This historical map depicts the Wuji River (武江) and its surrounding region. The river flows from the top left towards the bottom right. A large, walled city, labeled '武州' (Wuzhou), is situated on the left bank. Several tributaries are shown, including the '丹水' (Dan River) and '沁水' (Qin River). Other labels include '武州城' (Wuzhou City), '武州縣' (Wuzhou County), and '武州府' (Wuzhou Prefecture). The map also shows various mountains and smaller settlements, such as '武州鎮' (Wuzhou Town) and '武州堡' (Wuzhou Fort). The overall style is characteristic of traditional Chinese cartography, with clear lines and labels for geographical features.
