4 Reading

J. Read the story, and check the correct answer.

Saving Money?

Some people don't mind spending a lot of time to save a little money. My grandmother buys her food at three different stores. One store has the best prices on coffee. Another always has the least expensive milk. And the Super Saver has special coupons that let her pay a few cents less for some items.

My grandfather says, "I don't know if this is a good idea. Are we really saving money? We're spending a lot on gas and parking meters, and sometimes the food at Super Saver isn't the freshest. Then we have to throw it out. Besides that, I think driving around town to buy food is the least exciting way to spend a day."

But Grandma always says, "What do you mean? You're married to the smartest shopper in town. You should be happy!" Then she tells him about a little store just outside of town that has the cheapest eggs. It's only about fifteen minutes away.

1. What is the main idea of the first paragraph?

- ☐ Coupons can save you money.
- ☐ Some people save money by shopping at several different stores.
- ☐ Some stores sell inexpensive milk.

2. What does Grandma say in the third paragraph?

- ☐ I'll stop shopping at so many different stores.
- ☐ I'm a great shopper.
- ☐ I like to eat eggs.

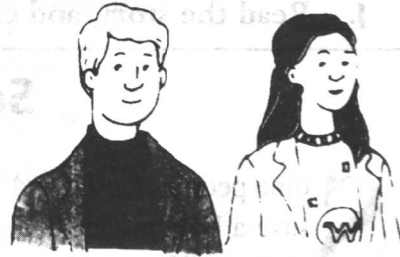

K. Complete each sentence with a word from the story.

1. Grandma buys her food at _____ different stores.
2. She likes Super Saver because of the _____.
3. Grandpa doesn't like spending money on _____.
4. Grandpa says that driving around is not very _____.
5. Grandma knows of a little store that sells the _____ eggs.
