出版前言

21世纪,我国经济和社会发展进入新的阶段,对人才的需求亦不断提高,高等教育面临新的形势和任务;英语教育加强培养大学生的英语综合应用能力,特别是听说能力,已是当务之急。

2004年6月,教育部颁布了《大学英语课程教学要求(试行)》,对学生英语能力、课程设置、教学模式和教学评估等提出了明确要求,这意味着教学手段、教材编写和出版方面的一系列变革。作为全心致力于我国外语教育事业发展的出版者,我社经过广泛比较和调研,决定引进英国著名教育出版机构——麦克米伦出版公司的全球畅销教材 Inside Out (《新要求大学英语》),结合国内教学实际加以改编,奉献给全国师生,希望它能成为高校贯彻课程要求的得力工具。

本教材具有下列特点:

1. 设计编写以学生为中心:完全采用注重学生知识和情感“参与”的教学策略,回答问题、讨论等开放式题型取代了机械的练习,鼓励学生结合日常生活信息来学习和运用新知识,充分体现了学生在教学过程中的主体地位。

2. 选材全面,来源真实,语言地道:教材各单元按主题划分,每个单元内又包含若干子主题,使所有学生均“有话可说”。课文选自国外的报刊、小说、网站、个人交往材料等;音像材料选自访谈、戏剧、流行歌曲等,让学生接触到真实生活中的地道英语。真实的语境、合适的话题、丰富的内容、新颖的课堂活动,能够唤起学生学习英语的兴趣,使学生通过吸收丰富的语料,快速提高听、说、读、写能力,深入了解英语国家的文化和社会知识,有效培养他们的英语交际能力。

3. 各种技能训练紧密契合,浑然一体:语法、词汇、口语、听力和写作的讲授或训练环环相扣,特色鲜明。语法学习分语言分析、强化练习和实际运用三个步骤,充分结合课文场景和学生自身生活,注重个性化;单词采用情景记忆法,利用上下文和与单元内容相关的练习形式,在课堂上和课后反复操练,注重系统性,帮助学生积极高效积累词汇;口语练习与单元主题、词汇和语法相互关联,为学生提供了学以致用用的机会,内容上则鼓励学生讲述真人真事,从而激发学生的交流意愿,使学生更加投入,有效提高英语表达的流利度;视听材料借助VCD、CD,用生动的题材、丰富的体裁、多样化的语言材料,为学生提供了生活中英语运用的真实例子,训练学生对日常英语的听力技能,增强他们用英语交际的自信;写作自成体系,包含在练习册中,训练学生对记叙文、议论文、信件等多种体裁的写作能力。

4. 立体化的教学资源:《新要求大学英语》共5级(含预备级,适合大学不同起点的学生使用),是一套立体化教材,课本、录音磁带和CD、多媒体光盘和网站紧密结合,互相支持。

课本以综合教程学生用书为核心,配有教师手册、练习册、课堂活动、视听说学生手册和视听说教师手册。

教材支持网站是 www.insideout.net,为教师提供了丰富的教学资源,也提供了一个与世界各地的教师交流的平台;网站还包含E-lesson,每周更新,并附有教学指南,供教师免费下载,用于课堂教学。

《新要求大学英语》是一套经过教学实践检验、旨在培养学生英语综合应用能力、特别是听说能力的英语教程。在当前英语教学环境和条件发生重大变化,各高校积极探索运用电脑和网络进行教学的情况下,本教材的立体化特征使之适于各校根据实际条件选择使用,尝试多种教学模式和教学手段。我们深信,本套教材是贯彻《大学英语课程教学要求(试行)》、提高教学质量、培养高层次人才的最佳选择之一。

- | | |
|---|---------|
| 1 | Marisol |
| 2 | Andreas |
| 3 | Madonna |

Fame

- 1 Discuss these questions:
 - a) Who are the five most famous people in your country?
 - b) Who do you think is the most famous man in the world?
 - c) Who do you think is the most famous woman in the world?
- 2 Look at photographs 1–6.
 - a) Do you know who these people are?
 - b) What do you know about them?

LANGUAGE TOOLBOX

He/She looks like ...

This one could be ...

Perhaps it's (Bob Marley)'s son/daughter/mother

Maybe it's ...

It's difficult to say, but ...

- 3 Each of the famous people in the photographs in 2 is related to one of the people below. Match each of the famous people to their relation and say how they are related.

Test your questions

- 1 These are the answers from an interview with one of the people in the photographs. Write the questions.

- I was born in London, but I've got dual nationality because my mother's from Nicaragua.
- No, I'm living in Ibiza now.
- Not long. I moved from London with my two daughters, Assisi and Amba, about six months ago.
- Yeah, very happy. We love the outdoor life. Also, my mother's a Spanish speaker and I feel more comfortable in a Latin country.
- Yeah, I've made lots of new friends here. A few English, but my two best friends are Argentinian and Spanish.
- I'm a painter, but I've recently started a jewellery business with a friend, and that takes up most of my time. I also do some modelling when I need the cash!
- Well, with a business and two young children I don't have much free time, but I love reading and listening to music.
- All sorts: pop music and classical.
- No, never, but don't tell my father.
- Not very often. My mother's in New York and my father's often on tour. But we all love big family get-togethers.
- That's a difficult question because I've been to so many amazing places, but I think Brazil is my favourite. The children love it there too.
- I think my father chose it: my mother wanted me to have a Spanish name.

- 2 01 Listen to the interview. Are your questions the same as the ones on the recording? Who was being interviewed?

Pronunciation

- 1 02 Look at tapescript 02 and listen to the questions. Underline the strongest stress in each question.

For example:

Where were you born?

- 2 Work with someone you don't know very well. Use questions from the interview and the following prompts to find out as much as you can about each other.

Have you ...? What's your favourite ...? Who ...? Do you enjoy ...?

Are you good at ...? Can you ...? How long have you ...? Do you ever ...?

Are you interested in ...?

- Who do you usually have lunch _____?
- What are you learning English _____?
- What do you spend most money _____?

Would you like to ...?	- Would you like to go out for a coffee? - Would you like to call me tomorrow? - Would you like to live in the country? - Would you like to wait here for a moment?	It's always been my dream to do that. Certainly. Is it OK if I smoke? OK. What time would be good for you? Good idea. Where shall we go?

Language Reference p8

2 Which of the questions are asking for information? What are the others doing? Imagine the situations.

Noughts & Crosses

- Work in two teams. Team A look at page 140.
Team B look at page 143.
- Use the questions to play Noughts and Crosses. The aim of the game is to get a line of noughts or crosses before the other team.
 - Draw a Noughts and Crosses grid on a separate piece of paper.
 - Decide whether your team is noughts (O) or crosses (X).
 - Take it in turns to ask and answer questions. When a team answers a question correctly, they choose a square on the grid and mark a nought or a cross.

Language reference: questions

Question forms have many uses. Here are a few examples:

- Asking for information: Where's the nearest post office?
- Asking for permission: Is it OK if I leave work early tonight?
- Making requests: Could you pass me the salt?
- Making offers: Can I help?
- Making invitations: Would you like to go out for dinner?
- Making suggestions: Shall we go to the cinema?
- Showing friendly interest: How are your children?

Yes/No questions

- 1 When be is the only verb in the sentence, you put it before the subject in the question.

Affirmative: You were in my class last year.

Question: Were you in my class last year?

- 2 You usually put the auxiliary before the subject of the sentence.

Present continuous

You're working for IBM.

Are you working for IBM?

Past continuous

You were thinking about Jack again.

Were you thinking about Jack again?

Present perfect

She's been to Paris recently.

Has she been to Paris recently?

Past perfect

He'd already left when she arrived.

Had he already left when she arrived?

Present simple

He speaks English very well.

Does he speak English?

Past simple

She played football yesterday.

Did she play football yesterday?

Note: Because there is no auxiliary in the affirmative of simple tenses, you use the auxiliary do to form questions.

- 3 There are nine modal auxiliary verbs: can, could, will, would, shall, should, may, might, must. You usually put modal auxiliaries before the subject.

can You can swim.

Can you swim?

will She'll be here tomorrow.

Will she be here tomorrow?

Open questions

Open questions use question words: when, where, who, why, how, which, what and whose. You usually put the question word at the beginning of a question.

Do you smoke? How much do you smoke?

Are you going? When are you going?

Has he gone? Where has he gone?

Are you tired? Why are you tired?

Subject questions

When the question word is the subject of the sentence you do not use do, does or did:

Affirmative: Mark Chapman shot John Lennon in 1980.

Subject question: Who shot John Lennon?

This happens most often with who, but can also happen with which and what.

Which company bought Rolls Royce in 1998?

What happened next?

Questions ending with prepositions

Many verbs can be followed by a dependent preposition. You usually put the preposition at the end of a question.

He spent all his money on whisky and beer.

What did he spend all his money on?

Friends for life

- 1 Tina and Will met when they were both studying at the same university. Three years later, a student magazine contacted them and asked them to take part in a survey to find out how many people had stayed friends. Look at the photographs of Tina and Will. Do you think the following statements are true or false?

- a) Tina and Will had similar interests when they were at university.
- b) They chose similar careers when they finished their studies.
- c) They have similar lifestyles now.

- 2 Read what they both say about their friendship and find out if you were right.

this

TINA I first met Will when I was looking for someone to share the house I was renting. I put an advertisement in the local student newspaper and he was one of the people who answered it. When we met, we hit it off straightaway and I told him he could move in.

Living with Will was fun. We soon found out that we had a lot in common and quickly became close friends. We always had really good discussions about everything that was important to us at the time: politics, the environment, literature and other less important things like cooking. We also liked the same music and that's important when you're sharing a house. We fell out a couple of times about the housework. Will thinks I'm untidy but I think life's too short to worry about things like that.

When we graduated three years ago, we went our separate ways and since then our lives have been very different. I went back to my home town and got a job as a production assistant for art exhibitions. I like my job because I'm helping young people to get involved in the arts. I'm living with my parents because I'm not earning very much. Will thinks I'm crazy because money is very important to him now, but I get a lot of personal satisfaction from my job. He's earning a lot of money, but he doesn't have time to spend with his family and his friends. I don't see him very often now. When he comes down for the weekend we have a laugh, but our lifestyles are so different now that we don't have very much to talk about.

WILL Tina and I got on very well together at university. When we first met, we clicked straightaway and we ended up sharing a house for nearly three years. We had the same attitude to the important things in life and the only thing we argued about was the housework. I'm a Virgo so I'm very tidy whereas Tina's the opposite. I don't think she ever found out where we kept the vacuum cleaner!

When I left university, I moved to London and got a job in a finance company. I have to work long hours and I don't really enjoy what I'm doing but I earn a very good salary. I'm very ambitious and I want to get to the top of my profession. I enjoy spending money on CDs, clothes, a nice car and going out to good restaurants. Tina's working really hard as well, but she's not earning much. I don't understand why she's doing it. I think she's having a holiday – it seems very idealistic to me. Anyway, it means that our lifestyles are very different now so we've drifted apart. We haven't fallen out or anything. We still talk on the phone and when I go down to visit her, we have a laugh. I know she'll always be there for me.

Hi! I like to skateboard, surf, roller-blade, ski, swim and play waterpolo. I LOVE animals. I've got five hamsters and a dog. I had eight fish but they're dead. I also had a turtle, but my neighbour's dog killed her. I also like playing Nintendo 64 and listening to Nirvana and Bush, and I have my own band called Turbulence.

LIFE IS A DARING ADVENTURE. I'm a woman of 44, with two grown-up children, a piano, a dog and a few survival strategies. Interested in everything, but mostly in people and different lifestyles.

Hi there. This is Fabio writing! I'm 25 and I'm looking for a serious penpal of about my age. I'd prefer a girl, but even guys are accepted. I live in Italy and I'd like to correspond in English. If you're interested, I've got brown hair, green eyes and I'm one metre 77 tall. I love alternative music such as Sonic Youth and some pop too like Oasis, and of course rock (U2). But I hate techno. I also love movies, theatre, arts ... well, I'll tell you the rest if you write. Well, hope to hear from you soon then.

Dear ...

thank you for your e-mail message and your adress. I am writting to you to tell you more about myself and also to send you a photograph. That's me on the left. The one in the middle is my older brother, olivier, and that's my sister sonia on the right. I get on very well with my sister, but my brother and I have nothing in common - he's very serious and boreing. He just spends all his time on the computer and never goes out.

I like going out - especialy to dance. On saturday nights I dance in a nightclub to earn some money because i'm a student. I'm studying english and spanish at university, but I'm not sure why. I mean, I don't know what I want to do when I leave university.

Anyway, I love traveling and languages will be usefull for that. Last summer I studyed english at a school in chicago (my parents are divorced and my dad lives there now) and next summer I want to go to spain to learn flamenco and go horse-riding on the beach.

What else can I tell you? I'm single. I had a boyfriend for six months, but we split up because he was to jealous. I want to get maried and have children one day, but not yet!

As I told you in the e-mail, I'm interested in just about everything - even football!! How about you? Please write soon and tell me what you're interested in. Appologies for my bad spelling.

Love ...

Relax

Think about some of the things you did yesterday. Note them down under three headings: working, studying or relaxing.

How much time did you spend working or studying, and how much time relaxing? Was this a typical day? Compare with a partner.
