VAMPIRE KILLER

It is not easy.

Sorry. There are no jobs.

I'm sorry. There's no work here.

No. Sorry.

Wait a minute!
What's this?

Do you need a job?
Must be strong,
fast and brave.
Telephone:
Professor Marcus
Fletcher at 555 8621.

The professor asks lots of questions.

How old are you?

Eighteen.

Are you a fast runner?

Well, I play football every week.

Are you strong and brave?

Well, yes. I think I am.

Do you like horror films?

They're OK. Why? Are you making a horror film?

Do you believe in ghosts?

What?

Then Fletcher asks the important question.

Do you believe in vampires?

Vampires!
Oh dear – this is no good!

It's late! Sorry!
I must go now. I –

Wait! You need a job and you need money!

But what is the job?

I am a vampire killer.
I find vampires and I kill them . . . And now I need help.

Vampires? Are you talking about Dracula?

It's dark and cold
in the street now.

Excuse me.

58

My name's Claudia.
I'm here for the job.

Be careful.
He's crazy. He's a vampire killer.

Ha! Ha! Vampires?
Wonderful! Are you
working for him?

Yes . . . but this isn't a joke!

OK, but I'm interested.
Perhaps he wants another helper?

Colin is tired, but he does not want to go home.

Two pounds, please.

Two of Colin's friends are in the pub.

What do you do?

They stop laughing after about ten minutes.

The professor does not answer Claudia's question.

His name's Renfield . . .
and I know where he lives!

They run through the dark streets.

This is the street.
We can wait here.

So they wait . . .

. . . and wait.
