SERVICE INFORMATION

The Archbold service

Archbold: Criminal Pleading, Evidence and Practice consists of one main text volume (including the tables and index). This volume is re-issued annually, and is updated by cumulative supplements and Archbold Review.

The supplement

Three cumulative supplements, containing updating material for the main volume, are published in each year as part of the service.

This is the first supplement of 2011.

★ New material is incorporated into this supplement using the same paragraph numbers as appear in the main work. All material new to this supplement is marked in the text by a bold star in the margin.

After consulting the main work on any given subject, reference should always be made to the same paragraph number in the current supplement to check that there have been no new developments since the main text volume was published. The supplement will also track material which has been removed or relocated as part of the re-issue process.

The back cover contains a list of all important developments included in this supplement for the first time and where they can be found.

All references in the text to cases, statutes and statutory instruments are contained in the tables printed at the beginning of this supplement.

Please email smg.archbold@thomson.com with comments/suggestions for any of the Archbold services, particularly any notes on the index to the mainwork.

Archbold e-update

As a subscriber to Archbold 2011 you have free and unlimited access to the accompanying e-update service. This addition to your subscription provides you with a weekly email containing the latest, relevant updates in crime. Cross-referenced by paragraph to the mainwork, the e-update will allow you to contextualise the information within Archbold. The content will be archived online at the dedicated site www.sweetandmaxwell.co.uk/archbold so you have access to it at any time.

If you are a new user accessing the service for the first time then please visit www.sweetandmaxwell.co.uk/archbold where you will be asked to complete a short registration process, and to enter the following activation code to start receiving updates:

AB2011

If you are an existing user of the e-update then your access will automatically be updated for the new edition and there is no need to re-register.
