《管理英语》(第二版)自2000年出版以来,已历时六载有余。承蒙全国各地高校师生广泛使用,并给予鼓励和帮助,我们收到了不少很好的建议与意见,在此深表谢意。经过仔细研讨,特别是由于近年来管理行业的迅猛发展和社会对管理专业英语应用能力的需求变化,我们对教材进行了修订。

第二版教材保持了第一版的体系和风格,继承了第一版便于开展教学实践的人性化设计等优点,并在以下几方面作了一些修改:替换了第五单元和第六单元中Reading A的全部内容;替换了第五单元Reading B的译文;对课后的部分练习进行了更新,以使练习内容更接近工作的实际需要,力求做到学以致用。除此之外,我们还对全书的译文进行了调整,使行文更加专业和规范,并根据广大师生的教学实践和反馈意见,修订了第一版教材中的一些内容。

《管理英语》(第二版)共10个单元,每单元包括三个部分:第一部分为"阅读与翻译" (Reading and Translating),第二部分为"模拟套写"(Simulated Writing),第三部分为"听力与会话"(Listening and Speaking)。

Management Functions

Part one Reading and Translating

Reading A

Read the following passage, paying attention to the questions on the left.

Management Functions

 What functions do managers usually perform? In the early part of the 20th century, a French industrialist by the name of Henri Fayol wrote that all managers perform five management functions: they plan, organize, command, coordinate, and control. In the mid-1950s, two professors used the functions of planning, organizing, staffing, directing, and controlling as the framework for a textbook on management that for twenty years was the most widely sold text on the subject. The most popular textbooks still continue to be organized around management functions, although these have been condensed generally to the basic four: planning, organizing, leading, and controlling. Let's briefly define what each of these functions encompasses.

2. What's the role of management in an organization?

If you don't have any particular destination in mind, any road will not get you there eventually. Since organizations exist to achieve some purpose, someone must define that purpose and the means for its achievement. Management is that someone. The planning function involves defining an organization's goals, establishing an overall strategy for achieving these goals, and developing a comprehensive hierarchy of plans to integrate and coordinate activities.

Managers are also responsible for designing an organization's

Why is the controlling function necessary?

structure. We call this function organizing. It includes determining what tasks are to be done, who is to do them, how the tasks are to be grouped, who reports to whom, and at what level decisions are made.

Every organization includes people, and management's job is to direct and coordinate these people. This is the function of leading. When managers motivate subordinates, direct the activities of others, select the most effective communication channel, or resolve conflicts among members, they are engaging in leading.

The final function managers perform is controlling. After the goals are set (planning function), the plans formulated (planning function), the structural arrangements delineated (organizing function), and the people hired, trained, and motivated (leading function), something may still go wrong. To ensure that things are going as they should, management must monitor the organization's performance. Actual performance must be compared with the previously set goals. If there are any significant deviations, it's management's job to get the organization back on track. This process of monitoring, comparing, and correcting is what we mean by the controlling function.
