Today is the first day of school. I get up early.

I wonder what I should wear. I look through all of my favorite clothes.

Oh! I have new school clothes. I get dressed.

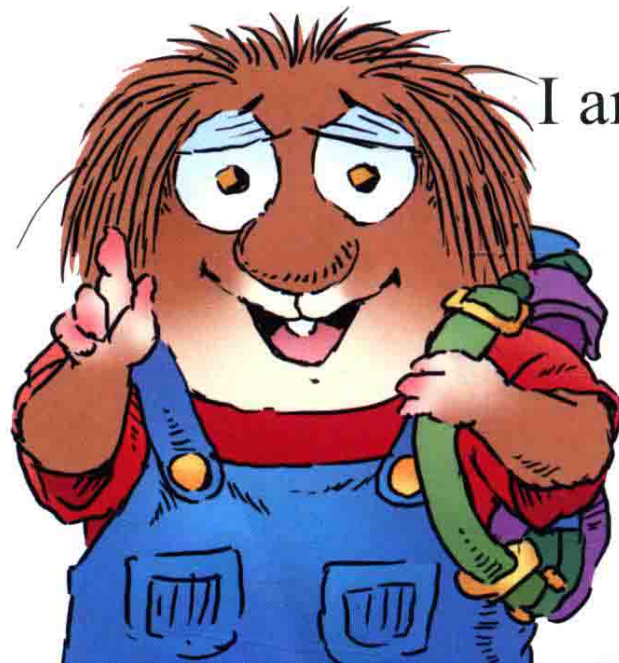

I have pencils and notepaper.

I have a new backpack to carry everything.

I am ready for my first day of school.

Pancakes, syrup, and one gooey egg. Yummy!

But first I must eat. Mom makes my favorite breakfast.

After I eat, I brush my teeth.

Now I am ready to catch the bus.

I wait and I wait. Maybe the bus left without me.

"No," says Mom. "There it is.
You're right on time."

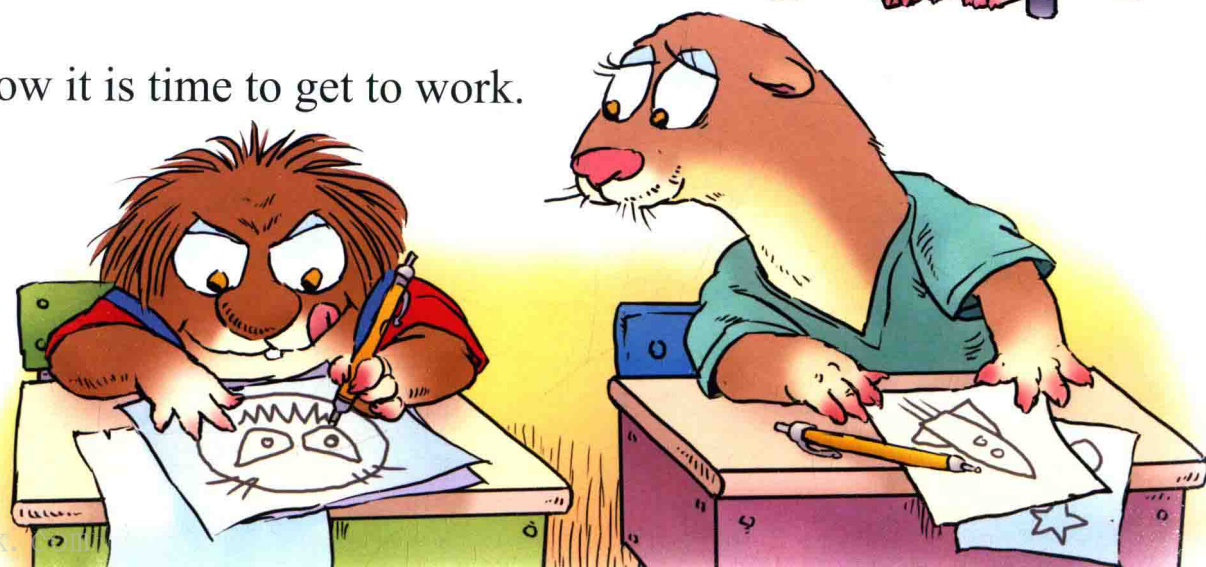

I have a new classroom.

I have a new desk.

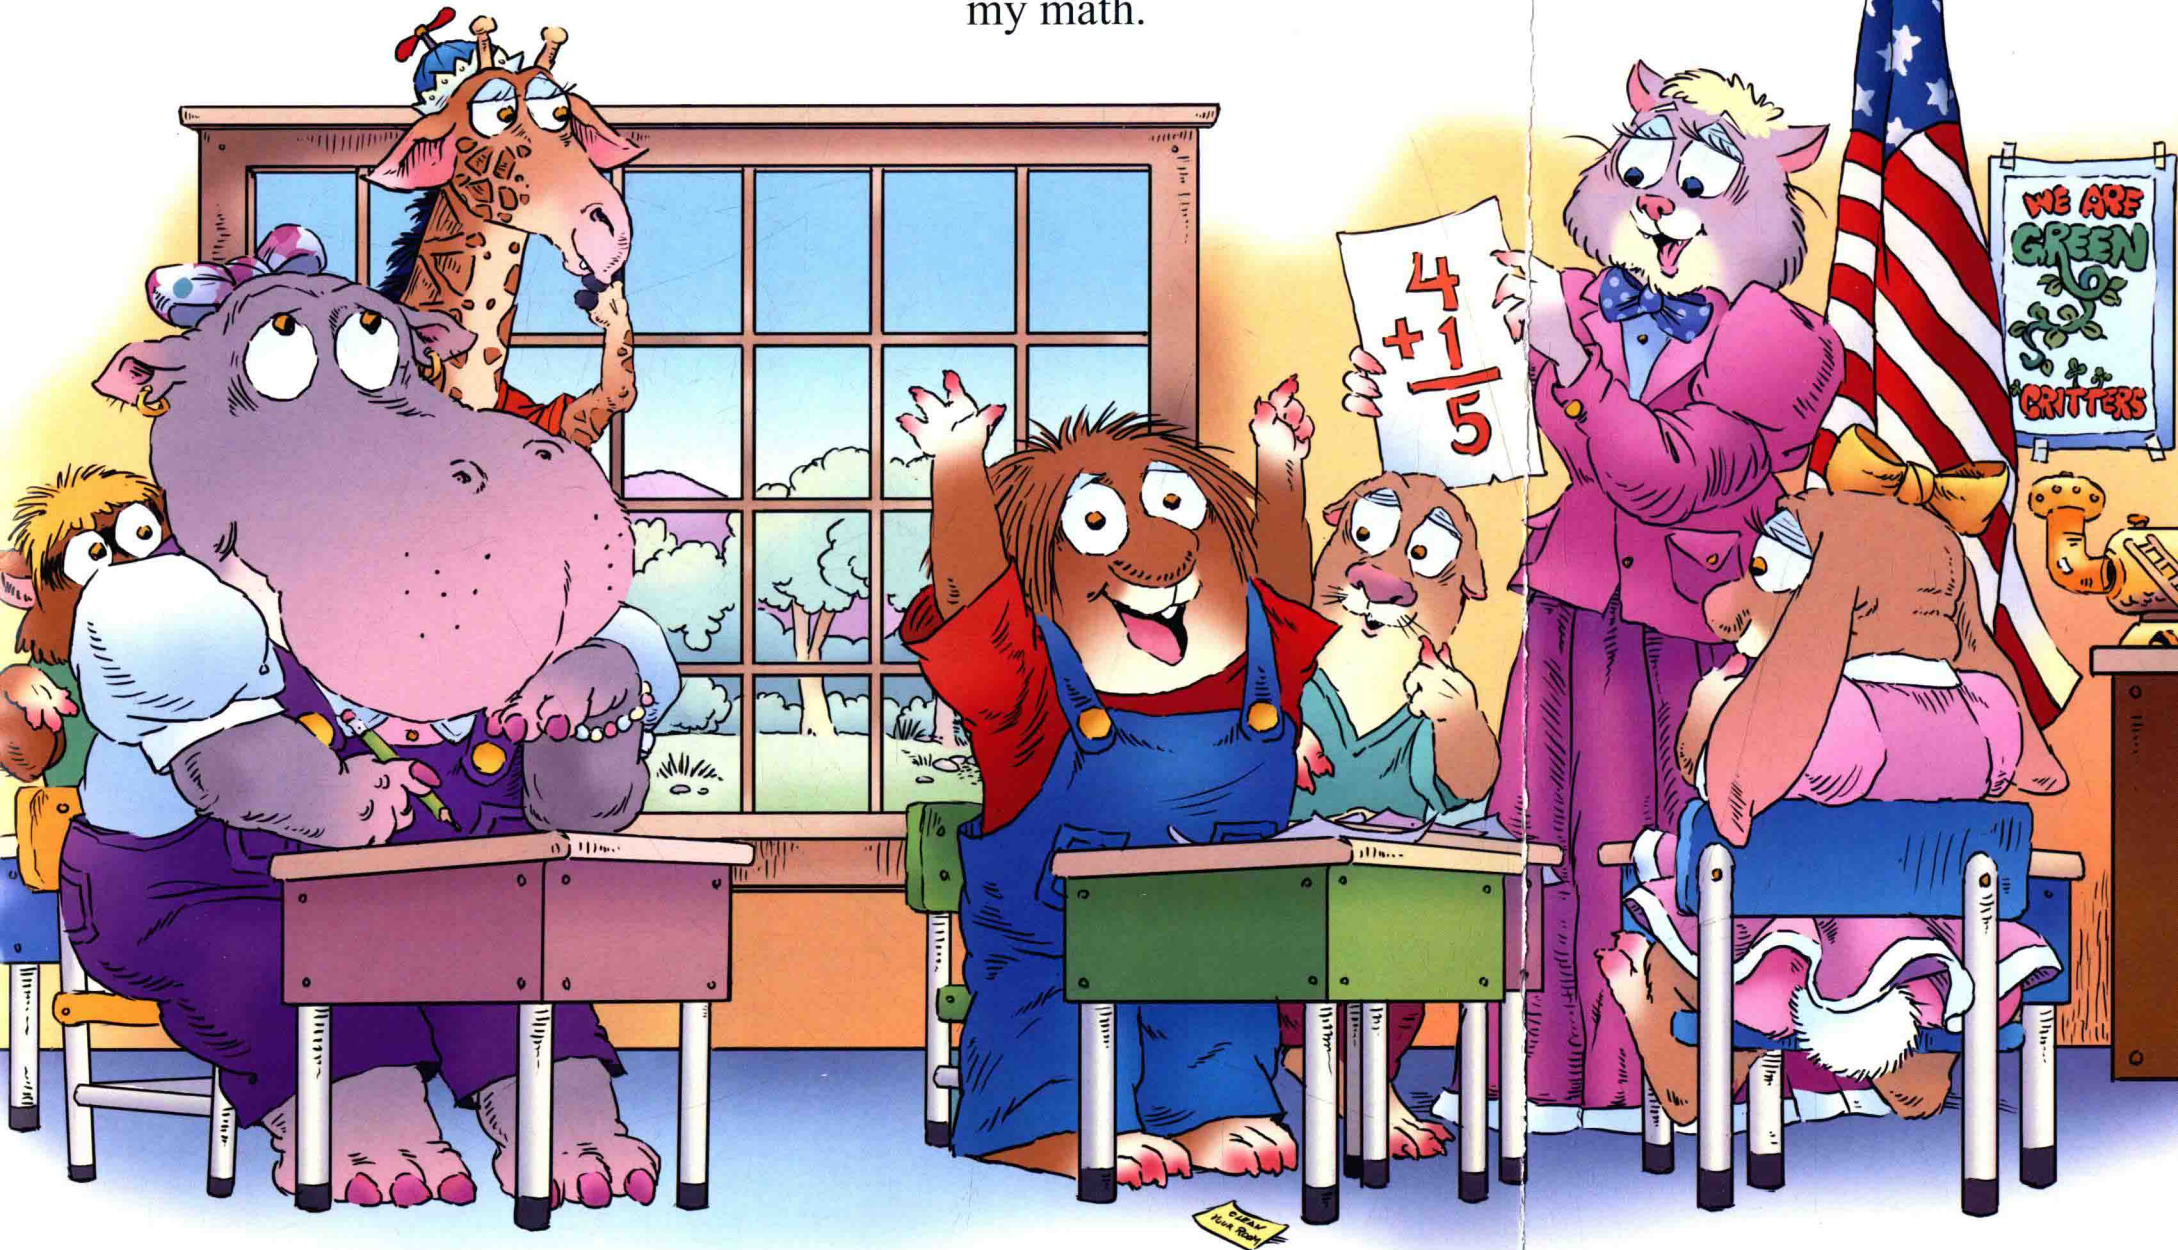

Now it is time to get to work.

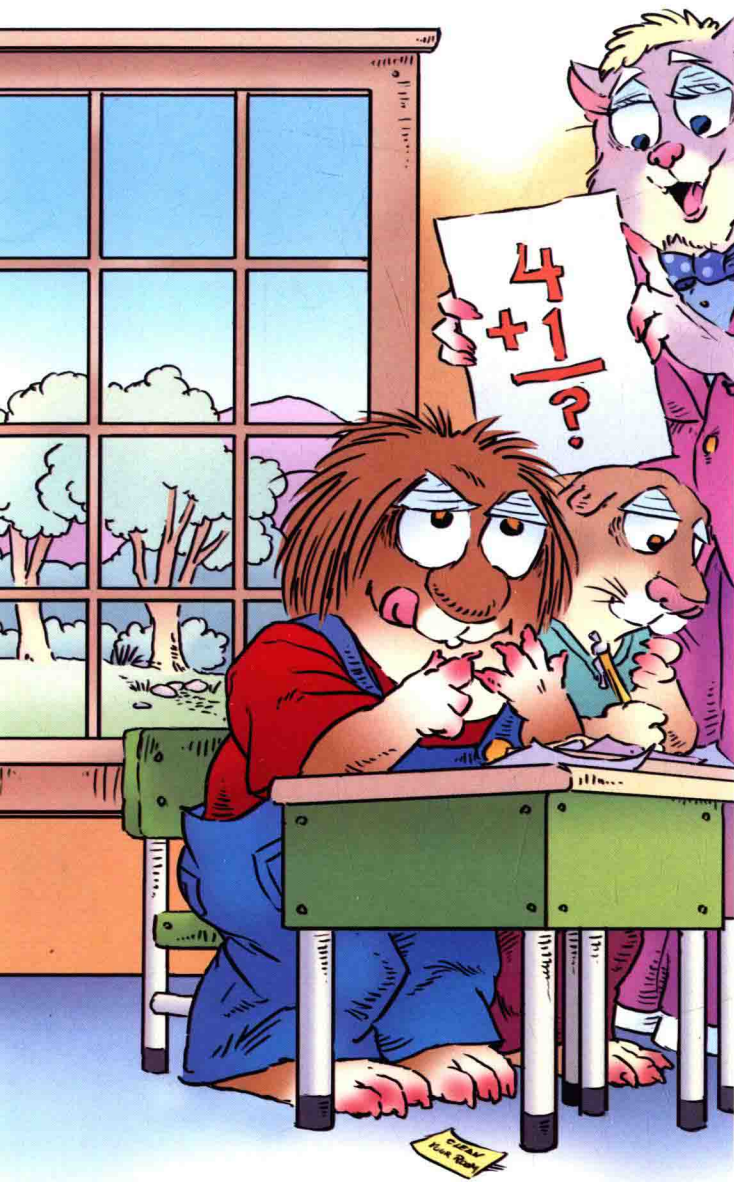

First we do addition.

Five! I got that one.
Mom helped me with my math.

Miss Kitty calls on me.

It is time for lunch. We walk to the cafeteria. I have a special lunch that Mom made just for me.

Boy, am I surprised!

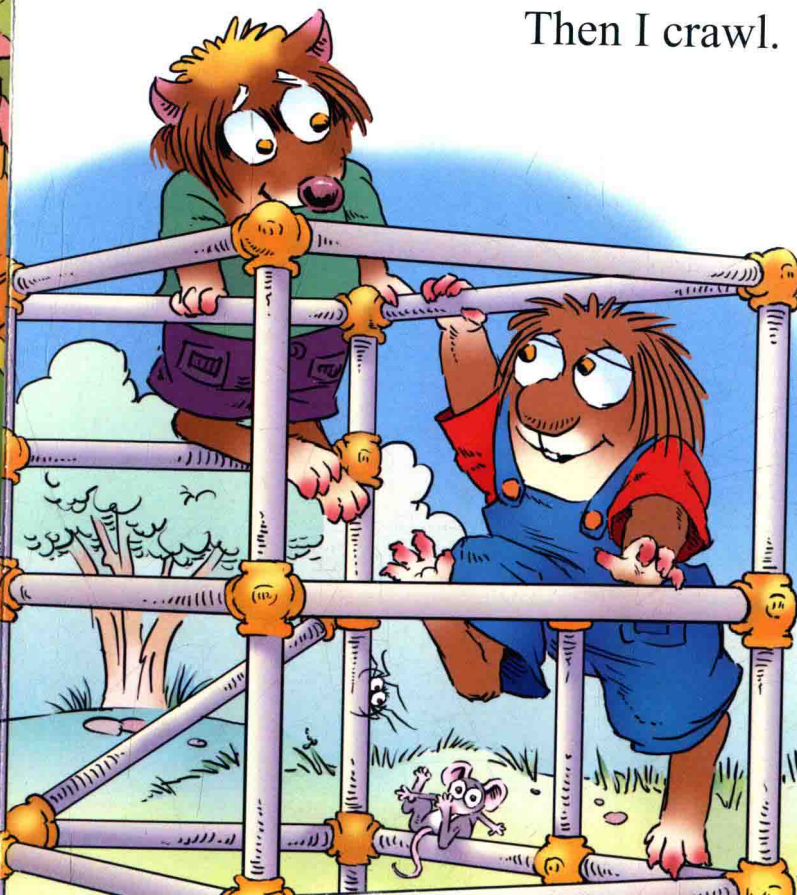

I hope Mom put a surprise
in my lunch.

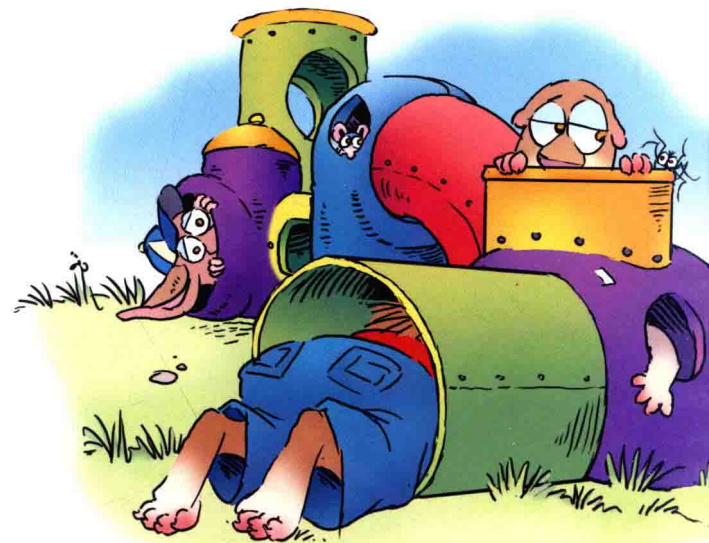

We play at recess. First I swing.

Then I crawl.

I climb the monkey bars.

We play tag. No one can catch me.

The bell rings to go inside.

And I was winning, too!

We build famous buildings. I make the Empire State Building.
Oops! I just knocked down the Eiffel Tower. Sorry!
