Preface

This fifth edition marks the second one prepared by co-authors. We have tried to remain faithful to the tradition of earlier editions written by Harry Krause alone. We have maintained the hallmarks of Harry's work—the comparative perspective on family law issues, the emphasis on the connection between family law and family policy, and the tie between theory and practice for those who will work in the family law area.

Acknowledgments

The authors are grateful to Tim Payne and all the staff at West for helping us create what we hope is a useful and improved new edition. Ruth Serna and Shirley Jacobson provided tireless word processing help. Many thanks for the work of Lance Cain, Dora Tognarelli, Kristin Romalia and Elizabeth Myers as research assistants.
