　　2019 年广东省初中毕业生学业考试将依据《义务教育英语课程标准(2011 年版)》确定考查内容和要求，但不拘泥于教材。英语科试题在题型、分值等方面自 2018 年起有细微调整。其中，听力理解的听独白增加一篇独白，总分值增加到 30 分；单项填空减少 5 题，总分值降至 15 分；其他题型均不变。

　　通过分析 2018 年试卷，我们预测 2019 年广东省初中毕业生学业考试将在全面考查学生的基础知识和基本技能的基础上，保持主要知识覆盖；注重考查学生在具体语境中进行观察、思考、推理、分析、判断等语言综合运用的能力；注重材料的真实性和时效性，同时体现公平性；体现新课程评价改革的方向，特别是用英语做事情、完成任务的能力，为英语教学提供良好的导向。通过对试题题型及分值结构的分析和研究，可以看出，学生要完成试题必须有较好的语言基础和语言运用技能，同时要懂得调用非语言知识综合能力，如文化背景、看图能力、书面交际能力以及基本的生活经验等。

　　本书共提供 12 套模拟试题，严格按照广东省颁布的《广东省初中毕业生英语学科学业考试大纲》的要求编写，题型、难度等方面力求与中考原题接近或相似。书后附有重难点试题的答案详解，帮助学生更好地查漏补缺。

　　本书配有与试题相对应的听力录音材料，读者可下载"泛媒关联"App 扫码获取音频，也可登录华南理工大学出版社官网（www.scutpress.com.cn）点击下载专区的"课件下载"获取相关录音材料。

　　由于编者水平有限，书中疏漏难免，希望广大读者在使用过程中提出宝贵意见。同时，预祝广大考生取得优异成绩！

When you think of tourist sites in Britain, what do you think of first? Big Ben? Stonehenge? Each year, famous tourist sites like these attract millions of visitors.

But along with these famous places, there are thousands of other fascinating attractions that are only open to the public for a few days each year. During the Heritage（遗产）Open Days, which take place each September, tourists can visit places that would normally be closed.

Read below to learn more about some of the places that most tourists might not know about.

Roman baths—Chester

These Roman baths are almost 2,000 years old and offer a fascinating look into the history of the city of Chester. But they aren't often open to visitors because they are located in the basement of a restaurant! During Heritage Open Days, people can visit the shop's basement and find a little piece of history.

Tennis club—Birmingham

The Edgbaston Tennis Club opened in 1860 and is the oldest tennis club in the world. Visitors can see the club's collection of tennis clothes and equipment（设备）and learn about the game's rich history.

Aardman Animations（动画片）—Bristol

The studio（工作室）that produced the famous Wallace and Gromit animated films opens its doors to the public during Heritage Open Days to show visitors how its amazing films are made.

These are just a few of the thousands of places that are open to visitors during Heritage Open Days each year. If you're visiting Britain in September, look out for some of these spots！

( ) 56. Heritage Open Days refers to the time when _____.
   A. millions of tourists travel to Britain
   B. few people go to famous tourist sites
   C. visitors can go to any tourist sites for free
   D. attractions that are normally closed become open

( ) 57. The Roman baths usually aren't open to visitors because _____.
   A. the ticket price is too expensive   B. they are old and need careful protection
   C. they are in the basement of a restaurant   D. most people are not interested in them

( ) 58. Visitors can learn about film-making in _____.
   A. Stonehenge   B. Roman baths
   C. Aardman Animations   D. The Edgbaston tennis club

( ) 59. From the passage, we can learn that _____.
   A. Roman baths tell the history of cities in Bristol
   B. the tennis club has a history of over 150 years
   C. visitors can see famous tennis stars in the club
   D. Aardman Animations made a film about tourism

( ) 60. The passage mainly talks about _____.
   A. some places in the UK that most tourists might not know well
   B. the reasons why some places aren't open to the public
   C. the places of interests in these three cities in the UK
   D. the history of the Heritage Open Days in the UK

What was discovered by accident? The answer is penicillin（青霉素）. It kills germs（细菌）. By killing germs, it saves lives. Suppose you are sick and go to see a doctor. The doctor examines you. She says you have a staph infection（葡萄球菌感染）. She gives you some medicine. You take it. The medicine kills the staph. Soon you get well. Before penicillin, this would not happen. Staph would almost kill you.

Everyone wanted a medicine. Scientists worked day and night. They grew the staph in small dishes. Then they tried to kill it. But nothing worked.

Dr. Alexander Fleming was working to kill the staph germ. He worked for years. One day he took a cover off a dish. He looked inside. There was a thick growth of staph germ. There was also some mold（霉菌）. Then he saw something strange. Staph didn't grow where the mold was. This is what Fleming probably thought. "By accident, I found a mold to kill the dreaded staph."

This is how penicillin was found. But here's the real wonder. There are thousands of kinds of molds. But only one can kill staph. The mold must have fallen into the dish a few days before. The cover was probably off only a few seconds. In those few seconds the right mold fell into the right dish. Another man might have thrown the dish away. But Fleming was very careful and smart. He understood what the mold did. How lucky the humans were!

( ) 61. _____ was discovered by accident according to the passage.
    A. Penicillin   B. All medicine   C. All germs   D. Staph

( ) 62. During the experiments to find a medicine for staph infections, _____.
    A. the dishes were not covered   B. staph and mold were put together
    C. mold was kept in small dishes   D. staph was grown in small dishes

( ) 63. The underlined word "dreaded" might mean _____ in Chinese.
    A. 著名的   B. 健康的   C. 危险的   D. 可怕的

( ) 64. The last paragraph suggests that _____.
    A. accidents happen to everyone
    B. the careful person does not have accidents
    C. the careless person will miss valuable chances
    D. luck is enough when doing scientific experiments

( ) 65. This passage is mainly about _____.
    A. useful accidents   B. Dr. Fleming's research
    C. discovering penicillin   D. medicine for a staph infection

六、读写综合（本大题分为 A、B 两部分，共 20 分）

A. 信息归纳（本题有 5 小题，每小题 1 分，共 5 分）

请阅读下面这篇文章，根据所提供的信息，完成信息卡。

Sally is a teenage girl who wants to be a dancer. But her parents don't support her dream. "We want you to be a doctor," they always tell her.

Sally often feels sad. She thinks her parents always tell her what to do and don't care about her opinion. She wants to follow her parents' wishes, but she also wants to follow her own dreams.

A few months ago, she wanted to go on a trip with her friends. Her parents even said no to that.

"I just want to be my own person," Sally thought to herself. "What should I do?"

Amy, 13, is a class monitor. But she is not happy about it.

One day, in a self-study class, one student kept talking with his deskmate and made a lot of noise. Amy told him to be quiet, but he didn't listen to her and even made fun of her.

That was not the end. A debate competition（辩论赛）was coming. She encouraged her classmates to take part in it, but no one wanted to. She turned to her teacher for help. Her teacher said, "You'd better work it out yourself."

Amy was left to wonder, "What should I do?"

Andy always worries about what other people think about him.

At school, he's too afraid to answer any questions in case he gets them wrong. And when he meets new people, he tries hard to make friends with them by making up stories about himself. He wishes he could be more like his friends—they don't seem to care about what other people think of them.

"I wish I could spend less time caring about others' opinions," he thought to himself. "But I don't know how."

Information Card

Sally's dream job	81.
