Composed Poem of Peace Garden

There is "Peace Garden" along the lakeside of Beijing King's Garden Villas. Wriggling and zigzagging path, scattering so many stone-inscriptions of written words by different nations ministers stationed in Chin, it's main purport, means to pray lucky, auspicious sign and everlasting peace forever, so it gained such a name "Peace Garden". The Chinese character "和" comes from "龠, [音: 月]" and "禾[音: 河]". "龠" is a kind of ancient musical instrument, "禾" is nowadays millet-小米. The present interpretation it ought to be the meaning of origin harmony of spirit and material civilization!

The ancient says "peace is praiseworthy", where it is so valuable? Just at the level of harmonious suit and rapprochement.

"琴qin" and "瑟se", two stringed musical instruments which play in great harmony, and the harmonic emotion between husband and wife make happy and good match, above mentioned like to denote the beauty of harmony and cooperation; many people live long and harvests be fruitful, to use maltose teasing the grandson, these can be called family happiness. Mutually peaceful and harmonic living together among neighborhood that could be called well conducted; merchants do business politely for making money which could be called fine. Renounce the family to become a monk, depend upon peace and harmony as to be worth for advocacy; the chivalrous swordsman wandering from place to place help others kindly and gently, it means to bring a romance to a happy ending. To play the flute, violin, piano or sing a song have to seek for in rhyme of different situations; the bush, tree and seedling are like best harmony breezing and gentle raining. Hand to hand in perfect union as being like-minded, commonly called harmonic hands; same temperament and different tone of singing, really consider peaceful and harmonica sound. Wonderful tone wave upon from hearing the harmonic strings; delicacies taste the harmonic custard. East and west, south and north, and the centre, ought to harmonious, gentle and amiable. Gong '宫'、shang '商'、jiao '角'、zhi '徵'、yu '羽', ought to be harmonic rhyme and sound. Work together with one heart, overcome difficulties, just like the saying: "To work together with one heart"; no strive for any thing in one's life, restrained to be showing talents, the sage sighed with "harmonious their rays of light, treat different things and people as the same". The player of chess is well matched, even difficult to distinguish superiority or inferiority; put down flame of war, a hundred of clan together thriving, the sound policy of cementing friendship through political marriages. The law of fortunate is called "grand peace", it means: peace reign under heaven; the law of golden mean is called "neutral peace", it means: justice and peace; the law of stability to the country is called "protect peace"; if these three laws with harmonious, might mean that the mode of a nation is stability. The upper blue is heaven, the middle yellow is ground and the lower green is people, if the three-color is melting together, we call: this is the pursuing spirit of "the heaven and people join together". The spring brings about myriad things, no limitation of life, rely on harmonious of haven and earth, sun and moon, yin and yang; achieve success and win recognition, ambition achieved, abide by the virtue of modest and courteous, give each other the right of way politely and mild and warm. Let's deplore with sighs! The sage said: "A gentleman is accommodating, lives with others and does not form cliques. Common people form cliques but not necessarily live in harmony", suitable call it: harmonious analyze and explain; have mutual affinity, encounter with intimate friends in drinking, naturally, lay all the cards on the table. As everyone knows, the small is home, the big calls nation, between nation and nation, further more need to take the peace as the valuable. Equal mutual benefit, get rid of the animosity, then could be able to reach peaceful coexistence; mutual respect and mutual help, also ought to be kind and gentle even live in harmony. The flood returned away, myriad things as the earth comes back to life, the white pigeon is carrying bits of the green; Government is efficient and the people are united, all neglected tasks are now being undertaken, a myriad of the rosy sun rays dyed penetrating the blue sky. Ah, here are the praises as below: I eulogy it, everybody loves it, guests admire it, its named "Peace Park", not only the beautiful scenery of mountains silhouetted in a lake alone, if the meaning of Chinese character "和"——in English is: "peace" which is not obvious, how could I hand over such a topic?
