“Wake up!” Little Sister and I shouted.
“It’s Easter, Mom and Dad!”

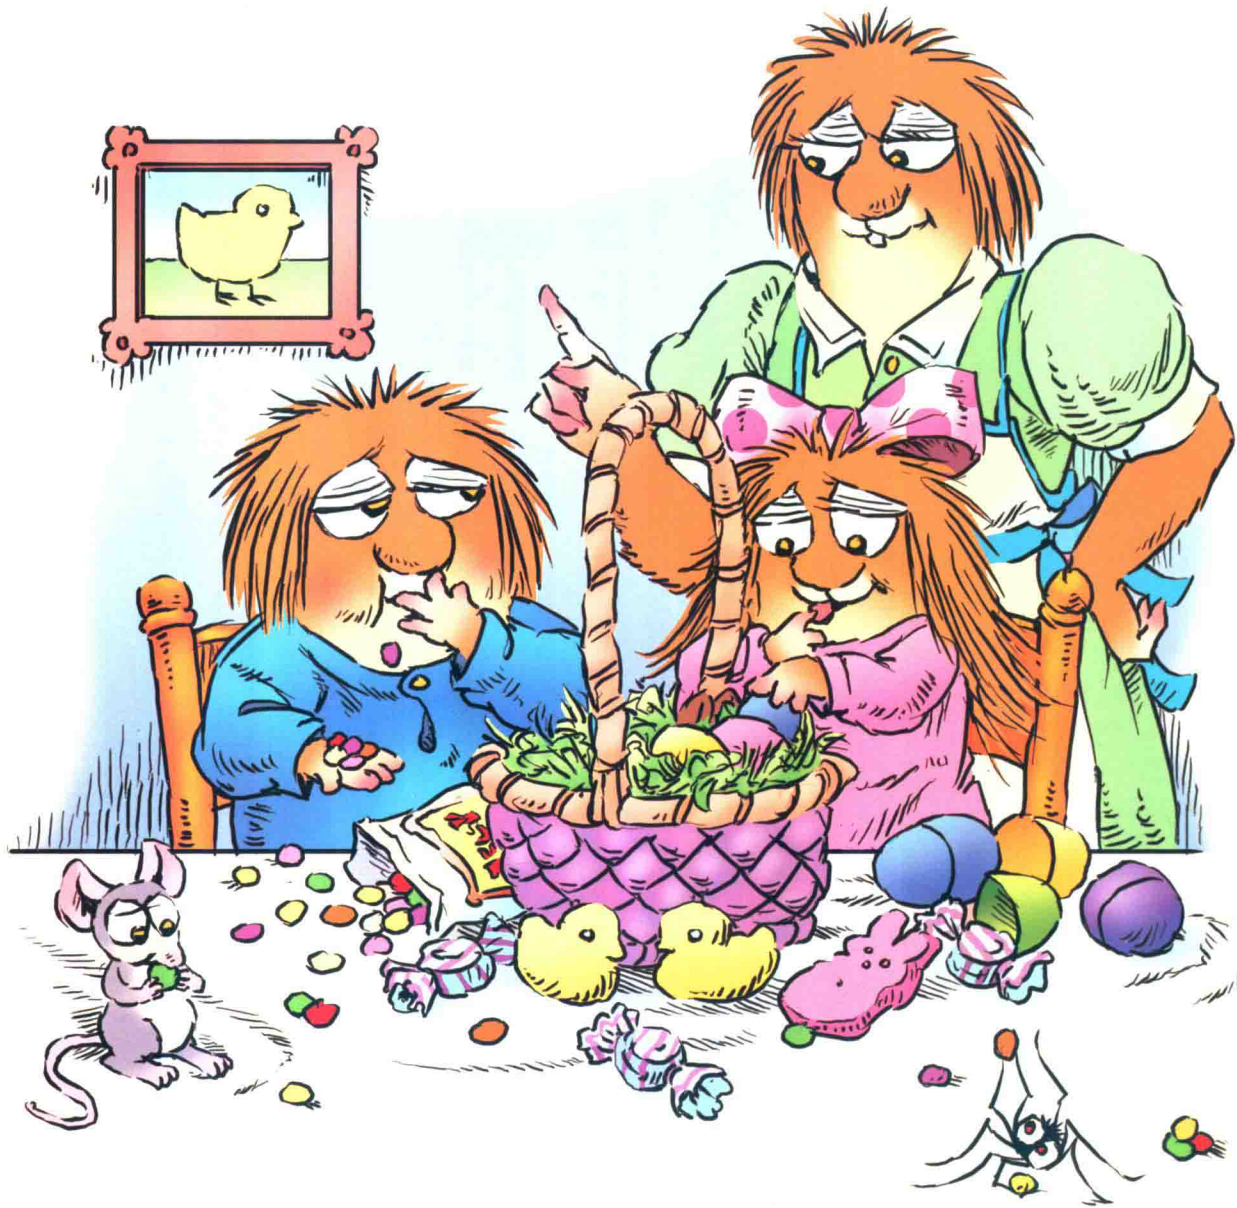

We ran downstairs.

The Easter bunny brought us baskets and a big surprise.

After breakfast, Little Sister and I helped make an Easter basket for Grandma and Grandpa. I tested the jellybeans to make sure they were okay.

Tom 11th

I made a special card just for Grandma.

Then we put on our brand-new Easter outfits.

I got dressed all by myself.

When we got to Grandma and Grandpa's house, we decorated Easter eggs. "I'm going to make a special Easter egg just for you, Grandpa!" I said.

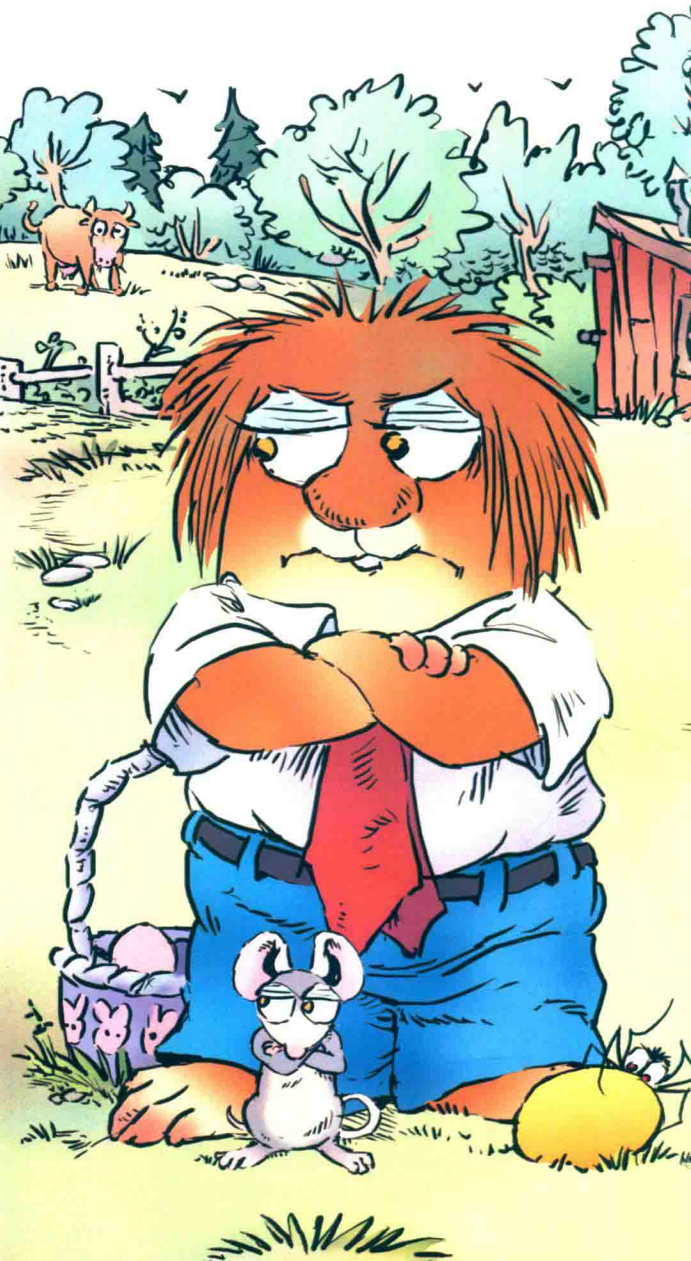

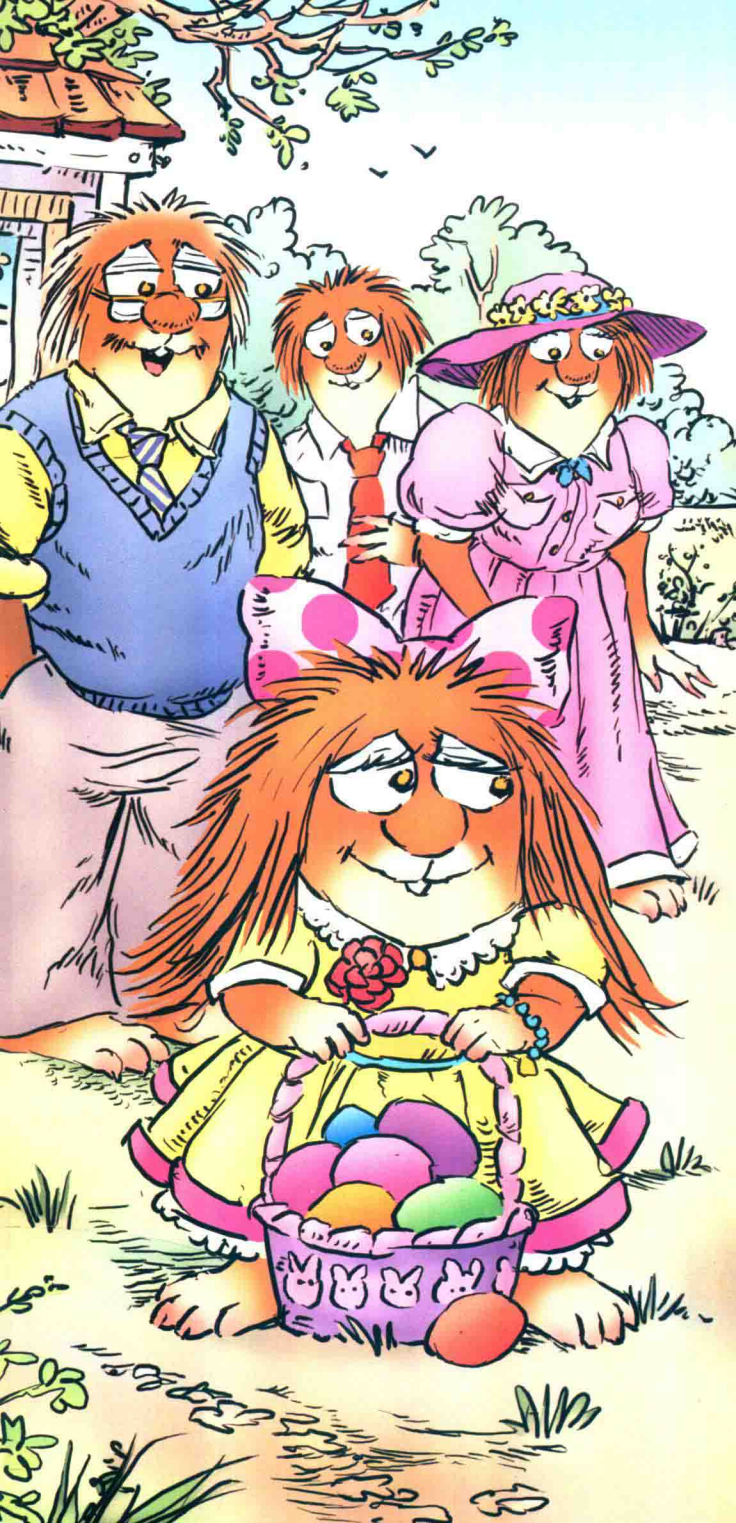

I held the egg really carefully, but eggs are kind of slippery, you know.

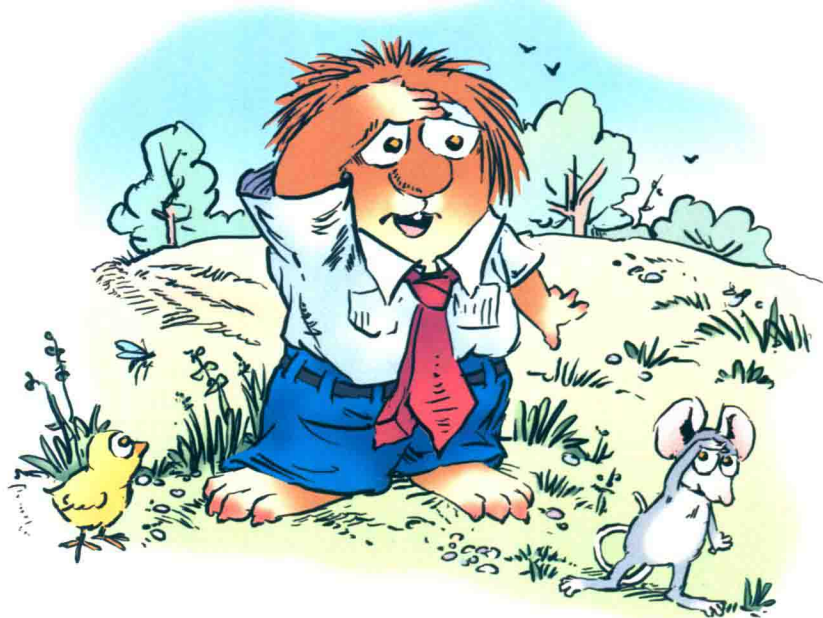

Finally, it was time. "May the great Easter egg hunt begin!" Grandpa yelled.

Little Sister found the most Easter eggs.

I realized I hadn't seen my bunny in a while. "Where's Egg?" I asked.

Everyone looked all over for Egg...

...but we couldn't find him anywhere.

Finally, I found him.
