Foreword

As with prior editions, the 2015 edition of Antitrust Developments in Europe is divided into two sections: Part I provides an overview of EU competition law developments, while Part II summarizes key national competition law developments. Both sections are further subdivided by substantive topic area, and by jurisdiction in the case of Part II.

The Editors would like to extend their gratitude to Cleary Gottlieb's partners, associates, and the legal support team for their participation in preparing this publication. In particular, the Editors would like to acknowledge Katia S. Colitti, Andrew Leyden, Ian Hastings, Hafiz Shariff, Sujin Chan-Allen, Shantanu Kafle, Conor Opdebeeck-Wilson, and Jocelyn Rupprecht, the book's Sub-Editors. In addition, the following are thanked for reporting on the developments described in this book: Natalia Barker, Hannah Bill, Julia Blanco, Silvia Branca, Burcu Can, Sibylle Vieille-Cessay, Fabio Chiovini, Petar Cimentarov, Frédéric de Bure, Mafalda de Sá, Suzanne Debras, Aude Laure Delbac, Ana Doblas, Omar El Khatib, Charlotte Emin, Anna Fava, Pascal G. Favre, Patrick Marco Ferrari, Sven Frisch, Matteo Giangaspero, Ana Gomez, Alessandra Guerrieri, Asa Hallsdottir, Ben Holles, Marta Janek, Emma Johansson, Shantanu Kafle, Anna Kazantzidou, Romi Lepetska, Carlos Martinez, Pierre Moullet, Juha-Pukka Mutanen, Vladimir Novak, Andris Rimsa, Anna Rolova, Tobias Rump, Shahrad Sadjadi, Pablo Sánchez Iglesias, Alice Setari, Milka Spahija, Patricia Pérez Fernández, Patrick Perinetto, Adreas Pielmeier, Robert Van Mastrigt, Pietro Vimont, Peter Westerlind-Wigstrom, Thomas Woolfson, Magnus Wallsten. The Editors would like to pay tribute also to Cleary Gottlieb's production team, including Simon Brittain, Elisabetta Botti, Sarah Grauwet, Vanessa Kempeneers, Pamela Milano, Caroline Petit; and to everyone at LexisNexis.

Editor's Note: Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP has a long-standing commitment to the practice of law in Europe. The firm's advisory work for the French government, and in particular Jean Monnet, on the implementation of the Marshall Plan led to the opening of the firm's first European office in Paris in 1949. In the following years, the firm was invited to assist in the drafting of certain provisions of the Treaties of the European Communities, including its antitrust rules, and to advise and represent the European Commission and the European Atomic Energy Agency. The opening of the Brussels office in 1960 was followed by the opening of offices in London in 1971, Frankfurt and Moscow in 1991, Rome in 1998, Milan in 2001, and Cologne in 2004.

Cleary Gottlieb's antitrust practice is among the most acclaimed, largest and longest established practices in the world, consisting of 25 partners, 7 counsel, and approximately 160 associates based in Europe, the United States, and Asia. The firm's European offices have developed a fully integrated antitrust law practice with extensive and varied expertise in advising plaintiffs, complainants and defendants on the application of EU and national antitrust laws to domestic and cross-border mergers, acquisitions, joint ventures and minority holdings; relations among competitors and among companies operating at different levels of trade; the behavior of dominant companies; the application of state aid rules; proceedings before the European Commission and national antitrust authorities; arbitration; and litigation before the European Courts and national courts.
