

READER'S DIGEST

You and the Law

The Reader's Digest Association, Inc.
Pleasantville, New York Montreal

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The editors of Reader's Digest gratefully acknowledge the contributions to this book of Advisory Editor

Henry V. Poor

Associate Dean, Yale University Law School, 1967-1972

Mr. Poor's extensive and untiring help in the writing and editing of the manuscript and his conviction that legal principles can and should be made clear and easy to understand are in large part responsible for the usefulness and success of YOU AND THE LAW.

The editors wish to express their thanks to the New Jersey State Bar Association, New York University School of Law, Northeastern University School of Law and more than 200 state and federal offices and agencies for their assistance in updating the charts in this Second Revised Edition.

Copyright © 1971 The Reader's Digest Association, Inc.
Copyright © 1971 The Reader's Digest Association (Canada) Ltd.

First Revised Edition

Copyright © 1973 The Reader's Digest Association, Inc.
Copyright © 1973 The Reader's Digest Association (Canada) Ltd.
Copyright © 1976 Reader's Digest Association Far East Ltd.
Philippine Copyright 1976 Reader's Digest Association Far East Ltd.

Second Revised Edition

Copyright © 1977 The Reader's Digest Association, Inc.
Copyright © 1977 The Reader's Digest Association (Canada) Ltd.
Copyright © 1977 Reader's Digest Association Far East Ltd.
Philippine Copyright 1977 Reader's Digest Association Far East Ltd.

Reproduction in any manner, in whole or in part, in English or in other languages, is prohibited. All rights reserved.

Library of Congress Catalog Card Number: 77-75374

ISBN: 0-89577-038-5

Printed in the United States of America

Fourth Printing, July 1980

CONTENTS

Introduction	19
How to Use This Book	21

I. What Is the Law?

WHERE OUR LAW COMES FROM

1. The early background of our legal system	25
2. The common law	26
3. Our federal system	27

HOW OUR LAWS ARE MADE AND ENFORCED

4. Our constitutions: basic laws	28
5. The executive	29
6. The legislature	29
7. Federal courts	30
8. State and local courts	32
9. Administrative agencies	34

WRITTEN LAWS AND RECORDS

10. Statutes, regulations and decisions	36
11. Personal and business records	37

THE LAWYERS AND THE COURTS

12. Where lawyers fit in	37
13. The adversary proceeding—cornerstone of our system	38

II. Your Personal Rights and Obligations

YOUR RIGHTS AS A CITIZEN

14. What makes you a United States citizen	51
15. Sources of your rights as a citizen of the United States	52
16. Your right to freedom of speech and freedom of the press	54
17. Your right to freedom of assembly	57
18. Your right to freedom of religion	58
19. Your right to vote	62
20. Your right to hold public office	65
21. Your right to keep and bear arms	65
22. Your right to individual privacy	65
23. Your right to the full enjoyment of your property	73
24. Your right to equal protection of the laws	74
25. Your right or privilege against self-incrimination	75
26. Your right to due process of law	76
27. Your right to habeas corpus	77
28. Your right against double jeopardy	77
29. Your right to a jury trial	77

LIMITATION AND SUSPENSION OF YOUR RIGHTS

30. Curfew	78
31. Martial law	78
32. Other suspensions of your rights	79
33. When you must help police	79

YOUR OBLIGATIONS AS A CITIZEN

34. Making the system work	80
----------------------------------	----

III. Your Protection Against Wrongs

WHAT A TORT IS AND HOW IT DIFFERS FROM A CRIME

35. Differences between torts and crimes	83
36. Elements of a tort	84
37. Who can be held responsible for committing a tort	85
38. Who may not be held liable in tort actions	86

INTENTIONAL INTERFERENCE WITH YOUR PERSONAL RIGHTS

39. Interference with your freedom of movement	87
40. Misuse of the legal process	89
41. Interference with your person	90
42. Interference with your peace of mind	91
43. Interference with your privacy	91
44. Interference with your reputation	92

INTENTIONAL INTERFERENCE WITH YOUR PROPERTY RIGHTS

45. Nuisances and what to do about them	94
46. Keeping others off your property	95
47. The misuse of your personal property	96
48. Interference with your contractual and business relationships	97
49. Fraud, deceit and misrepresentation	98

IF YOU ARE SUED: DEFENSES OF PRIVILEGE

50. When you are the defendant	98
51. If you acted in error	99
52. If you acted with consent	99
53. If you acted to defend yourself or others	100
54. If you acted to defend your property	101
55. If you acted to maintain order	102

ACCIDENTAL INTERFERENCE WITH YOUR PERSONAL OR PROPERTY RIGHTS

56. Unintentional interference with your rights	102
57. What negligence is	103
58. How careful you must be	103
59. Unavoidable accidents	104
60. Standards of care required of owners and occupiers of land	105
61. Your duty to others who come onto your property	105
62. When negligence is obvious	107

DEFENSES AGAINST NEGLIGENCE SUITS

63. Assumption of risk	108
64. Contributory negligence and comparative negligence	108
65. Last clear chance	109

LIABILITY IMPOSED BY STATUTE

66. The changing law of torts	109
67. When you are injured on the job	110
68. When you buy faulty merchandise	111
69. Who is responsible—merchant or manufacturer	112
70. The importance of liability	113

RIGHTING THE WRONG: VARIOUS REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO YOU

71. Measuring your money damages	114
72. Getting back your property	115
73. Putting a stop to undesirable acts	115
74. The importance of insurance	116
75. The cost of a lawsuit	117

WHAT TO DO WHEN A TORT HAS BEEN COMMITTED

76. Getting in touch with your lawyer	118
77. The advantages of settlement	119
78. Arbitrating your case	120
79. Choosing the right court	121
80. The summons and complaint	121
81. The defendant's answer—his defenses	122

WHEN YOU GO TO COURT

82. The participants and their roles	123
83. Preliminary steps	126
84. The plaintiff's burden of proof	127
85. Presentation of evidence	128
86. The decision and judgment	128
87. Appealing the court's decision	128
88. Enforcing the judgment	129

IV. Your Protection Against Crime and Criminal Charges

BASIC THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT CRIMINAL LAW

89. What a crime is	135
90. Classification of crimes or offenses	136
91. Parties to crimes: principals, accessories and accomplices	137
92. Crime and responsibility	138

OFFENSES AGAINST JUDICIAL AUTHORITY, PUBLIC JUSTICE AND THE GENERAL WELFARE

93. Treason	138
94. Conspiracy	139
95. Sedition	139
96. Contempt	139
97. Perjury	140
98. Escape and associated crimes	141
99. Your duty to help police	142
100. Probation, parole and bail	142
101. Compounding a crime	142
102. Extortion and blackmail	143
103. Criminal libel	143
104. Forgery	144
105. Counterfeiting	144
106. Bribery	144
107. Misconduct in office	146
108. Interference with a jury	146
109. Obstruction of justice	146

110. Disturbing the peace	147
111. Unlawful assembly	147
112. Riot	147
113. Forcible entry and detainer	147
114. Weapons laws	147
115. Vagrancy	148
116. Bigamy	149
117. Adultery	149
118. Incest	149
119. Other sex offenses	149
CRIMES AGAINST YOUR PERSON
120. Homicide	150
121. Murder	151
122. Manslaughter and lesser killings	151
123. Suicide	152
124. Rape	153
125. Abortion	153
126. Assault and battery	153
127. Mayhem	156
128. Kidnapping	156
CRIMES AGAINST REAL PROPERTY
129. Arson	156
130. Vandalism	157
131. Burglary	157
CRIMES INVOLVING PERSONAL PROPERTY
132. Larceny	158
133. Robbery	159
134. Receiving stolen property	160
135. Embezzlement	160
136. Obtaining property by false pretenses	161
DEFENSES TO CRIMINAL CHARGES
137. Infancy or immaturity	162
138. Coercion	164
139. Mistake of law	164
140. Mistake of fact	165
141. Duress	165
142. Necessity	165
143. Consent	166
144. Insanity	166
145. Drunkenness	167
146. Narcotics use	168
147. Defenses to homicide	168
148. If you acted to prevent a crime	169
149. If you acted in self-defense	170
BASIC THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT CRIMINAL PROCEDURE
150. The court system	171

151. Rights of the accused	172
152. Arrest and arraignment	173
153. The grand jury and indictment	175
154. The trial and presentation of evidence	177
155. The charge, verdict and sentence	180
156. Motions after trial and appeal	181
157. Essentials of criminal procedure	184

V. Your Personal Property, Contracts and Purchases

YOUR RIGHT TO OWN, ENJOY AND DISPOSE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

158. What property is	187
159. Acquisition and legal protection of personal property	188
160. Lost, abandoned, misplaced and found property	189

PATENTS, TRADE SECRETS, COPYRIGHTS AND TRADEMARKS

161. Patents and "design patents"	189
162. The law of trade secrets	192
163. Trademarks and trade names	193
164. Literary property and copyright	194
165. International copyright	196

CONTRACTS

166. The promises men live by	196
167. What a contract is	197
168. Oral and written contracts	198
169. Express and implied contracts	198
170. Why written contracts are better	199
171. Unilateral and bilateral contracts	199
172. Voidable and unenforceable contracts	199
173. Essentials of an enforceable contract	200
174. The importance of assent	201
175. Consideration for the promise	201
176. Legal capacity of parties to a contract: minors and other incompetents	203
177. Legal capacity of corporations	205
178. Lawful object of a contract	206
179. Performing the contract on time	206
180. When contracts must be in writing	206
181. When you may assign your contract	207
182. How contracts are discharged	209
183. When a contract is broken	212
184. Remedies for breach of contract	212
185. Defenses to actions for breach of contract	213

SALE AND PURCHASE OF GOODS

186. When you buy or sell	218
187. Who has title or ownership	218
188. Methods of shipment and liability for loss	219
189. What happens if the seller doesn't own the goods	221
190. What happens if the goods you buy are of poor quality	221

191. Mail order and door-to-door sales	223
192. Injury from defective products	223
193. Installment or time or credit sales	223
194. Legal remedies of the buyer	224
195. Legal remedies of the seller	226
196. Government protection of consumers	227

USE AND PROTECTION OF PROPERTY YOU ENTRUST TO OTHERS

197. What a bailment is	228
198. Conversion	229
199. Responsibility for loaned or borrowed personal property	229
200. Responsibility for rented or leased personal property	230
201. Responsibility for property left for cleaning or repair	230
202. Responsibility for property left in checkrooms	232
203. Responsibility for property left in storage or safekeeping	232
204. Responsibility for property in transit	233
205. Responsibility for property of guests in hotels	235
206. Responsibility for personal property left in pledge or pawn	236

VI. Your Automobile

OWNING AN AUTOMOBILE

207. Buying and selling automobiles	239
208. Financing your automobile	239
209. Keeping up payments if your car is destroyed or stolen	240
210. Selling or buying a car on which payments are still owed	240
211. Required automobile insurance	241
212. Registration of automobiles	241
213. Out-of-state registration certificates and license plates	244
214. Your obligation to maintain a mechanically safe automobile	244
215. Warranties on new cars and replacement of parts	245
216. Warranties on used cars	248
217. Warranties on parts and tires	248
218. Dealing with the automobile mechanic	250

OPERATING YOUR AUTOMOBILE

219. Licenses to drive	251
220. Traffic rules and regulations	256
221. Local traffic ordinances and driving regulations	259
222. Driving with due care	259
223. Reckless driving	260
224. Traffic laws for pedestrians	260
225. Your legal defense against traffic violation charges	261
226. What not to do when charged with a traffic violation	262
227. Suspension or revocation of your driver's license	262
228. Speed traps	263
229. Vehicular homicide	263
230. Driving when you know you are ill	263
231. Driving while intoxicated	263

232. Ownership and operation of motorcycles	264
233. Ownership and operation of automobile trailers	265

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS

234. Hit-and-run accidents	265
235. If you are involved in an accident	266
236. Don'ts after a major accident	266
237. The possibility of hidden injuries	267
238. Filling out the accident report	268
239. Accidents involving out-of-state cars or drivers	268
240. Legal action against the driver after an accident	272
241. When to consult a lawyer after an accident	272

LIABILITY AND DAMAGE CLAIMS ARISING FROM AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS

242. Negligence and liability	273
243. Measuring damages	274
244. Unavoidable accidents	274
245. Accidents caused by the conditions of the road	277
246. Accidents caused by pedestrians	277
247. Accidents caused by the condition of the car	278
248. Accidents caused by the condition of the driver	278
249. Accidents in which more than one person is at fault	279
250. Liability when driving your own car	279
251. Liability when driving a borrowed car	280
252. Liability when driving a rented car	280
253. Liability when driving an employer's vehicle	281
254. Liability of members of your family driving your car	281
255. Liability to guests in your car	281
256. Liability to paying passengers	282
257. Special rules of liability involving children	282
258. Out-of-court settlement	283
259. When you need a lawyer	283
260. When the insurance company may not defend you	284

AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE

261. Proof of negligence vs. no-fault auto insurance	285
262. Types of automobile insurance	286
263. Financial responsibility laws	287
264. How much insurance you need	287
265. Factors that affect your insurance costs	290
266. Cancellation of your insurance	292
267. Selecting your automobile insurance company	293
268. Dealing with your insurance company and claims adjuster	293
269. What to do if your car is stolen	296

VII. Your Home, Apartment and Real Estate

RENTING YOUR HOME OR APARTMENT; RELATIONS BETWEEN LANDLORD AND TENANT

270. What it means to rent	299
----------------------------------	-----

271. Dealing with the rental agent	300
272. What's in your lease	300
273. Once you're in—your rights and obligations as a tenant	306
274. Breaking your lease	308
275. When the landlord can evict you	309
276. When your lease runs out	311
BUYING YOUR HOME
277. When you look for a house	313
278. The role of the real estate broker	315
279. When and why you need a lawyer	316
280. The real estate binder	317
281. The contract	317
282. The deposit and escrow	319
283. The importance of your deed	319
284. Possible defects in your title	320
285. Insuring your title	321
286. Rights and duties of the buyer and seller	322
287. Other considerations between contract and closing	323
288. The closing: When ownership changes	323
289. The closing costs	325
YOUR HOME MORTGAGE
290. What a mortgage is	327
291. Kinds of home mortgages	329
292. The provisions of your mortgage	332
293. Buying property that already carries a mortgage	334
BUILDING YOUR OWN HOME OR BUYING A NEWLY BUILT HOME
294. Before you build	334
295. What the architect does for you	335
296. Dealing with the builder	337
297. Buying a development house	339
WAYS YOU MAY LOSE YOUR HOME
298. If your mortgage is foreclosed	340
299. If your property is condemned	342
300. If your taxes are delinquent	343
301. If you fall into debt	343
302. If your property is used or occupied by others	345
HOMEOWNERS AND THE LAW
303. Your rights as a homeowner	347
304. Your duties as a homeowner	348
305. Your real estate taxes	350
306. Your wife's ownership rights	351
VIII. Your Family
COURTSHIP, ENGAGEMENT AND MARRIAGE
307. Legal aspects of adolescent dating	359
308. Engagement to marry and breach-of-promise suits	360
309. What happens to the gifts when an engagement is broken	361

310. Common-law marriage	361
311. Who may marry	362
312. At what age you may marry	362
313. How to get married	362
314. The domicile	362
RELATIONS BETWEEN HUSBANDS AND WIVES
315. The marriage contract	367
316. The rights and duties of husbands and wives	367
317. Property rights of husbands and wives	367
318. The husband's responsibility for his wife's debts	368
319. Lawsuits	368
RELATIONS BETWEEN PARENTS AND CHILDREN AND SCHOOLS
320. Rights of unborn children	370
321. Rights of minors	370
322. When a child is legitimate	370
323. Parents' right to discipline children	371
324. Parents' obligation to support legitimate children	371
325. Support of an adopted child	371
326. Support of an illegitimate child	372
327. Care of neglected or deserted children	372
328. Suits by children for injury or death of a parent	372
329. Recourse for injuries inflicted on your children	373
330. Parents' responsibility for damage and injuries by children	374
331. The obligation to educate children	377
332. Rights of schools and teachers to discipline children	379
333. The school's financial liability for injuries to students	380
334. If your child wants to get a job	381
335. Parents' rights to their children's earnings	381
336. Debts, contracts, lawsuits of minors	381
337. Property rights of minor children	382
WHEN CHILDREN GET IN TROUBLE WITH THE LAW
338. Legal status of minors who do wrong	383
339. Preliminary investigation of juvenile offenders	384
340. Juvenile court procedure	384
341. Punishment of juvenile offenders	386
342. Treatment of wayward minors and youthful offenders	386
GUARDIANSHIP AND ADOPTION
343. When children need legal guardians	388
344. Relations between legal guardians and wards	388
345. Trustees of children's property	389
346. The meaning of adoption	389
347. The importance of a lawyer in adoption proceedings	389
348. Where adopted children come from	390
349. Who may adopt a child	391
350. Legal steps in adopting a child	391
351. Private adoption vs. agency adoption of children	392
352. The danger of adopting a "black market" baby	396

353. When adoption may be revoked	396
354. Adoption of adults	398

YOUR OBLIGATIONS TO RELATIVES OTHER THAN YOUR CHILDREN

355. Support of your impoverished relatives	398
356. Legal protection of physically or mentally incompetent relatives	398
357. Commitment of the insane and mental incompetents	400
358. Discharge from mental hospitals	401

IF YOUR MARRIAGE IS IN TROUBLE

359. When things go wrong	401
360. Some basic definitions	402
361. Separation	403
362. Annulment	404
363. Divorce	406
364. Getting a divorce	406
365. Kinds of divorce decrees	414
366. The defense of condonation	417
367. Collusion	417
368. Alimony and other kinds of property settlement	418
369. Children of divorce	419

IX. Your Job, Profession or Business; Your Social Security

YOUR JOB, EMPLOYER AND WAGES

370. Your right to work	453
371. Minimum age requirements for employment	455
372. Wage and hour laws	458
373. Laws concerning employe safety and working conditions	459
374. Unfair labor practices	460
375. Insurance required of employers	461
376. The law of employer and employe	462
377. The employer's rights and duties	462
378. The employe's rights and duties	464
379. Who has an interest in your wages	470
380. Civil service jobs	471
381. Household help	475

YOUR JOB AND LABOR UNIONS

382. The role of the labor union	475
383. Who must join a union	477
384. Getting into a union—and staying in	477
385. Management actions that affect your union	479
386. Strikes and other union actions that affect you	480
387. Strikes by public workers	482
388. Court action by the public in strikes	483

YOUR JOB AS A SELF-EMPLOYED ARTISAN

389. Artisans who usually require licenses	483
390. The artisan's obligations to his customers	484
391. The customer's protection against the artisan	485
392. The artisan's protection against his customers	486

YOUR JOB AS A SALESMAN OR AGENT; DEALING WITH AGENTS

393. Agents and principals	487
394. Third parties	490

YOUR PROFESSION

395. The special status of professionals	491
396. Medicine and related professions	494
397. Law	496
398. Architecture	497
399. Professional engineering	498
400. Accounting	499
401. Teaching	500

YOUR BUSINESS

402. The three basic forms of business	504
403. The individual ownership	504
404. The partnership	505
405. The corporation	508
406. Your rights as a stockholder	512
407. Your business records	513
408. Taxes on your business	514
409. Terminating a business	516
410. Selling your business	516
411. Bankruptcy	518
412. Dissolving a partnership	518
413. Dissolving a corporation	520

YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY AND FINANCIAL PROTECTION

414. How the government protects your social welfare	521
415. Who is covered by social security	522
416. Social security and the self-employed	523
417. When you are "fully insured" under social security	523
418. Checking your social security account	524
419. How to claim your social security benefits	524
420. Your old-age benefits	525
421. Disability benefits under social security	526
422. Your wife's (or husband's) benefits	526
423. Collecting on separate accounts	527
424. Your children's benefits	527
425. Your survivors' benefits	527
426. Medicare—what it is	528
427. Your hospital insurance benefits under Medicare	528
428. Your medical insurance benefits under Medicare	529
429. Medicaid	529
430. Workmen's compensation	530
431. Nonoccupational disability insurance	531
432. Collecting unemployment insurance	531

YOUR VETERANS' RIGHTS

433. Veterans' rights under the GI Bill	532
434. Veterans' rights to their former jobs	533

435. Your GI home loan guarantee	533
436. Veterans' hospital and medical care	533
437. Compensation and pensions for disabled veterans	534
438. Social security and other benefits and the income tax	534

X. Your Money, Credit and Investments

YOUR MONEY, BANK ACCOUNTS AND CHECKS

439. What money is	537
440. Your checking account	538
441. Cashier's checks	540
442. Certified checks	540
443. Check clearance	541
444. Endorsements	541
445. Forgery	542
446. Savings accounts	542
447. Federal deposit insurance	545

YOUR CREDIT AND PERSONAL LOANS

448. How the law affects credit	545
449. Unsecured loans	546
450. Pawnbroker's loans	546
451. Mortgage loans	546
452. Chattel loans	547
453. Life insurance loans	548
454. Interest	548
455. Charge accounts and credit cards	551

WHEN YOU CAN'T PAY: INSOLVENCY AND BANKRUPTCY

456. Your duty to pay	551
457. Insolvency	552
458. Legal proceedings against a debtor	553
459. Favored creditors	553
460. Steps a debtor can take	554
461. Assignment for the benefit of creditors	555
462. Composition with creditors	555
463. Bankruptcy	555
464. Filing the petition in bankruptcy	556
465. Rights and duties of the creditors	558
466. Role of the trustee in bankruptcy	558
467. The discharge in bankruptcy	559
468. Advantages of the bankruptcy laws	559

IF YOU INVEST YOUR MONEY

469. Protecting the value of your money	560
470. Savings accounts as an investment	560
471. Certificates of time deposit	561
472. Federal bonds	561
473. State and municipal bonds	562
474. Stocks, bonds and mutual funds	562
475. Common stock	564

476. Preferred stock	566
477. Convertible preferred stock	567
478. Convertible bonds	567
479. Voting rights of common-stock holders	568
480. Legal protection for investors	568

XI. Your Insurance

THE NATURE OF INSURANCE

481. What insurance is	575
482. Roles of insurance agents and brokers	575
483. When your protection starts	576
484. Dealing with the insurance claim adjuster	577
485. Your recourse against the insurance company	578
486. Government-administered insurance	578

INSURANCE ON HOMES AND PROPERTY

487. Fire insurance	580
488. Burglary, robbery and theft insurance	584
489. Floaters—all-risk policies for personal property	584
490. Floater insurance on personal effects	585
491. Making a claim for property insurance	586
492. How much you can recover from the insurance company	587
493. Comprehensive home insurance policies	589
494. Postal insurance	591
495. Insurance rights and obligations under a mortgage	592

CASUALTY AND LIABILITY INSURANCE

496. Personal liability insurance	594
497. General liability insurance	595
498. Types of business insurance required by law	596
499. Other insurance that businesses should have	596
500. Rights and responsibilities under liability insurance	597
501. Automobile liability insurance	599

LIFE AND RETIREMENT INSURANCE

502. Whose life may be insured	599
503. Types of life insurance	602
504. Life insurance for veterans and GIs	607
505. Life insurance policies issued by banks	608
506. Ownership and beneficiary provisions	609
507. Premiums and dividends on life insurance	612
508. Borrowing against life insurance	614
509. Cancellation and reinstatement of life insurance	615
510. Life insurance trusts	616
511. Retirement insurance	617
512. Fraternal insurance contracts and burial insurance	620
513. Life insurance in business situations	621
514. If you misrepresent your age or state of health	622
515. Suicide	624
516. Making a claim on life insurance	624

INSURANCE AGAINST SICKNESS AND ACCIDENT

517. Understanding your health or accident insurance policy	625
518. Group insurance plans	628
519. Making a claim on your group insurance	633
520. Private health insurance policies	634
521. Major medical insurance	634
522. Private accident insurance policies	634
523. Private disability income insurance	636
524. Making a claim on your private health insurance policies	636
525. Social security and Medicare	636
526. Workmen's compensation laws	636

XII. Your Estate, Will and Death

MAKING YOUR WILL

527. The importance of your will	639
528. When to make your will	639
529. A wife's duty to make a will	640
530. Types of wills	640
531. Restrictions on your right to make a will	642
532. Making sure your will really says what you mean it to	644
533. Disinheriting members of your family	644
534. Property you cannot dispose of in your will	645
535. The importance of a lawyer when you make a will	645
536. Information your lawyer needs in drawing up your will	646
537. Format and contents of your will	646
538. Disposing of your property in your will	647
539. Disposing of real estate in your will	648
540. Bequeathing legacies in your will	648
541. Making charitable and educational bequests	649
542. Providing for your wife or husband in your will	649
543. Providing for your children, grandchildren and other relatives in your will	654
544. What happens to your estate if you and your wife die simultaneously	654
545. The advantages of leaving your estate in trust	655
546. Providing for payment of burial expenses, taxes and debts	657
547. Appointing executors of your will	658
548. Appointing trustees in your will	659
549. Appointing guardians in your will	659
550. Disposition of your life insurance proceeds	660
551. How to change or revoke your will	661
552. If all or part of your will is held invalid	661
553. Safeguarding your will and other important papers	662
554. Keeping your will up to date	663

IF YOU DIE WITHOUT MAKING A WILL

555. The meaning and dangers of intestacy	664
---	-----