第三部分(U)英语应用

UI. 阅读理解(共20小题, 计分40%)

阅读下列短文, 并做每篇后面的题目, 从四个选项中, 选出能回答所提问题或完成所给句子的最佳答案。

(A)

Columbus made four voyages (航海) to the west between 1402 and 1504 in his useless search for a sea route to Asia. The mystery (谜) of why he failed to find it haunted (萦绕) him and filled him with sadness.

Wherever he went—to Mexico, Cuba, Guatemala, Jamaica, Panama, Peru and Brazil, it was always the same story. Instead of golden palaces, there were grass huts (棚屋) and palm-leaf tents (棕榈叶帐篷). Instead of silkrobed merchant princes (豪商) he found “Indians” who did not have so much as a shirt on their backs.

At times Columbus was caused to accept the truth that this new land was not China, not Japan, not the Spice Islands. He seemed to accept it as a part of the earth that the geographers of Europe had never heard of before. It was another world—and he called it exactly that—but Columbus also insisted until he died that the land he had reached was an unknown part of Asia.

() 66. In the course of his four voyages, Columbus succeeded in ____.

- A. finding Africa and the Spice Islands
- B. visiting several parts of Europe and South America
- C. sailing to Asia and South America
- D. visiting several places of North and South America

() 67. According to this selection, Columbus sailed in order to find ____.
