

Arbitration in Romania

A Practitioner's Guide

Crenguța Leaua &
Flavius A. Baias (eds)

Wolters Kluwer

Arbitration in Romania

A Practitioner's Guide

Edited by
Crenguța Leaua
Flavius A. Baias

Wolters Kluwer

Published by:

Kluwer Law International B.V.
PO Box 316
2400 AH Alphen aan den Rijn
The Netherlands
Website: www.wklawbusiness.com

Sold and distributed in North, Central and South America by:

Wolters Kluwer Legal & Regulatory U.S.
7201 McKinney Circle
Frederick, MD 21704
United States of America
Email: customer.service@wolterskluwer.com

Sold and distributed in all other countries by:

Turpin Distribution Services Ltd
Stratton Business Park
Pegasus Drive, Biggleswade
Bedfordshire SG18 8TQ
United Kingdom
Email: kluwerlaw@turpin-distribution.com

Printed on acid-free paper:

ISBN 978-90-411-6698-2

© 2016 Kluwer Law International BV, The Netherlands

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without written permission from the publisher.

Permission to use this content must be obtained from the copyright owner. Please apply to: Permissions Department, Wolters Kluwer Legal & Regulatory U.S., 76 Ninth Avenue, 7th Floor, New York, NY 10011-5201, USA. Website: www.wklawbusiness.com

Printed in the United Kingdom.

Editors

Crenguța Leaua, PhD, is an associate professor of Business Law and EU Law at the Bucharest University of Economics and a visiting associate professor at the Bucharest University Faculty of Law, in the International Arbitration LLM Programme, teaching International Comparative Arbitration and Construction Arbitration. Since 2015, she is a vice-president of the ICC Court and a member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration, after being a member of the ICC Court and of the ICC task force on decisions as to costs and of the ICC task force on criminal law and arbitration. She is a past vice-president of the CICA-CCIR, the main arbitral institution in Romania. An experienced arbitrator in over 100 cases, she acts frequently in arbitrations under the ICC Paris rules and is also a member of the panel of arbitrators of WIPO, the Vienna International Arbitration Center, of the courts of arbitration attached to the Romanian, Bulgarian, Polish and Slovenian chambers of commerce, of Kuala Lumpur and Shanghai arbitration centres, being also appointed as arbitrator by the Danish Institute of Arbitration or in UNCITRAL arbitrations. A managing partner of 'Leaua & Asociații' law firm in Bucharest, she regularly acts as counsel in commercial arbitral proceedings not only under the rules of the ICSID and ICC, but as well under other rules or in ad hoc arbitrations. She has testified as expert in Romanian law in a number of international arbitrations and in US Courts proceedings. She is included in Who's Who Legal in international commercial arbitration since 2008 and in construction law since 2013. An author of three books, over forty articles and over twenty presentations in international conferences, she has also participated in numerous comparative law studies. Her affiliations include LCIA, IBA (where she acted as a member of the IBA subcommittee on conflict of interests in arbitration) and ICCA (where she is currently a member of the ICCA Publications Advisory Board). She is a vice-president of the Romanian Society of Construction Law.

Flavius A. Baias, PhD is the Dean of the University of Bucharest Faculty of Law. He is an associate professor, teaching Civil law (Real Property Rights, Obligations and Family Law). He is also an associated professor at the French-Romanian Law College, the University of Bucharest and was a visiting professor at the University Paris I 'Panthéon-Sorbonne', the University of Poitiers, the University of Bordeaux, the University of Sao Paulo, Brazil, the University of Louvain La Neuve, Belgium. An author and co-author of eleven books mainly on matters of civil law, including commentaries and annotations to the Romanian civil code, and of over twenty-five articles published in reputed law reviews, he has been awarded a number of prizes for his publishing activities, from the Romanian Academy, the Union of Jurists from Romania. He also regularly presents scientific papers in various national and international conferences. After serving as a judge, he was a practising attorney at law for a number of years and held office as Secretary of State in the Ministry of Justice. He directly took part in the drafting of laws and was a member of the Commission in charge with drafting the New Romanian Civil Code and the New Romanian Civil Procedural Code, currently in force. He was decorated with the National Order 'Star of Romania' in the rank of 'Commander', granted by the President of Romania and with the 'Palmes Academiques', in the rank of 'Knight', by the French Republic. He has extensive experience as an arbitrator under the rules of ICC Paris and CICA-CCIR and acts frequently as expert on Romanian Law in ICSID and ICC arbitration. He is listed as an arbitrator with CICA-CCIR, being a former member of its Board.

Contributors

Flavius A. Baias, PhD, is the Dean of the University of Bucharest Faculty of Law. He is an associate professor, teaching Civil law (real property rights, obligations and family law). He is also an associated professor at the French-Romanian Law College, the University of Bucharest and was a visiting professor at the University Paris I 'Panthéon-Sorbonne', the University of Poitiers, the University of Bordeaux, the University of Sao Paulo, Brazil, the University of Louvain La Neuve, Belgium. An author and co-author of eleven books mainly on matters of civil law, including commentaries and annotations to the Romanian civil code, and of over twenty-five articles published in reputed law reviews, he has been awarded a number of prizes for his publishing activities, from the Romanian Academy, the Union of Jurists from Romania. He also regularly presents scientific papers in various national and international conferences. After serving as a judge, he was a practising attorney at law for a number of years and held office as Secretary of State in the Ministry of Justice. He directly took part in the drafting of laws and was a member of the Commission in charge with drafting the New Romanian Civil Code and the New Romanian Civil Procedural Code, currently in force. He was decorated with the National Order 'Star of Romania' in the rank of 'Commander', granted by the President of Romania and with the 'Palme Académiques', in the rank of 'Knight', by the French Republic. He has extensive experience as an arbitrator under the rules of ICC Paris and CICA-CCIR and acts frequently as expert on Romanian Law in ICSID and ICC arbitration. He is listed as an arbitrator with CICA-CCIR, being a former member of its Board.

E-mail: flavius.baias@drept.unibuc.ro

He is the author of the chapter The Evolution of the Romanian Legislation on Arbitration.

Crina Baltag, PhD, received her PhD degree from Queen Mary University of London with a thesis on the Energy Charter Treaty, after she obtained her LLM in International Commercial Arbitration from Stockholm University and her MSc in International Business from the Academy of Economic Studies, Romania. She lectured at Queen Mary University of London and FGV Law, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. She is also a guest lecturer at the Stockholm University. She is the author of the book on The Energy Charter Treaty. The Notion of Investor, released in 2012 by Kluwer Law International. She also published various articles and book chapters on commercial and investment arbitration and delivered a number of conference and seminar papers on these topics. She is Associate Editor of the Kluwer Arbitration Blog. She is currently a freelance consultant in investment and commercial arbitration, public international law, international trade law and energy law. She is also the secretary general of the Arbitration and Mediation Center of the American Chamber of Commerce Brazil (AMCHAM). She is an attorney at law, qualified in Romania (inactive) and Brazil (foreign attorney-at-law, active), specializing in investment and commercial arbitration, public international law and energy law.

E-mail: crina.baltag@amchambrasil.com.br

She is the author of the chapter Investment Arbitration in Romania.

Teodora-Maria Bantaș-Văduva, PhD, has completed the Master of Business Law of the Faculty of Law, University of Bucharest and has received a PhD in Private International Law from the same university, with a doctoral paper entitled Rules of Private International Law in Civil and Commercial Matters in the European Law. She has published various articles in national and international law magazines in the field of private international law, commercial law and arbitration and has participated in numerous law conferences, in Romania and abroad. She is currently an assistant lecturer at the Faculty of Law, University of Bucharest, where she conducts seminars on Private international law, Commercial international law, International commercial contracts and conflicts of laws in contracts and settlement of disputes between states and nationals of other states, both for the LLB Programme and the International Arbitration LLM Programme. For the last three years, she has solely and successfully coordinated and coached teams of the Faculty of Law, University of Bucharest, to various international student Moot Courts, in the field of foreign investment arbitration, with impressive results therein. She is also a lawyer with the Bucharest Bar Association. The areas of expertise in which she has specialized are contracts, construction litigation, especially FIDIC contracts and commercial arbitration, which have garnered her extensive consulting and litigation experience.

E-mail: teodora-maria.bantas@drept.unibuc.ro

She is the co-author of the chapter The Applicable Law in International Arbitration together with Dragoș-Alexandru Sitaru.

Traian C. Briciu, PhD, is currently an associate professor at the Faculty of Law, University of Bucharest, where he teaches courses in civil procedure law, the organization of the legal professions, enforcement, arbitration and mediation. He is also a member of the Civil Procedure Center of the Faculty of Law, University of Bucharest. He has authored and co-authored a number of works and articles, published in reputed law magazines, mostly on matters of civil procedure and private law. He was a member of the editorial board of the Pandectele Romane law magazine (2002-2005). He is an attorney at law with 'Floreă Gheorghe & Asociații' Law Firm in Bucharest. He is also the director of the National Institute for the Training and Professional Development of Lawyers and a vice-president of the National Union of the Bar Associations in Romania. He acts as arbitrators, being listed with CICA-CCIR.

E-mail: traian-cornel.briciu@drept.unibuc.ro

He is the author of the chapter The Arbitrability of Disputes.

Ștefan Deaconu, PhD, is a PhD supervisor and professor of the Bucharest University Faculty of Law. He has taken extensive studies in the fields of public law and political sciences at the Political Sciences Faculty of the National School of Political and Administrative Sciences, at the Institute of Federalism, Fribourg University, Switzerland, at the National Defence University, the National Defence College and at the Académie Internationale de Droit Constitutionnel of Tunis. He is a Professor at the Faculty of Law of the University of Bucharest, where he teaches Constitutional Law, Political Institutions, and The European Union's Regulatory System. He has authored and co-authored over twenty works and forty articles, studies and chronicles published in prestigious magazines, mainly in the field of public law. For his scientific activity he was awarded the 'Vespasian Pella' prize by the Union of Jurists from Romania and received the 'Book of the month' award, granted by the Romanian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, for the book 'The Principle of Good Neighbourliness in Romanian law'. He acted as Advisor for legal issues to the President of Romania, Head of Legal Department of Presidential Administration (2005/2012) and Director of Permanent Committees Department of the Romanian Senate (2004/2005). He was awarded the 'Order of the Crown', the degree of 'Grand Officer' granted by King Albert II, M.S., Belgium and the National Order 'Star of Romania' in the rank of 'Knight', granted by the President of Romania. He is an attorney at law, partner with Leaua & Asociații Law Firm in Bucharest. He is acting as arbitrator, being appointed the President of CICA-CCIR, starting September 2015.

E-mail: stefan.deaconu@leaua.ro

He is the author of the chapters The Legislative Framework of Arbitration in Romania and Arbitration and constitutional law.

Dalma Demeter, PhD, graduated law at the Babes Bolyai University in Cluj Napoca, Romania and holds an SJD and an LL.M degree in international business law, a Total Law Diploma in Advanced European and Global Legal Practice and an Emory World Law Institute Certificate from the Central European University (Budapest, Hungary). She also received a Graduate Certificate in Tertiary Education from the University of Canberra, Australia, where she is currently an Assistant Professor in International Commercial Arbitration, International Sale of Goods Law, Legal Research Reading, Advanced Legal Research and Writing, Legal Methods and Skills, and Mooting at the Faculty of Business, Government & Law. She also chairs the Dispute resolution working group and is a member of the Faculty Education Committee. For her teaching activity, she received the Dean's Award for Teaching Excellence for an Early Career Academic and the Dean's Award for Innovation in Teaching & Learning – commendation. She is the author of International Commercial Arbitration - Ad Hoc versus Institutional and co-author of Religious influences over arbitral proceedings - personalizing or jeopardizing justice? and Investor-State Dispute Settlement Provisions and The Trans Pacific Partnership Agreement. She also delivered a number of conference presentations on international arbitration and teaching advocacy skills and is currently involved in several publication and research projects. She is a contributor to the Law Council International Law Section's submission to the Federal Attorney-General's Department Private international law reform consultation. Her professional affiliations include the Law Council of Australia, International Law Section; the International Chamber of Commerce Australia, ADR Committee; the Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration; the Institute for Arbitrators and Mediators Australia, graded arbitrator; the Australasian Forum for International Arbitration; ICC – YAF; YIAG; DIS 40; the International Federation of University Women and Arbitral Women. She is an arbitrator at the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot Court Competition and at Pre-moot practice rounds (she also coached the winning team at the 2013 competition).

E-mail: dalma.demeter@canberra.edu.au

She is the author of the chapter The Arbitrators. Appointment. Challenge. Liability.

Claudiu Constantin Dinu, PhD, is a lecturer in the Department of Private Law the Faculty of Law, University of Bucharest, where he teaches the organization and ethics of legal professions. He also holds lectures in civil procedure law both within the National Institute for Training and Professional Development of Lawyers and the Romanian Notary Public Institute. He is a founding member of the Civil Procedure Center of the University of Bucharest. He is also enrolled in postdoctoral research within the project 'University Partnership for Research – a step forward towards a postdoctoral school of the future'. He published twenty-one studies and articles in prestigious publications, mainly focusing on civil procedure law. Between April 2009 and December 2014, he served as Counsellor of State at the Department of Constitutional Law and then as Presidential Counsellor in the Presidential Administration of Romania. He is a listed arbitrator with CICA-CCIR and a practicing attorney at law in Bucharest, Romania, with a wide experience in dispute resolution.

E-mail: claudiu-constantin.dinu@drept.unibuc.ro

He is the co-author of the chapter Forced Execution of Arbitral Awards, together with Andra Filatov-Dodul.

Ștefan Dudas, PhDc, is a double major graduate in law and psychology from the University of Bucharest, also holds a Master's degree in private law from the same university. He is also a graduate of the LLM International Commercial Arbitration Law programme organized by the Stockholm University. Ștefan Dudas is currently writing his PhD in international law with a particular focus on international arbitration at the International Law Institute of the University of Vienna. He is an attorney at law, currently a senior associate with Musat & Asociații law firm in Bucharest. He has authored and co-authored a number of articles on international arbitration, published by internationally reputed arbitration magazines, and he delivered presentations during dedicated international conferences and workshops. He is an experienced arbitration lawyer, his experience including participating as counsel in the teams representing clients in arbitrations conducted under the arbitration rules of the ICC Paris, UNCITRAL, SCC in Stockholm, LCIA and ICSID. He is a member of the Young ICCA, YIAG, and the SCC Association Young Arbitrators Stockholm (YAS).

E-mail: a1349873@unet.univie.ac.at

He is the author of the chapter Setting Aside of Arbitral Awards.

Andra Filatov-Dodul, LLM, has a double major in law from Nicolae Titulescu University in Bucharest and political science from University of Bucharest. She is a graduate of the LLM International Commercial Arbitration programme of the University of Bucharest Faculty of Law. She is currently a senior associate with Leaua & Asociatii law firm in Bucharest. Her practice focuses on international arbitration, as well as advising on a broad range of civil and commercial matters, particularly in the areas of real property rights, M&A, competition, and intellectual property. Her arbitration experience includes international arbitrations under the rules of the rules of the ICC and ICSID, as well as with CICA-CCIR. She is a member of ICC YAF and YIAG and has participated as an arbitrator at the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot Court Competition. She has authored and co-authored articles in the fields of arbitration, intellectual and industrial property and also participated as a speaker in a number of conferences on international arbitration.

E-mail: andra.filatov@leaua.ro

She is the co-author of the chapter Forced Execution of Arbitral Awards, together with Claudiu Dinu.

Claudiu Ignat, PhD, received his PhD in mediation from the National School of Political and Administrative Studies, and also holds an LLM in mediation from the Faculty of Law of the Nicolae Titulescu University in Craiova. He is an authorized mediator and a mediation trainer, former Vice President of the Romanian Union of Mediation Centers (2005–2009). He is also an assistant lecturer at the Faculty of Law and Public Administration of the Spiru Haret University.

Claudiu Ignat has published extensively on mediation. He co-authored two monographs on mediation, Modalitati alternative de solutionare a conflictelor (ADR) [Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)] (Universitara, 2008) and Medierea – Standarde si Proceduri [Mediation – Standards and Procedures] (Univeristara, 2009) and published numerous articles in dedicated law journals. He is co-editor in chief of the Revista Medierea [The Mediation Journal].

E-mail: claudiu@lexignat.ro

He is the co-author of the chapter Legal Framework of Mediation in Romania, together with Cornelia Lefter.

Crenguța Leaua, PhD, is an associate professor of Business Law and EU Law at the Bucharest University of Economics and a visiting associate professor at the Bucharest University Faculty of Law, in the International Arbitration LLM Programme, teaching

International Comparative Arbitration and Construction Arbitration. Since 2015, she is a vice-president of the ICC Court and a member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration, after being a member of the ICC Court and of the ICC task force on decisions as to costs and of the ICC task force on criminal law and arbitration. She is a past vice-president of the CICA-CCIR, the main arbitral institution in Romania. An experienced arbitrator, in over 100 cases, she acts frequently in arbitrations under the ICC Paris rules and is also a member of the panel of arbitrators of WIPO, the Vienna International Arbitration Center, of the courts of arbitration attached to the Romanian, Bulgarian, Polish and Slovenian chambers of commerce, of Kuala Lumpur and Shanghai arbitration centres, being also appointed as arbitrator by the Danish Institute of Arbitration or in UNCITRAL arbitrations. A managing partner of 'Leaua & Asociatii' law firm in Bucharest, she regularly acts not only as counsel in commercial arbitral proceedings under the rules of the ICSID and ICC, but as well under other rules or in ad hoc arbitrations. She testified as expert in Romanian law in a number of international arbitrations and in US Courts proceedings. She is included in Who's Who Legal in international commercial arbitration since 2008 and in construction law since 2013. An author of three books, over forty articles and over twenty presentations in international conferences, she has also participated in numerous comparative law studies. Her affiliations include LCIA, IBA (where she acted as a member of the IBA subcommittee on conflict of interests in arbitration) and ICCA (where she is currently a member of the ICCA Publications Advisory Board). She is a vice-president of the Romanian Society of Construction Law.

E-mail: crenguta.leaua@leaua.ro.

She is the author of the chapters The Arbitration Agreement, The Arbitral Award and, together with Corina Tanase, co-author of the chapter Dispute Adjudication Board in Romania.

Cornelia Lefter, PhD, received her PhD from the Faculty of Law, University of Bucharest. She is also a graduate of the Business Law and French Companies courses at the University College of Management at the University of Toulouse I, Community Law at the European Institute of Public Administration, Maastricht, the Institute of Economics and Business Law at the University of Orleans and the Faculty of Law, University of Reading, of the Canadian Commercial Law courses at the Faculty of Law, University of Quebec at Montreal, and European Company Law courses at the Conservatory of Arts and Crafts, Paris. She is currently a Professor at the Department of Law of the Bucharest University of Economic Studies, a PhD research coordinator in the field of commercial law and EU law. She is also an associate professor of EU competition law at the University of Orleans, the Faculty of Law, Economics and Management. She teaches the EU Law and Arbitration course in the LLM International Commercial Arbitration programme of the University of Bucharest Faculty of Law, as a visiting professor. She is a member of the International Association of Economic Law based in Louvain-la-Neuve, Belgium and of the Association of International Law and International Relations, European Integration Department. She is a vastly experienced lawyer and also an arbitrator listed with the Court of International Commercial Arbitration by the Romanian Chamber of Commerce and Industry. She also acts as an authorized mediator.

E-mail: contact@lefter.org

She is the co-author of the chapter Legal Framework of Mediation in Romania together with Claudiu Ignat.

Alina Leoveanu, LL.M., holds Bachelor's degree in Romanian legal studies from the University of Craiova, Romania and a Master's degree in European Union Law from the University of Paris I Panthéon – Sorbonne. She joined the ICC International Court of Arbitration as Deputy Counsel in August 2007. In her function, Alina Leoveanu has administered hundreds of arbitration proceedings from Central and Eastern Europe. She is also the Head of the ICC YAF (Young Arbitrators Forum) Europe and Russia Chapter. Before joining the ICC International Court of Arbitration, she worked as a Case processing Lawyer at the European Court of Human Rights in Strasbourg, France. Since 2010, she has been a member of the Organizing Committee of the Concours d'Arbitrage international de Paris organized by l'Ecole de Droit de Sciences Po, Clifford Chance, Editions Lamy, Total and the ICC. She has acted as arbitrator at the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot, ICC Pre-Moot (Paris, France), GRAF & PITKOWITZ Pre-Moot (Vienna, Austria) and Concours d'Arbitrage international de Paris (Paris, France) since 2009.

E-mail: alina.leoveanu@iccwbo.org

She is the author of the chapter Romanian Arbitration Law Issues in ICC Paris Arbitration Practice.

Mihaela Maravela, holds a Bachelor's degree in Romanian legal studies from the University of Bucharest. Also, she has postgraduate studies in private law, arbitration, banking and financing, and intellectual property (Bucharest, Geneva, Moscow). She is practicing as attorney at law, a partner with Leaua and Asociatii law firm in Bucharest, Romania. Her top specialization is intellectual property law, acting both as counsel or as neutral in various IP disputes. She is a member of the WIPO and Kuala Lumpur list of neutrals, with appointments in over fifty dispute domain name resolution cases. In 2015, she was invited to deliver a lecture on Domain Name Disputes within the Intellectual Property Arbitration course at the LL.M Programme 'International Commercial Arbitration' of the Bucharest University Law School. She is a lawyer experienced in arbitration, acting as counsel under the ICSID Rules, ICC Rules and CICA-CCIR Rules. She has particular experience in EU and public law matters, energy and gas, including EU regulatory compliance in relation to energy and environment, state aid and competition regulations, merger and acquisition projects and consumer law. She acted as National Romanian correspondent of the Centre for Strategy & Evaluation Services LLP Westering House for the project 'Pilot Field Study on the Functioning of the National Judicial Systems for the Application of Consumer Protection Law Rules' (2013-2014) and as national correspondent of the Bielefeld University in Germany for the project 'EU Consumer Law Compendium, Update of the EU Consumer Law Acquis Database' (2007-2012). She is a published author and international conference speaker in the field of intellectual property.

E-mail: mihaela.maravela@leaua.ro

She is the author of the chapter Domain Name Disputes in Romania.

Matei Purice, LL.M., holds law degrees from the University of Paris I Pantheon-Sorbonne and the University of Bucharest. He also has a Master's degree in International and European Law from the Institut du Droit de la Paix et du Developpement of the University of Nice. He is a member of the Bucharest Bar and of the Romanian Lawyer's Association, being currently an associate in Freshfields' international arbitration group, having practiced in the Paris, Abu Dhabi and Dubai offices. He focuses his practice on investment treaty arbitration as well as real-estate, engineering and major construction-related commercial disputes. He has acted as counsel in matters before ICSID, ICC, DIAC and the Court of International Commercial Arbitration of Bucharest under various legal systems. As arbitrator, or secretary to arbitral tribunals, he has been involved in cases before the ICC and DIAC. Before joining Freshfields, he was an associate in the arbitration practice group of 'Tuca, Zbarcea & Asociatii' in Bucharest and an assistant lecturer in Public International Law at the Faculty of Law of the University of Bucharest. He is also a member of the ICC UAE, ICC YAF, and ASA Below forty.

E-mail: matei.purice@freshfields.com

He is the author of the chapter Time-Limit for Rendering the Award.

Adrian Rațiu, is a lawyer and Managing Partner with the 'Rațiu & Rațiu' Law firm, specialized in high stake business litigation & arbitration particularly in the field of construction projects. He is also an arbitrator on the list of the Romanian Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Romania, a certified mediator and a listed insolvency practitioner. Educated at the University of Bucharest Law Faculty, trained as a student in Private Law by the 'Robert Schumann' Law Faculty in Strasbourg and as a business lawyer by the Paris Bar Association, He is formed as a barrister having top-level administrative experience. He is acknowledged as an experienced dispute resolution lawyer in Romania, having dealt with business litigation and mediation and with domestic and international arbitration by representing both State institutions or state-owned companies and private companies. He is a current collaborator of the Romanian Arbitration Journal edited by the Romanian Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Romania

E-mail: adrian.ratiu@ratiu.ro

He is the author of the chapter The Role of Courts During the Arbitral Proceedings.

Ioan Schiau, PhD, is the vice-dean of the 'Transilvania' University in Brasov, and a professor at both said university and the 'Europeana Dragan' University in Lugoj, the Faculty of Law. He has completed post-university studies in administrative law and administration science and holds a PhD in corporate law from the 'Babeș Bolyai'

University in Cluj-Napoca, Romania. In his legal career, he acted as director of the Trade Registry (1990-1994) and served as judge with the Brasov court of law. He published thirteen volumes dedicated to matters of civil law, commercial and corporate law, arbitration, competition, and private international law. He also authored and co-authored an impressive number of articles, many of which on matters of international arbitration, published in prestigious law magazines. He is currently practicing as attorney at law with Schiau & Prescure Law Firm in Brasov, Romania. He is the President of the Court of Commercial Arbitration attached to the Brasov Chamber of Industry and Commerce and a listed arbitrator with the Court of International Commercial Arbitration attached to the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Romania.

E-mail: schiau@schiau-prescure.ro

He is the author of the chapter The Arbitral Proceedings.

Andreea N. Simulescu, LL.M., holds a Bachelor's degree in Romanian legal studies from the University of Craiova, Romania and a Master's degree in Intensive Civil and Civil Procedural Law from 'Titu Maiorescu' University, Bucharest. She has over fifteen years of experience in various domains of the legal field including construction law, public procurement and public law, corporate, environment, energy regulatory framework, banking. She has extensive experience in drafting and negotiating commercial contracts. She has extensive experience as a barrister in front of national courts of all levels, including High Court of Cassation and Justice. She has a wide experience as counsel in numerous arbitration proceedings under the CICA-CCCIR Rules, ICC Rules or UNICTRAL Rules. She is currently a partner with Leaua & Asociatii law firm. She is a member of ICC-YAF. She co-authored several articles in Global Arbitration Review and in Romanian Arbitration Review. Since 2010, she has been listed as arbitrator by the Court of Arbitration of the Brasov Chamber of Commerce.

E-mail: andreea.simulescu@leaua.ro

She is the author of the chapter The Arbitral Costs.

Dragoş-Alexandru Sitaru, PhD, is a Professor at the Faculty of Law of Bucharest University, teaching Commercial International and Private International Law at license, master and doctoral levels. He is an author of three academic treatises and more than forty monographs and articles in the field of International Commercial Law, Private International Law and Civil Law, edited in Romania and abroad. He also is a speaker in many conferences in Romania, U.S.A., England, Belgium, Finland, Denmark etc., in the field of International Commercial Law. He acts as a counsel for Romanian and foreign clients (banks, companies and personalities from Europe, America etc.). He is a member of the Board of CICA-CCIR and of the Scientific Council of the Romanian Arbitration Review published by CICA-CCIR. He is an 'Honorary Member' in the Association of Fellows and Legal Scholars of the Center for International Legal Studies, Salzburg, Austria and Member of the International Law Association (ILA). He received the Prize of the Romanian Association of Lawyers, for the Treatise 'Private International Law' and the Prize 'Nicolae Titulescu' of the Romanian Academy, for the Treatise 'International Commercial Law'. He participated at many major international scientific reunions, mainly in the field of international commercial arbitration, in Romania and abroad. He is an arbitrator listed by CICA-CCIR, by the Court of Arbitration attached to the Chamber of Commerce, Industry and Navigation Constanta and by the Bucharest Stock Exchange Arbitration Court. He is a Member of the ICSID Panel of Conciliators and Arbitrators, designated by Romania as Contracting State and is listed as arbitrator by the International Arbitral Centre of the Austrian Federal Economic Chamber, Vienna, Austria (VIAC) and the Arbitration Court attached to the Hungarian Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Budapest. He was also nominated as arbitrator in several ad hoc arbitration cases, including under UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules. He acts as arbitrator at ICC Paris where he is also a country rapporteur for Romania in the ICC Commission on Arbitration: 'Task Force on National Rules of Procedure for Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Awards pursuant to the New York Convention of 1958'. He acted as expert on Romanian Law nominated before several foreign courts of justice and arbitration institutions (i.e., arbitration courts in London, London Court of Appeal, ICC Paris, UNCITRAL arbitrations in Paris, London, Geneva, Vienna etc.). He is an attorney at law, partner of 'Sitaru & Asociatii' law firm in Bucharest, with a wide practice in international private law and arbitration.

E-mail: dragoş-alexandru.sitaru@drept.unibuc.ro

He is the author with of the chapter The Applicable Law in International Arbitration together with Teodora-Maria Bantaş-Văduva.

Ileana M. Smeureanu, PhD, graduated Bucharest University Faculty of Law and obtained an SJD degree from Central European University (Budapest, Hungary), and LL.M. degrees from the George Washington University (Washington, DC), Leiden University (Leiden, The Netherlands) and Central European University (Budapest, Hungary). During her doctoral studies, Ileana trained with the ICC Court of Arbitration, the Singapore International Arbitration Centre, and four international law firms in Paris and Singapore. In addition, she worked on corporate and banking matters for a Canadian-Romanian law boutique and on secured transactions and bankruptcy matters for two Romanian banks. She is author of the book Confidentiality in International Commercial Arbitration (Kluwer Law International, 2011) and has lectured on the topic in Washington, DC and Bucharest, Romania. Most recently, she co-authored the English translation of the new Romanian arbitration law for the International Handbook on Commercial Arbitration (ICCA Supplement 74, May 2013). She is also an editor and case reporter for the International Arbitration Case Law network ('IACL'), an international arbitration database that is available in English, Spanish, and French under the auspices of the School of International Arbitration at Queen Mary, University of London. She is a member of Arbitral Women, and the young international arbitration groups of the ICDR, LCIA and ICC. She practices with the international law firm Jones Day office in Paris, while being also a member of the New York State Bar Association and the Romanian Bar Association. She concentrates her practice in international dispute resolution, with a focus on ICC commercial arbitration. Before joining Jones Day, Ileana worked in London as a research assistant in the Chambers of Dr Julian D

M Lew in London, and prior to that she was an associate with the International Law Institute ('ILI') in Washington, DC. In that capacity, she participated in the training of government officials in international arbitration, mediation, and public procurement, and assisted in the founding of the ILI International Investment Law Center.

E-mail: ismeureanu@jonesday.com

She is the author of the chapter Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards in Romania.

Cristiana I. Stoica, PhD, holds the PhD in international commercial law from the Faculty of Law, University of Bucharest and has taken various professional training programmes organized by prestigious international universities and institutions including, among others, The Hague Academy of Private International Law and the Council of Europe. She also attended classes in international financing held by the EBRD. She graduated specialty courses at the European Council and was expert on human rights issues. She was an associated professor (1992-2000) at the University of Bucharest, the International Faculty of Political and Administrative Studies, where she taught classes in Commercial Law and Private International Law and she is a visiting professor at the Bucharest University Faculty of Law International Arbitration LLM programme, where she teaches the CICA-CCIR arbitration procedure. She authored and co-authored books and published numerous articles and works both in Romania and abroad, mainly in the subject fields of private international law, arbitration, company law, financing, capital markets and equity. She is practicing as arbitrator, being listed with CICA-CCIR. She is also affiliated to a number of international professional bodies and institutions, including the International Association of Lawyers (UIA) where she is a member of the international arbitration commission, the World Link for Law, where he is a member of the Board, responsible with international arbitration practice, the Romanian-British Chamber of Commerce, the Romanian-American Chamber of Commerce, and the Romanian-German Chamber of Commerce. She is a practicing lawyer, founding partner of Stoica & Asociatii law firm in Bucharest, with a rich experience in international commercial arbitration, private international law, corporate and civil law.

E-mail: istoica@stoica-asociatii.ro

She is the author of the chapter Institutional Arbitration in Romania.

Corina Tănase, LLM, holds a Bachelor's degree in Romanian legal studies from the University of Bucharest and is a graduate of the LLM International Commercial Arbitration programme of the University of Bucharest Faculty of Law.

She is currently a senior associate with Leaua & Asociatii law firm in Bucharest. She provided legal assistance and representation in numerous international commercial arbitrations under the rules of the ICC and CICA-CCIR, as well as in adjudication procedures (Dispute Adjudication Board). Her practice focuses on international commercial arbitration, as well as on construction contracts, especially FIDIC type contracts, aviation law and on a broad range of civil and commercial matters. She has participated as an arbitrator at the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration

Moot Court Competition and co-authored a number of publications in the field of arbitration.

E-mail: corina.tanase@leaua.ro

She is the co-author of the chapter Dispute Adjudication Board in Romania together with Crenguța LEAUA.

Marin Voicu, PhD, graduated from a number of prestigious post-university programmes and holds a PhD in civil law. He is currently a Professor of EU law with the 'Spiru Haret' University of Bucharest. Throughout his career he served as judge and president of the Constanta Court of Appeals (1993-2001) and later seated as judge of the High Court of Cassation and Justice (2001-2005). Between 1996 and 1999 he was the appointed judge for Romania with the European Court of Human Rights in Strasbourg. He has published over 150 studies, including six monographs in the field of civil law, among which Arbitrajul comercial. Jurisprudenta adotata si comentata 2004 – 2014 [Commercial Arbitration. Annotated and Commented Caselaw 2004-012] (Univrsul Juridic, 2014). He is the founder and editor in chief of the Romanian Maritime Law Magazine. For his activity, he was awarded the 'Victor Dan Zlătescu' awards of the Union of Jurists from Romania (2001) and the Special Award of the Union of Jurists from Romania (2003). He was decorated with the National Order 'Faithful service' in the rank of 'Officer' in 2000. He is frequently appointed as arbitrator. He is a member of the Board of CICA-CCIR, where he is also listed as arbitrator.

E-mail: avocat-cab@yahoo.com

He is the author of the chapter A Selection of CICA – CCIR Caselaw.

Note of the authors: The considerations expressed in each chapter of this book by all and any of the authors above represent the personal views of the authors of the chapters and they are not binding upon any arbitral or professional institution or law firms, neither on the editors or the authors of the other chapters.