a vast expanse of fertile farmland than they will comprehend the spacious.

It just is the blue pasture of the horseback nationality, boundless, green, level and magnanimous, where both soul and mood can be set free; it also is green kingdom of pastoral songs with white fluttering clouds, gurgling green springs and drifting milk fragrant, which is full of heroic spirit and makes people touched.

In the past historic picture, a stretch of unceasing chariots and loud sounds from battle steeds, the cries the nationalities including Donghu and Dantan brought about while hunting during the Spring and Autumn Period and the Warring States Period (770-221 B. C.), and the uproar come from the wars between Khitans, Turks, Tatars, etc. from Eastern Jin Dynasty to Yuan Dynasty were recorded in those wheel tracks another Mongolia cattle cart left. During that, Wuzhumuqin Tribe migrated from Tianshan Mountain began to settle down from a generation to another generation, which makes the word "Wuzhumuqin", meaning persons who grow grape in Mongolian, to be recorded in history and to be renowned at home and abroad.

Vast fertile lands always nurture the most fetching songs of the Nature and green lakes constantly foster powerful fine rhythms. There is the hometown of songs, the ocean of dance, the cradle of wrestle masters and the pilgrimage place of nomad cultures, Mongolia Long-Tone. Unconstrained, loud and sonorous, shuffle everywhere in the grassland; Horse-head-instrument's melodies, full of love, linger between hills, sometime high, or low, extending far, those wrestlers, strong, agile and brave, in a pose of goshawk, show their brilliant and stalwart strength; turbulent horse-race courses, by grandeur atmosphere, rumble as a battle with thousands of armies and steeds.

Bright and transparent Ejinhu Lake with sparkling waves by hazy misty rain, looks like the narrating come from the grassland like mother, with luxuriantly green woods, Bangerlashan Mountain, lofty, handsome, grand and strange. Is an expression of Mongolia Plateau's, miraculous and mighty, winding Wulagaithe River, just as holy hada, a Mongolia present symbolizing happiness, blesses the grassland day and night; towering Wuliyasite Mountain, like a supernatural eagle stretching out his wings, is odd and touching. Wuzhumuqin Grassland covers a vast territory, 350 kilometers long from the south to the north and 350 kilometers wide from the east to the west, there are charming scenery, abundant mineral resources, glistening jades, valuable medicinal materials; there also are azure sky as cleaned, grassland as dyed, swinging Maian Flowers (Datura Flower) and singing larks; yet, there are setting sun as fire, strings of smokes from chimneys, sheep herds as pearl and pastures as jadeite; still, there are primitive folkway, heavy folk custom, no dust anywhere, full of meanings everywhere. It is honored with "The First Banner (County) across China's Animal Husbandry Sector", "The Top One of Well-Off amid Herdsmen" and "Star of The Top Hundred Advanced Towns in China". The reform and open of China and transforming of local economic structure led to local economic development into speed period. Building harmonious animal husbandry area, a policy from The CPC, turns into a gorgeous movement in the vast grassland; constructing a wealthy hometown and the local people becomes an imposing chorus of the grassland's population of 70,000.

East Wuzhumuqin Grassland, the stretch of endless green pasture, connects with the end of the sky, which is charming but faraway, elegant but miraculous, primitive but young; handsome but vague.

Bathed by gentle breeze and accompanied by songs on the way to the grassland, faraway guests are being welcomed by cups full of wine and hospitable herdsmen, experiencing the grassland's liquor-saturated fragrance; by the bright moon, stars and campfires, guests trippingly dance, teasing joys grassland's nights bring about; by gusts of intense wind beside them, guests rush about on the horseback with your magnificent ideal in vast space between the blue sky and the green grassland.

The paradise grassland, Wuzhumuqin, the blue hometown, is mine, and yours.
