Preface

This volume presents the most significant criminal law decisions in five areas: substantive criminal law (Chapter 1), policing and the Charter (Chapter 2), evidence (Chapter 3), criminal procedure (Chapter 4) and sentencing (Chapter 5). Gerry Ferguson has written the chapter on substantive criminal law, while Steve Coughlan has prepared chapters 2, 3 and 4. Michelle Lawrence of the University of Victoria has joined the team with this edition and is responsible for the sentencing chapter.

The material covered consists of cases which appeared in the Criminal Reports (seventh series) volumes 14 to 22 and the Canadian Criminal Cases (third series) volumes 315 to 327.

We wish to thank our families for their encouragement and understanding and the editorial staff at Carswell for their support. Steve Coughlan wishes to thank Mitch Huberman for his research assistance. Gerry Ferguson wishes to thank Victoria Luxford for her research and drafting assistance and Mary Wallace for her editorial assistance. Michelle Lawrence acknowledges with gratitude the assistance she received from Chantal Laing and Isabelle Busby.
